

WILL IT BE A CLEAN-UP WEEK FOR THE WELL-KNOWN A'S? YOU TELL 'EM, MULE, I'M A LIL' HOARSE

HERBIE PENNOCK'S DIZZY SLANTS TURN MACK'S WHITE ELEPHANTS INTO A MOROSE ULTRAMARINE

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL.

ANOTHER somewhat distressing incident occurred at Shibe Park yesterday afternoon when Mr. Mack's Athletics participated in a ball game with Mr. Barrow's Red Sox...

stopped Wilde should have been disqualified and Murray declared the winner as Murray was the stronger of the two.

"Now take the contest from round to round, and Murray is again the winner. The first five rounds were all Murray's, the sixth belonged to Wilde and the seventh was even.

"But the best proof in the world that Murray was strong was he did not take any count. He immediately got up and resumed fighting, and when the contest was stopped one of the most surprised men in the clubhouse was Jimmy Wilde himself.

"I claim that Murray won the fight and when the contest was stopped, as I stated above, Wilde should have been disqualified and Murray announced as the new flyweight champion.

"Nothing would please me better than to have Battling Murray, the flyweight champion of America, to remain now Jimmy Wilde, the flyweight champion of England, and I think in the next contest Murray will win by a knockout.

Yours respectfully, "JOHNNY BURAS"

Detroit Is Making Baseball History

WE ARE not very certain about this because of scarcity of data, but from where we are sitting it looks as if the Detroit Tigers have established a world's record or something like that this season.

Something must be wrong with that Detroit club, down south it looked wonderful in the series with the Braves; everybody said Jennings would come close to winning the American League pennant, but when that pennant race began the Tigers were left at the post in their first game.

"Jack Johnson is in old Tia Juana running a booze joint and making money. He doesn't look in good shape and isn't very popular.

Makes 'Em Reel in Many Reels

BENNY LEONARD is working in a picture out on the coast and according to Billy Gibson is looking "on dead on the screen."

"Benny, myself and the entire motion picture company have just returned from Tia Juana, where the eighth episode of the serial was completed.

"I have received several offers from motion picture magnates of note for a five-reeler for Leonard, but just as soon as this serial is over he is anxious to start fighting so nothing will be done."

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger, Inc.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING?

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

Elimination process in the local light-weight division for the purpose of determining a logical Philadelphia opponent for Lew Tendler will be resumed in the star bout at the Auditorium A. A. tonight.

Johnny Dukko, Almontown middleweight is now making his home in Philly. Herb Winter is handling the water.

Two Trenton bantams, Lou Angelo and Patsy Johnson, are to meet in an eight round bout, 120 pounds ring-side, in that city under the auspices of the Trenton Non-American Legion on May 12.

Charles O'Neil and Young Neil, of Allentown, will be principals in the star scrap at the Cambria next Friday night.

Jack McMorrot, head usher at the National club and Camden sportsman's club, will be the manager of the original Jolly Jack country club at Oak's drawing, Rouses tonight.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Jeppie, British Hurdler, Trains on Cigarettes

Athletes training on Franklin Field for the relays were surprised yesterday afternoon to see Jeppie, British hurdling champion, emerge from the dressing room puffing a cigarette and inhaling it with the utter abandon of an after-dinner smoker.

When asked if smoking impaired his training, Jeppie replied that so far as he knew it never bothered him.

Matter of fact, he added, he had always smoked cigarettes when in training. Both Jackson and Al Shrubbs were present while Jeppie was enjoying the weed.

Lafayette Sprinter Has Flu. Eastern, April 27.—The horses which Lafayette College had of winning the sprint relay championship this Friday at the Penn relay carnival were not back yesterday when Coach Harold J. Hulse announced that Earl Kunkel, the Middle States intercollegiate champion, would be unable to run.

Sammy Decker, West Philadelphia boxer, will be one of the principals in awaiting the annual date of the original Jolly Jack country club at Oak's drawing, Rouses tonight.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

Three Philadelphia boxers will appear on the scene program at Reading county, W. Va. on May 1. They are Mike O'Dowd, formerly of Baltimore; Battling Paddock and Johnny Lawrence, respectively.

Joe Laviene, 122-125 pounds, and Rubo Hoffman, 115 pounds, are a pair of fighters under the management of M. Harpauer, who permits his intimate friends to call him "Massie" on May 19.

Dr. W. J. Crocker, of the University of Pennsylvania, will meet Tom Cowell, of West Philadelphia High school, in the heavyweight bout of Major A. J. Drexel Field's amateur league round with the object of winning a prize of $100.

