IUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of the Coming Out-of-Doors Affairs. She Speaks of the Frazier-Brown Wedding Today. Other Bits of Gossip

the bridil said area by Boustons are in with dark hair. The Houstons are in mourning for Henry, who was killed in the war, and so the reception after in the war, and so the reception after the weading will not be a very large the weading will not be a very large affair. Molly Thayer, who was to have been a bridesnaid, will not set as one be-cause of the death of her aunt. Mrs. cause of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Percy Keating, which occurred a short Percy Keating, which occurred a short Percy Keating, which occurred a short time ago. West Frazier will have his brother, the Rev. Robert Frazier, who married Luella Edwards, of Brooklyn, a few months ago, as best man. And charlotte's uncle, Doctor Crawford, will perform the ceremony. Bishop Rhine-nader will be present and will pro-nounce the blessing. And in St. Mar-tin's in the Field Church you may im-tin's in the Field Church you may im-sgine how lovely it will be! That church is a most picturesque place for a wedding. The Borie-McAllister one two weeks ago there was one of the wo weeks ago there was one of the ettiest I have seen for a long time. THAT a stunning-looking woman Mrs. Sam Bell, Jr., is! I saw her

W Mrs. Sam Hell. Jr., is? I saw her the other evening wearing a black vel-ret gown cut on long lines, which ac-centuated her slender figure, and she does hold herself so well. The bodice was cut in a deen V both front and back, silver fulle being used to build it up a little in front. The skirt, which was plain, was finished with a long, graceful train. About her neck Mrs. Bell wore a string of pearls. Another black frock I noted recently was worn by Mrs. Stanley G. Flags, ifr. It was of dull crepe de chine and was made with a surpliced bodice and was made with a surpliced bodice and was made with a surpliced bodice and was de front and had a long, narrow train, too, Mrs. Flagg's bright hair looked so pretty in contrast to the black gown.

black gown OESN'T this weather make you Miss Virginia Arscott. think of out-of-doors affairs au' rything? Why, it just makes you werything? Why, it just makes you want to go into the country and walk and walk and walk. It makes you think of iong rides through fields and over fences on a prancing horse with the wind blowing on your cheeks. I the wind blowing ou your cheeks. I tell you, it would be great! And then you like to think of horse shows and you like to think of horse shows and popy shows and races and meets. There are so many of these things in the planning. There's Mrs. Clothier's Popy Show May 12, from 11 a. m. until 11 p. m. And then there will be the lieron Show later in the month and sorts of benefits through May and Inne. The Abington Hospital Fete, which is to be called "Once in a Blue Moon." will be held in June. And I like that house. It means that everything to be old will be so unusual that it will only en "once in a blue moon.

HEARD some people talking about the Devon Show this year and they said that Mrs. Charles E. Coxe would have the thatched roof market in her care ; while Mrs. Edward LeBoutillier will engineer the Baby Show. That show is to be held on the afternoon of May 29 and already ten silver cups have been contributed for it. One does wonder where the money all comes from. We gasp at the prices of things and yet

A do you realize that the Indoor Show is only ten days off? That is, the Fashion part of it. for that will be held on May 3 and the Horse Show will be on May 6, 7 and 8. I am looking arward to the Fushion Show with great pectation, for we have not had one

CHARLOTTE BROWN will make a pretty bride today. I am sure. She is very dark and has fine coloring, and the bridal satin always looks so lovely with dark hair. The Houstons are in With dark hair. The Houstons are in Notre Dame alumnae in the Clover A card party will be given by the Notre Dame alumnae in the Clover Room of the Bellevue-Stratford, on May 1, for the benefit of the building fund at Trinity College, Washingtov, Mrs. William King is chairman of the committee and is supported by Miss Caro-line Murphy, Mrs. Harry Mesirov, Miss Mary Lowry and others.

Mary Lowry and others. Mrs. A. Nelson Clarke of Mer-chantville, will be hostess at the next meeting of her bridge club on Wed-nesday. The members include Mrs. Nelson Clarke, Mrs. W. Ralston Rod-gers, Mrs. Louis Schwartz, Mrs. H. F. Maharg, Mrs. Harold Lyon, Mrs. Pitt-man Baker, Mrs. James Charlton, Mrs. C. Harry Fehling Mrs. Charles Phil-lips, Miss Edith Kite and Mrs. Carroll Haines. Haines.

