WOOD CARMES ATLANTIC
Negro Under Indictment Polls Big Vote for Delegate
Atlantic City, April 28.—General Wood, with the Edge-Bacharach support, carried Atlantic county. Almost complete returns give Wood 1759, to 1406 for Johnson.

Scores of Republicans wrote the name of Governor Edwards upon their ballot. Emerson Richards and F. Wallis Armstrong, organization candidates for delegates in the Second district, comprising Atlantic, Burlington, Cape May and Cumberland counties, were beaten by Senator Bright and William W. Worrell, the Wood standard-bearer. A heavy vote was cast for Isaac H. Nutter, of this city, a negro candidate for the "Big Four." Nutter, a Bacharach leader, is under indictment for receiving stolen goods. The Bacharachs threw all their strength to him in Atlantic City.

Edge as a presidential choice received more votes than were cast for Herbert Hoover. Mr. Hoover's captives in Atlantic county had a heavy vote in Atlantic City. The vote for the "Big Four" in the county was: Edge, 2741; Feilighuysen, 2405; Raymond, 1696; Stokes, 1540; Nutter, 1420; Griggs, 1009; Carothers, 1104; Ballard, 891, and Layden, 861.

BROAD ST. BUS LINE BILL CONSIDERED

Ordinance Providing for System Between Olney Ave. and Navy Yard Before Committee

P. R. T. TO FIGHT MEASURE

Permission to operate a line of motor buses on Broad street, from Olney avenue to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, is provided in an ordinance which was called up before the transportation committee of City Council this afternoon. The proposed line, according to provisions of the bill, is to be divided into three fare zones with rates as follows: Olney avenue to Girard avenue, five cents; Girard avenue to Washington avenue, five cents; Washington avenue to Navy yard, five cents. Many of the promoters of the bus line, it is said, are former saloonkeepers.

The ordinance was introduced by Councilman Roper two weeks ago and since then has been slumbering in committee. Strong opposition to the measure will be waged, it is said, by those who are feigning to be in favor of the Rapid Transit Co.

Another ordinance providing that the Rapid Transit Co. be permitted to run cars on the eastern part of the Roosevelt boulevard was also introduced.

COUNTY INQUIRY TO START

Council Committee Will Visit Commissioners' Office Today

The city Council committee on law and municipal and county government today will begin its inquiry into county offices by visiting that of the county commissioners. An appointment has been made with the commissioners by James A. Develin, chairman of the committee.

At a meeting last week the committee adopted a motion offered by William W. Roper, administration member from the Sixth district, whereby it would visit the office of the county commissioners for the purpose of obtaining information relative to the general affairs of their department. The action of the committee was with the understanding that the other county offices should subsequently be visited.

COX WILL HASTEN PROBE OF COUNCIL

Chairman to Organize Committee to Investigate Alleged Wrongful Delay of Bills

SEEKS ONLY INFORMATION

Council's investigating "committee of five" is going to see it through, and make prompt examination into charges that action on certain measures had been withheld in Council for improper purposes.

Councilman Edwin R. Cox, whose resolution in Council yesterday precipitated the investigation, declared this morning he would call a meeting of the committee this week for organization, and then get down to business.

"I have a tentative plan for the investigation," he said, "but I will say nothing about it at this time. We will move cautiously, avoiding undue notoriety.

"If it is true there is evidence, we would like to have it. If there is not any evidence, we want to know it. Personally, I don't know anything about the thing, only that I have seen in the papers and by rumor."

Mayor Silent on Charges

Mayor Moore refused this morning to make any comment on the investigation by the committee.

Asked if he favored the investigation, the Mayor said, "That is a matter entirely in the hands of Council."

Charles B. Hall, a member of the committee, was asked who was responsible for the charge that measures were being delayed for improper purposes.

"I don't know anything about it," he said, "I don't believe, in fact, there is any foundation for the charges. However, this gossip has got to stop, and the charges cleared up one way or the other."

Councilman Cox in his resolution declared statements that have appeared in the public press that certain measures were being withheld for improper motives were a reflection upon the integrity of Council. He requested, therefore, that the investigating committee be named with power to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of papers.

At the end of the session yesterday, Richard Wegelin, president of Council, named the investigating committee provided for in the resolution. He appointed on the committee the three members who voted against the resolution. Those three, who would constitute a majority of the committee, were William W. Roper and Charles L. Von Tagen, both of the Sixth district, and Robert T. Patton, of the Eighth district, all administration councilmen. Mr. Cox was named chairman of the committee. The fifth member was Mr. Hall, Vars member from the Second district.