CRAVATH LEADS FIELD FOR EXTRA BASE HITS

No One Else as Good as Fourth Against 700 Extra Bases of Phils' Leader in Twilight of Slugging Career

By GRANTLAND RICE

WHILE the politicians rave and the spellbinders imagine strange things an Oxford-Cambridge track team travels 3000 miles to help show that in all matters of sportsmanship and clean, hard competition the Stars and Stripes will be the victor.

The Prime Minister of Swat FIGURED through a span of years, Old Man Cactus Cravath is so far ahead of all other sluggers there is no one else as good as fourth.

Ruth has had one great year, and so at times have Schulte, Baker and others. But when no one else has reached the century mark in home runs, Cravath has padded along to the vicinity of 120 of these circuit affairs, a long slugger still slugging along through the twilight of his career.

Cravath has turned in 116 home runs up to this season, and he lost no great amount of time adding to his long list. He is the only one left who has turned in more than 700 extra bases, and in a great part of this time has not been a regular.

Each year in the way of extra bases he has averaged ten more than Ty Cobb. He isn't fleet of foot nor cyclonic around the township, but he can hit the ball so far that walking is good enough to take him where he wants to go.

It's a Gay Life MOISSIEUR CARPENTIER'S pro-fession seems to be (1) the movies; (2) vaudeville; (3) the circus.

Having exhausted all financial possibilities in these three directions, no further notion is made of any impending activities concerned with the uppercut and the jab.

The race between Carpentier and Dempsey seems to be a matter as to which can outtake of the greatest number of enterprises outside of the ring and well away from the ring.

Why not clean up while the cleaning is good? Very well, let it go at that.

Modern Fable ONCE upon a time there was a brazier who wanted regular money for what he did, but who insisted upon earning all he got.

While esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

He outlined this idea to nineteen employers and they all dropped dead. Briefs: he was willing to hustle for the swag.

And while esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

He outlined this idea to nineteen employers and they all dropped dead. Briefs: he was willing to hustle for the swag.

While esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

He outlined this idea to nineteen employers and they all dropped dead. Briefs: he was willing to hustle for the swag.

While esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

He outlined this idea to nineteen employers and they all dropped dead. Briefs: he was willing to hustle for the swag.

While esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

He outlined this idea to nineteen employers and they all dropped dead. Briefs: he was willing to hustle for the swag.

While esteeming the fragrant odor of kale he was also deeply interested in his job. In the act of getting more money he was even willing to work longer hours.

CORNELL LOOMS UP LARGE FOR RELAYS

Ithacans Have Fast Entries in All Events for Meet at Franklin Field Friday and Saturday

By SPICK HALL.

PICKING a winner for the Pennsylvania relays at Franklin Field Friday and Saturday is just as easy as deciding definitely which one of the Ithacans will win that as if they won it. Virtually all of the colleges represented in the relays are picking them.

Cornell is coming to the historic West Philadelphia stadium, battling, growing with twenty six athletes. And they are real athletes, at that. Moakley himself hasn't been bragging, he's been working. So have his track men. They are right on edge to put up a battle not in a few events as favorites, but all of them.

Break Record This will be the first year that Cornell has entered more than one relay team. But this time they are coming down from Ithaca loaded for home and the other legs of the field and track.

The four men upon whom Cornell is depending in the two mile relay are Captain K. A. Moyer, F. L. Aronson, T. C. McDermott and G. H. Stanton. Moyer is the present intercollegiate 40 and 800 yard champion. Stanton is a new man, but he won the half mile in the Cornell Michigan meet and intercollegiate runner, that distance and winter on an indoor track in 1:20.

Both Have Scored McDermott and Aronson have both scored points in all of the big state plate events in which they have taken part. They were also on the Cornell team that won the four mile relay last year in 18 minutes, 41.4 seconds. With these records behind them and inspired by the speediest form of teams that ever took part in a relay relay, Cornell is sure to be a threat of "Shorelouts" at the finish.

In Smith and Watt, Cornell has two great hurdlers. The former landed first place and the latter second in the intercollegiate last year. The quarter-mile hurdles finals will be run off on Friday, and it would not be a surprise if one of these men not only won the event but smashed the record.

Cornell is also strong in the jumps. J. A. Ramsay, who tied for fourth place in the 100 yard intercollegiate, is getting much better for this spring than ever before and has repeatedly cleared the bar at 6 feet 1 inch.