Mr. Robert T. Fox. of New York. spent last week-end with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fox. Dr. and Mrs. Edison Pettit, of Wil-liamsday, Wis. are receiving congratu-lations on the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Pettir was formerly Miss Hannah E. Steele, of Wayne. After July 1 Doctor and Mrs. Pettit will live in Pittsburgh, where Doctor Pettit will be director of the observatory.

Mr. Chrence Roever, of New York, spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roever, at St. Davids, Mrs. Frauk W. Reed, of Wayne, will entertain in honor of her daugh ter, Miss Evelyn Gould Reed, this afternoon. Among the guests will be Miss Isabel Ehardt, Miss Ann Hunter, Miss Peggy Chew, Miss Mary Stockley, Miss Evelyn Watles, Miss Elizabeth Houston, Miss Isabell Spaulding, Miss Maney Forsythe, Miss Dorothy Weher, Miss Lenora Weber, Miss Isabel Righter and Miss Virginia Arscott

Dr. and Mrs. Harry B. Adams, of 4642 Spruce street, have issued invi-tations for a dinner of twenty-four covers on Saturday evening. May 1. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ziesing, of Midland avenue, Wayne, entertained at dinner before the last of the St. Davids subscription dances.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE Mrs. Clarence Leigh Moyer, of Syc-amore and Orchard roads. Merion, will give a bridge on Tuesday for the bene-fit of the Webster Street House.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Collins, of Old Railroad avenue. Haverford, who are traveling in Japan, expect to return home about June 1.

Mr. and Mrs Frank E Hammer, of Derwen road, Cynwyd, who have been Moir. Chestnut Hill, and Mr. William visiting in Boston and Councepticut, ve- West Frazier, 3d, son of Mr. and Mrs. turned home on Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Scull, of Bala avenue

Harry Hartman, Mrs. Ernest May Morris aud Mrs. Joseph Launing. Miss Margaert McMenamy, Miss Clara Wiza, Miss Agnes Mellovern, Miss Annette Mechan aud Miss Beat-rix Alvarez, members of the graduating have returned from a five days' trip to and will carry a large bouquet of white lines. The Rev, Robert P. Frazier will act as best man, and the ushers include

Photo by Photo-Cratter-MRS. LE GRAND B. CANNON And two of her attendants, Mrs. Joseph W. Bailey, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth C. Norris. Mrs. Cannon before her marriage was Miss Pauline Denckla

MISS C. H. BROWN TO

vis-Hunter Nuptials

place, South, Germantown.

The wedding of Miss Charlotte Harding Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Cuartes in her care thatched roof market in her care the Mrs. Edward LeBoutillier will incer the Baby Show. That show to be held on the afternoon of May and already the silver cups have e garp at the prices of things and yet get them. The tobace on and eigarette booth will that in W. Bones. Mrs. Lambert J. Strawbridge. A NT while on the subject of shows, A NT wh

Duchesse lace, pearls and orange blos-soms. She will carry a shower bouquet of orchids and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will live in Hackensack. N. J. The bridegroom was a captain in the First Division of the United States Infantry. ORCHESTRA PRESENTS A SPLENDID PROGRAM

CARPENTER-MILLS

CARPENTER—MILLS An attractive wedding of the week was that of Miss Elizabeth A. Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mills, of 6731 North Carlisle street, and Mr. William F. Carpenter, of 236 Du-pont street, Roxborough, which was solemnized on Wednesday evening at the solemnized on Wednesda mdants, Mr. Clarence R. Carpenter was his Saens's little known Fifth concerto endants.

bride wore a gown of white georgette and taffeta, with a veil trimmed with and inffeta, with a veil trimmed with old point lace belonging to her mother. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Jepuie Daly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink geor-gette. Miss Ethel Ballance was brides-maid, and wore a blue georgette dress. Both carried house a spring forces. Both carried bouquets of spring flowers. Mr. Richard Connolly was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Frank J. Crosson, Mr. George J. Helden and Mr.