WON'T RETURN TO HUSBAND, YOUNG BRIDE TELLS COURT

Gloucester Mayor Dismisses Charges Against Mother After Mrs. Strang Says Her Love Has Turned to Hate

Mrs. Mary L. Porter Strang, of Gloucester, N. J., sixteen-year-old bride of Arthur H. Strang, of National Park, N. J., on the witness stand today said in effect that "she was off her husband for life."

She doesn't love him and she won't live with him, so there!

Several attempts by Strang to speak to her youthful bride were carefully evaded and when she left the Gloucester City courtroom with her mother, Mrs. Eather Porter, she passed up "the unfortunate husband" like a pay car would a trap.

Following declarations by Mrs. Strang of utter disdain for her husband, Mayor Anderson dismissed charges against Mrs. Porter, her mother, alleging that she had caused her daughter to run away from Strang.

Today was the first time Strang has seen his wife since April 18, when, after an interfamily squabble in the home of the bride's mother, 3537 Powell street, Gloucester City, she handed him back his ring and told him she would not live with him.

The girl has been in Utica, N. Y., since that date. She said today that her parents did not even know her whereabouts until she wrote them.

Mrs. Strang told of her elopement to Elkton, Md., April 17, and her marriage to Strang. "He made me say I was eighteen years old," she testified. "He said he was twenty-one."

"Then we went back to my mother's home and everything went lovely until the morning after. Arthur and his mother came to the house and abused and threatened mother. It was then that my love changed to hate and I gave him back his ring. No, I don't love him and I won't live with him. Mother had nothing to do with it."

Catherine Sweeten and James Henderson, who accompanied the couple when they eloped, said the couple were very happy when they left them at the bride's home.

After Mrs. Porter was dismissed by Mayor Anderson Strang, his mother, Mrs. Mary Strang, and their attorney, C. P. DeWitt, held a conference to determine the next episode in the marital serial.

Dougherty Boosts Vaclain and Raps Governor at Media Meeting

James F. Dougherty, the "Baron of Leiperville," led the speaking at a anti-Sprout pro-Vaclain presidential rally in the Sixth Regiment Armory in Media last night. About 600 voters paraded the streets with red fire and later attended the meeting.

The prize fight promoter and former saloonkeeper urged that Governor Sprout be sidetracked and that Samuel M. Vaclain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, be Pennsylvania's choice at the Chicago convention.

He also charged the Governor with trying to get Vaclain to withdraw as a candidate for delegate to the national convention. He indulged in some other miscellaneous oratory on semidramatic subjects and made a very fair-sized speech.

It is said that a good time was enjoyed by all present.

Firemen Unable to Find Blaze at Children's Asylum

Crossed wires in the fire alarm box at the Catholic Home for Destitute Children, Twenty-ninth street and Albleghy avenue, sent an alarm that brought engines to the place at 3:06 o'clock this morning. The firemen found the place quiet and undisturbed.

After an investigation they departed without the majority of the children having been aware of their presence.

Five and a half years ago there was a serious fire in the home in which one of the sisters in charge of the children jumped from a window and was killed.

MOORE MEN'S ROW MAY NOT DELAY 'L'

Frankford Line to Be Rushed, but Mayor's Proposed Spur Will Be Fought

VARES GAIN TWO VOTES

The political engineering that caused a break-up in the Mayor's opinion in Council yesterday is not expected to hold up the early completion of the Frankford "L."

The Mayor's plan for a spur of that road from Front street and Kensington avenue, however, seems destined to meet hearty opposition from the Vars members of Council.

Following a stiff battle on the floor of the chamber at yesterday's meeting the Vars members succeeded in forcing consideration of the Mayor's $9,000,000 transit loan ordinance as two distinct measures instead of as related ordinance. The $5,000,000 loan measure providing for the equipment of the Frankford "L." and the proposed spur was railroaded through and referred to the finance committee, but the $4,000,000 loan bill for the construction of the spur was sidetracked to the transportation committee.

Vars members accomplished this coup by the aid of Councilmen William R. Horn and Robert J. Patton. Moore administration members from the north-east, who voted with the Vars members, all ten of whom "sat tight," giving a majority of 12 to 9.

Before the meeting the Vars combine leaders served notice that "things are different now" and that if Mayor Moore wanted loan ordinances passed by Council he must have fourteen votes or two-thirds of the membership of the body.

They pointed out that he has only eleven votes and must come to the combine forces for the other three. They intimated they have an "all-or-none" agreement in their ranks and that while they will back the loan for the equipment of the Frankford "L." to the limit, they have never been consulted about the construction of the extension to Broad street and Erie avenue. They insist it shall be taken up separately and given slow and full consideration. "There are many objections, they declared, which will be brought out at public hearings."
