

Society Prepares for Fashion Show: Seaplane Fleet Arrives: W.C.T.U. Members in England

MISS KITTY SMITH, Mrs. Victor Mather, Mrs. William L. Hirst and Mrs. L. H. Wilbur (left to right), who will appear in the Fashion Show, which will be held at the Third Regiment Armory, Broad and Wharton streets, Monday night

Ledger Photo Service

IF A SOLDIER DESIRES to tip his hat to the fair sex, it's proper. Secretary of War Baker recently made the ruling which makes the salute or cap raising optional

SEAPLANES MAKING UP the Atlantic fleet of the United States Naval Air Service arrived at the Philadelphia Navy Yard during a cruise that started at Norfolk. The craft came from Cape May yesterday.

THE MISSES MILDRED JAERG, Stella Jackson, Florence Williams and Wilhelmina Oliphant (left to right) in a dancing part of "The Vision of the Blue Crusaders," the Y. W. C. A. pageant, to be given tonight at the Academy of Music

ON A WIRELESS experimental trip, Senator and Lady Marconi have left an English port on their ship, the Electra. The craft is fitted with the latest wireless apparatus

PLACED IN COMMAND of the Southeastern department of the army, dating from tomorrow. He is Major General John F. Morrison

MEMBERS OF the Women's Christian Temperance Union of this country have invaded England. They are telling the English of the work accomplished in the U. S. A.

Underwood & Underwood

MISS BESSIE AGNES DWYER, who will represent the Philippine Islands at the national Democratic convention.

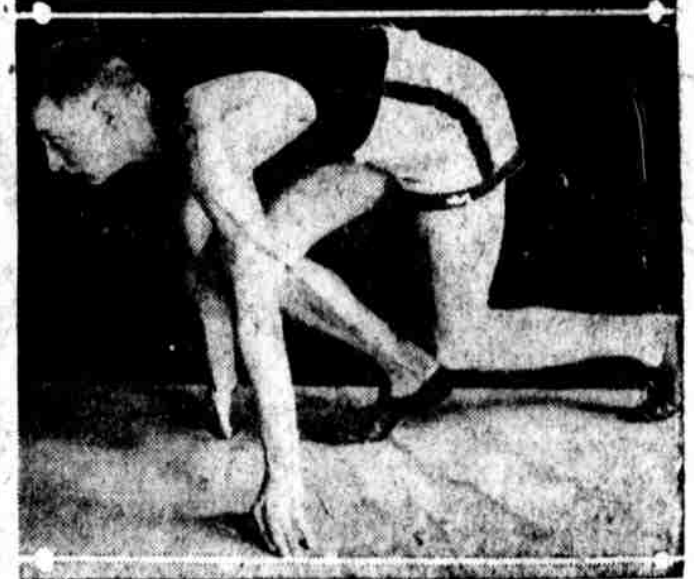

MANY SWINGS in active service at the Vane playground in South Philadelphia. One of the instructors is in the group to see that no harm comes to the children. No limit on high swinging seems to be in effect

GERALDINE GORDON COOKE, five years old, the youngest exhibitor of thoroughbred horses at the New York Horse Show