Frank J. Morau. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Keeney left for a short trip and will be at home after May 1 at 2410 North Fifteenth street.

CLARK-CARNEY

MISS C. H. BROWN TO WED W. W. FRAZIER, 3D Mrs. George Boyd Married to Mr. Theodore Pomeroy—Da-vis-Hunter Nuptials her sister. Miss Cordella Carney.

WISSAHICKON

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kahle

EASBY-HARRIS Samuel Frederic Houston, of Druin Moir. Chestnut Hill, and Mr. William West Frazier. 3d. son of Mr. and Mrs. William West Frazier. 4r., will take place today at noon in the Church of St. Martins-in-the-Field. Chestnut HEARD some people talking about Mrs. J. T. Scull, of Bala avenue, place today at noon in the current of clock at the Memorial Church of St. Bala, gave a juncheon followed by cards on Wednesday. Her guests included the St. Martins-in-the-Field. Chestnut at Mrs. Charles E. Coxe would have following: Mrs. David T. Mitchell, Hill. The bridesmuids will be Miss wood, rector of the church, will perform the centre of market in her care: Mrs. J. Cloud, Mrs. Garfield List. Mrs. Miss Eugenia Cassatt. Miss Elizabeth of Auburndale. Mass., as matron of solemnized on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Doctor Hackenberg, of the Oak Lane Methodist Episcopai Church. Mr. Mills gave his daughter in marriage, and Miss Elizabeth M. Rutledge, bridesmaid, and Miss Carolyn Wilt, the little niece of the bride. flower girl, were her at-conducta

Fine Rendition of Tschaikowsky

Mr. Clarence R. Carpenter was his brother's best man. A reception followed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter the service. Mr. and Wrs. Carpenter the service. Mr. and the service served during the world war with the 128th Regiment. United States marine corps. KEENEY-DALY An interesting wedding took place on Our Lady of Mercy. Broad street and sually intense yet with no sense ot part of Mr. Hugh Susquehanna avenue, when Miss Mar-gmerite M. Daly, daughter of Mr. Hugh Daly, became the bride of Mr. Hugh Neeney. The ceremony was per-strongly contrasted trio for the wood and the finale are more complicated than Coghlan, rector of the church. The but, as they always are, proved to be the most popular with the audience who applauded both to the echo. The whole work was given with strength and virility and the performance was unquestionably one of the finest pieces of symphonic of the current season. Sibelius's "Swan of the Tuonela." a legend from the Finnish folk-epic "Kalevala" was the second number on "Kalevala" was the second number on the concise, and attractive program. The composition is principally a solo for English horn and Mr. Henkelman played the expression solo part with great beauty of tone and faultless rhythm. At the close Mr. Stokowski made him rise and acknowledge the ap-least known of any of the Saint-Saens-piano concerto, with the possible ex-

COMING MUSIC EVENTS

Miss Estells Hughes suprano, winner of the Stokowski medal in 1919, will be one of the colorists at the orchestra concerts next work. She is the first winner to be granted an appearance with the orchestra, and she will sing two great colorature ariss. The voce poor fs. 'from the 'Barber of St.' Ville' and the 'Mad Scene, from 'Lucia The other soloid will be Marcel Tabutesan first obus of the orchestra, who will play an strangement of the Mozart obus out the for aboe and small orchestra, that by Mr. stokuwski. The orchestra in umbers are the overfure to the 'Barber of Seville' and three Wagnerian numbers.

The Treble Clef Club will give a condert in time at the ballroom of the Aldine Morel next Twenday evening at 8 o'clock. A work by Frances McCollin will be suns, and the solos will be taken by junior numbers of the club.