H. S. Miller last week did a practice broad jump of 27 feet 11 1/2 inches. Miller is a natural broad jumper, and the fact that he has leaped better than twenty-three feet makes him one of the favorites for this year's Miller should have a great career ahead of him, for he is only a sophomore. He came from Mount Vernon, Va. His broad jumping ability was discovered by accident one day when Moakley was trying to get out of an office at the event. On that occasion Miller jumped better than twenty feet in rubber shoes. After that he was given special attention.

JACK MOAKLEY The man who is putting the Cornell track team in condition for the Penn relays

The three mile race, Cornell has Brown and Thompson, both of whom are racing good now.

A stunning up bridge to stage was some of the snags it's hard to pick the winner, but Cornell seems to have as good a chance as any other team.

Major Biddle Tournament August, April 27th Auditorium A. A. 6th & Brown

AL WHITE'S Auditorium, 13th & Chestnut

H. S. Miller last week did a practice broad jump of 27 feet 11 1/2 inches. Miller is a natural broad jumper, and the fact that he has leaped better than twenty-three feet makes him one of the favorites for this year's Miller

PENN CREW STARTS FINAL WEEK'S WORK

Turner Returns, but Is Given No Position in Either Boat

Point's varsity crew took to the water yesterday afternoon in its final week of training before the triangular race with Harvard and Princeton, which is scheduled for next Saturday on the Charles river, at Boston.

Coch Wright shifted his boat of practice from the lower Schuylkill river to the cold course above the dam where the Penn crews were wont to train their way prior to the Yale race.

Since the meeting with Ed the Penn varsity crew has been subjected to drastic changes. Big Bill Turner had to depart for his home for reasons unknown, and his absence necessitated the substitution of McElroy in seat No. 4.

McElroy rowed a strong sea on the Penn varsity before. Turner showed up yesterday for the first time since his disappearance, and contrary to expectations neither assumed his seat in the varsity nor chased Red O'Gorman out of the same seat in the junior varsity. It is thought that Turner may be lost to the Penn boat as it would break up the present combination to get him back into either boat at this season. The men rowed as follows:

Turner, O'Gorman, McElroy, O'Neil, Hoffman, Laviene, Crocker, Cowell, Drexel, Field, Lawrence, Paddock, and Johnny.

OLYMPIA MADRID BAINBRIDGE HALLS, 13th & Chestnut, Mon. Evg., May 3d, 1920

Ray O'Malley vs. Jimmy Glacken Marty Kane vs. Victor Richie Johnny Reiser vs. Eddie Harvey Jimmy Tierney vs. Frankie Jerome

Burman vs. O'Donnell

SPECIAL Wednesday, May 5th GEORGES CARPENTIER Champion of Europe—Idol of France With a Great Boxing Show

Auditorium A. A., 6th & Brown

Men Ordering these New Spring Suitings at a Mighty Fast Clip!

$50 It is little wonder. A hundred distinctly different patterns worth, according to usual Chestnut Street standards, $65 to $75.

AND FIRST Thing a man does after he orders one is to go tell his friends about his fortunate "buy."

Have you ordered yours yet?

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER Tailoring Shop 1217-19 Chestnut St.

SATURDAY, BASEBALL B and Tioga Sts. MAY 1st Dedication of New Athletic Field U. S. Marines vs. Marshall E. Smith & Bro.

SUNDAY, MAY 2d Cramp's Professionals vs. Marshall E. Smith & Bro. Baseball Uniforms Team Lot Only

Regular Team Price 15.00 reduced to 11.50 Regular Team Price 12.50 reduced to 9.50 TY COBB Fielders' Glove 9.00 reduced to 6.00 No. 65—Horsehide Glove 6.00 reduced to 3.50 No. 251—Tan Leather Glove 3.00 reduced to 2.00 Bats—Professional Models 2.00 reduced to 1.50 Balls—Official 2.50 reduced to 1.75

Base Ball Shoes Professional model 10.00 reduced to 8.50 Sprinter model 8.00 reduced to 6.50 Regulation model 6.00 reduced to 4.50

Marshall E. Smith & Bro. 25 and 27 South Eighth Street

Advertisement for Billy Moran, The Tailor, featuring a portrait of a man and text: "One Fellow Said—'I saw exactly the same kind of a Spring Suit as you are selling for $42.75. Marked $85.00 in a ready-to-wear store'".

Large advertisement for Robt. Burns Cigar, featuring a detailed illustration of a hand holding a cigar and text: "Full Havana Filler. IF you should ask us to describe Robt. Burns in four words, we should say, 'Havana leaf plus mildness.'"