Tennis Teams Play Matches

The Interscholastic Tennis League season got its official start yesterday when a series of matches were played.

the Bronx Giants, a semipro team, Wallace Hood, a rookie, broke up the Brooklyn-Boston game in the eleventh for the Dodgers with a two-base blow that sent Rourdy Elliat over the pan. ## Two Round Trips for Tilly Walker

YESTERDAY'S ball game was unique in many respects. Tilly Walker made two home runs, Joe Dugan and Jim O'Neill made one each and George Burns, pinch hitting in the ninth, knocked a homer to the far corner of the blenchers in center field and limped to second because of a burn ankle. The A's presented the visitors with the ball game, and the visitors were too gentlemanly to refuse it

But the outstanding feature was the prize, ivorycoated, bonchend pluy which was perpetrated with rare courage but no judgment in the seventh canto. Julin Anderson stole second with the bases full. Fred Merkle forgot the location of second, base, Fred Snodgrass muffed a fly ball and lost a world series, but these gays are en ad of him and winning the ball game then and there. If the old boy hadn't been sore he never would have stepped into the batting order. Better keep him riled all senson.

Cravath is one of the greatest hitters in baseball. Of course, we have our Babe Ruths, but Gavyy delivers in a pinch more often than any of them. He has an unusually keen eye, waits for the kind of a ball he wants to hit and then hits it. Last year, despite the few games in which he played, he led the league with homers, making a total of twelve. . . .

THE Phils will be here tomorrow for their first I game. Cravath will start his first season as a manager, and the fans expect to turn out to shoke their appreciation and prove they have confidence in ove of the men who has made history baseball in Philadelphia.