After June 1 Mr. and Mrs. Olduch-will be at home at 36 West Ashmend of 417 Righter street, have announced the marriage of their daughter. Miss estant Episcopal Church, Mr. and Mrs. Wiltbank will be at home after May 1 at 21 Swarthmore road, Brookline. Mrs. George W. Schraeder, of 232 Sumac street, enfertained the members

sister as matron of honor

are all stunners, so I do think it will be SETSY had had afternoon tea with mother in one of the hotels and was very tired and bored fittle person er said tra was fluished. In fact, because quite festless and fussy: rau in and out of the hotel room DETSY had had afternoon tea with rau in and out of the hotel room ting for mother to get through talking, till finally mother called her, say-ing: "Come, Betsy, sit down and watch these pretty ladies; see, they not all running about. Sit still as And Betsy, looking about her with wide-opened eyes, remurked loudly : "But, mother, I don't think they are

NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. Clement Buckley Newbold, of rosswicks House, Jenkintown, ances the engagement of his daugh-Miss Mary Dickinson Newbold to ter. Miss Mary Dickinson Newbold to Mr. Stephen Duncau Colhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forbes Colhoun. Miss Newbold is the daughter of Mr. Newbold and his wife, the late Mary Dickinson Scott, daughter of the late Colonel and Mrs. Thomas A. Scott of this city. Mr. Colhoun joined the First Troop Philadelphia City Cavalry at the commencement of the war. and e commencement of the war, and I in France with a trench mortar parents lived formerly in Mary-but now live in this city. He wil, but now live in this city. He a grandson of the late Dr. Edward Blackburn, of Natchez, Miss., and great nephew of the late Senator ackburn, of Kentucky.

Mrs. Harry Clifton Adams, of 1712 me street, announces the engagement her daughter, Miss Evelyn Newbold mith, to Mr. Frederick H. Lee, Jr.

aton. Mass., where she has entered string of her prize-winning horses at a Brookline Horse Show. Miss Isa ella Wanamaker and Mrs. Henriques rawford accompanied her. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Martyn Dunn, of East Gravers lane, have bought the property on southwest cor-ner of Summit street and Prospect ave. In about June 1 oout June 1. Miss Sarah P. Cassidy and Miss Louise Truman Cochran, of the Trout-mere, Washington lane, Germantown, who have had a bungalow at Ocean City for a month, returned home yesterday. Schwarz.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Jaquette, of Wayne, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mrs. J. Elliot Shaw, who has been spending the winter with her daughter, at Malden, Mass., has returned to

Mrs. A. Nash Burke entertained at the Thursday afternoon, at the Ritz-Carlton. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Quenuell. Her guests included those who will be aldes at the The Dausant to be given at the Ritz-Carl-tor on Saturday, May S, for the benefit of the Misericordia Hospital. Among those present were Miss Marie Camblos, Miss Lydia Farrell, Miss Agnes Katherine Scannell. Miss Katherine Schlater, Miss Caroline Murphy, Miss Marguerite MacDonald, Miss Kath-Mrs. A. Nash Burke entertained at

WEST PHILADELPHIA WEST PHILADELPHIA Miss Virginia Dickey Tredick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell S. erine Reeves Hunter, daughter of Mrs. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell S. Tredick, of 0131 Christian street, will celebrate her third birthday this after-noon from 3 until 5 o'clock. Her small guests will be Miss Lois Jean Meyers, Miss Gertrude Saeger, Miss Mildred Phielan, Miss Helen Parlette, Miss Warnock Hutscu, Master Frederick Seitz, Master Frank Jarrett, Master Dutton Tredick and Master Wendell S. Tredick, Jr. Miss Helen M. Boyd, of the Powel-

Mrs. Beijamin Bullock, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Beijamin Bullock, Jr., Dodds lane, Ardmore, are entertain-te Mrs. Bullock's sister, Mrs. S. L. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Connelly Miss Constance Vanchain has gone to Miss Constance Vanchain has gone to Miss Helen M. Boyd, of the Powel-ther uncle, Mr. Samuel R. Reeves. Miss Helen M. Boyd, of the Powel-ther uncle, Mr. Samuel R. Reeves. Miss Helen M. Boyd, of the Powel-ther uncle, Mr. Samuel R. Reeves. Miss Helen M. Boyd, of the Powel-ther uncle, Mr. Samuel R. Reeves. The bride will wear her mother's wedding gown, trimmed with of lace, and her veil and train will also be of old family lace, trimmed with orange blossoms. She will carry a bouquet of orchids and lilles of the valley. Mrs. Robert Hunter, who will attend the bride as matron of honor, will wear a dress of American Beauty organdie with an organdie hat to match. She

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Connelly have returned from their wedding trip and will sail on Tuesday for an ex-tended European tour. The bride was Miss Gertrude M. Melia, of 3653 North Marvine street. Mr. Connelly served overseas for two years as lieutenant in the First Division, United States medical corps.

a dress of American Beauty organdie with an organdie hat to match. She will carry lavender sweet peas. Miss Ann Ellicott and Miss Betsy Warren Davis, a sister of the bridegroom, will be maids of honor. They will wear frocks of violet organdie with organdie hats of the same tone, and will carry deep crimson sweet peas. The flower girls will be Miss Mary Hunter, a sister of the bride, and Miss Carolyn R. Davis, another sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses and hats will be of pink organdie and they will carry sweetheart roses and lavender Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Neyland, who have been traveling through the South, are at home at San Antonio. Tex. Mrs. Neyland, who was a bride of March 31, was Miss Elizabeth R. carry sweetheart roses and lavender carry sweetheart roses and lavender sweet peas. Mr. Davis will have his brother, Mr. Burgess Warren Davis, as best man. The ushers will be Mr. Robert Hunter, Mr. Paul R. H. Hunter and Mr. Alfred Reeves Hunter, Mr. S. Davis Page. Mr. Burnham Lewis, Mr. Stewart Coryall, Mr. Edward Lawrence Davis and Mr. John Walker, of Chicago. A small reception will follow the ceremony at the Acorn Club. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorsey are spending their wedding trip in the South and on their return will be at home after May I at 7021 Torresdale avenue. Mrs. Dorsey before her mar-riage, which took place on Wednes-day, April 14, was Miss Cecilia Ward.

FRANKFORD

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Herbert, 1686 Harrison street, who spent the winter Florida, have returned home.

ized at 7 o'clock, and a reception will H. Scott, Mr. Alexander D. Thayer, Mr. Joseph W. Lewis, Mr. Francis P. Frazier, Mr. Charles Wardell Brown, St. John's Episcopal Church, will of Better-Baby Show," Those who will take part are: Miss Katharine Gar-galli, Miss Gladys Law, Miss Bessie Hemphill, Miss Mary Kennedy, Miss Virginia Allison, Miss Ida Menhlich, Miss Edith Johnson, Miss Ida Menhlich, Miss Falith Johnson, Miss Eva Duckett, Miss Nellie Emmett, Miss Annie Rachelle, Miss Edna Gotwols, Miss Esther Ferguson, Miss Minnie Bam-ford, Miss Clara Egan, Miss Annie Fales, Miss Constance Rhodes, Miss Mary Kennedy, Miss Dorothy Macin-doe, Miss Lillian Heap, Miss Buth Waldron, Miss Mary Callioun, Miss Mary Kingdon, Miss Lillian Jones, Miss Elise Firman, Miss Grace Kyle, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Elsié Ennis and Miss Grace Adams. and Miss Grace Adams.

The bride will wear a gown of ivory satin which was worn by her mother on her wedding day. Her veil of tulle will fall to the end of her court train and is surmounted by a coronet of and is surmounted by a coronet of the national convention

Saturday Closing Hour, 1 P. M.

And Fairly Priced

INVITES THE BETTER DRESSED WOMEN OF ECONOMICAL INCLINATION

In Sunday's Public Ledger

11

GOOD BYE! TORNEY 000000000 May 3TWO NEERS ZIEGFELD FOL PRICES, INCLUDING WAR TAX-Evenings (Except Sat.) Orchestra, $4.40; Ba $3.55, $3.30, $2.20. Gallery (Reserved) $1.10. Matinees Wed. & Fat. Orchestra, Balcony, $3.30, $2.75, $2.20. Gallery (Reserved) $1.10. Saturday Evenings, Orch $5.50. Balcony, $4.40, $5.85, $3.30, $2.20. Gallery (Reserved) $1.10. Remittance accompany all orders. BOX OFFICE SALE THURSDAY. APRIL 29. AT 9 A. M. NEXT WEEK-LAST WEEK BROAD Broad and Locust FRANK NIRDLINGER GEORGE