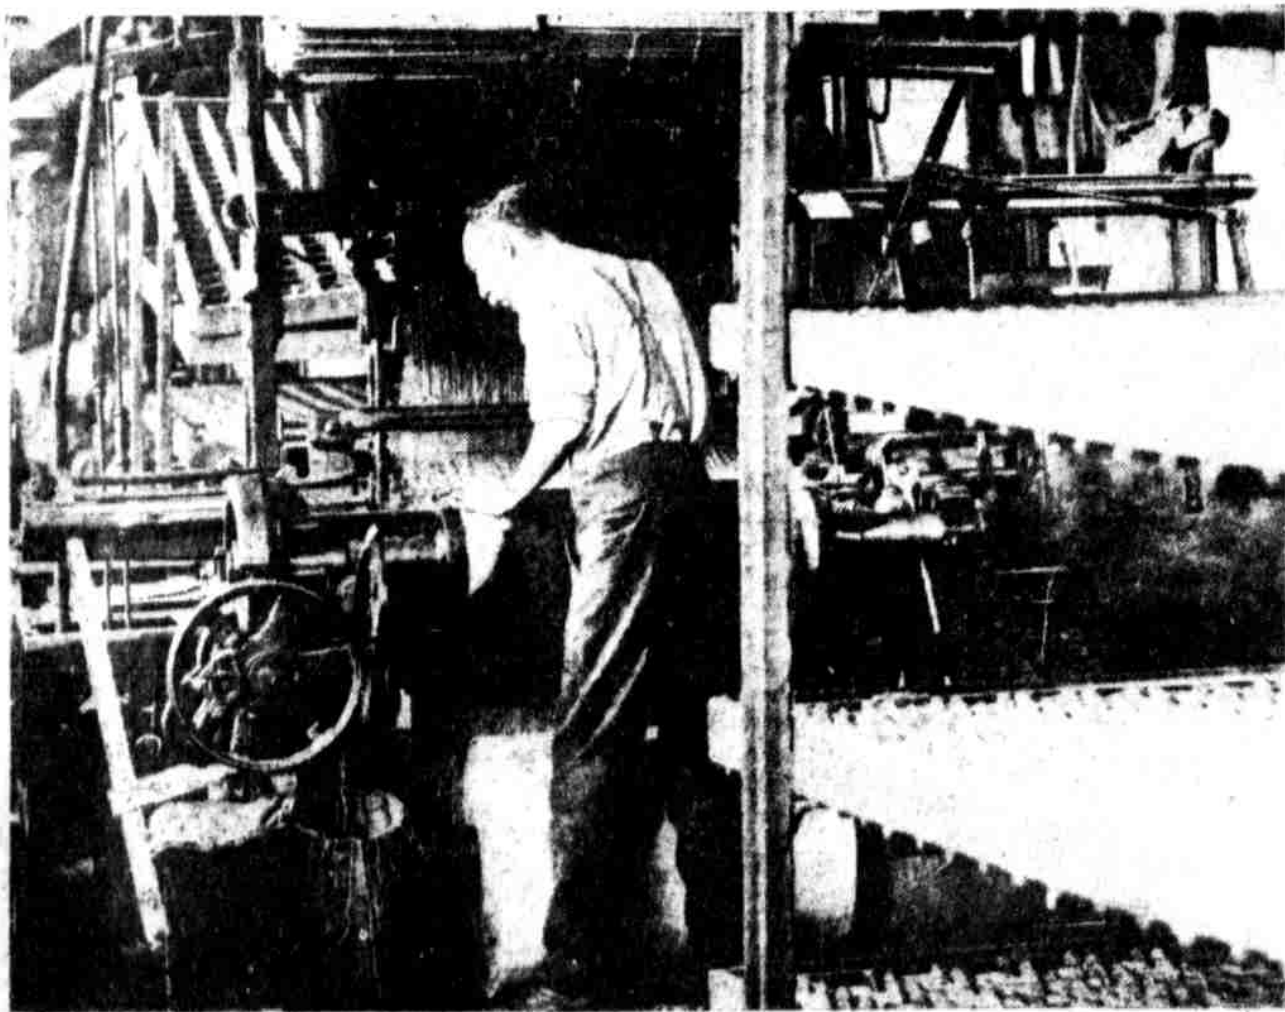

MOUNTED ON AN AUTOMOBILE, a machine gun has been added to the equipment of the Boston Police Department. The new protection against riots has been adopted in other cities

MISS BETTY OTIS, of Overbrook, who will dance in "My Springtime Girl," given by the Community League of Stone Harbor, at the Bellevue-Stratford tonight

EARL KUNKEL, Middle States intercollegiate 220-yard and broad-jump champion, will represent Lafayette at the Penn relays

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WEAVING CARPET in the carpet mill of Hardwick & Magee Co., Seventh street and Lehigh avenue. The operator is George Kelly, 854 East Thayer street. Note the completed carpet on the roll at the bottom of the machine and at the top the card that causes the many designs to be woven into the carpet.

MONTAGUE, of the Oxford-Cambridge relay team, snapped as he warmed up on Franklin Field

NO. 23 IS NO HOODO to this seventeen-year-old French girl who recently won the Paris girls' marathon. She is Mlle. Briard

POSTMASTER GENERAL BURLESON has carried an umbrella for thirty-eight years, rain or shine. Mr. Burleson had trouble with his legs. Afraid of being "kidded" if he carried a cane, he chose an umbrella

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS FLORENCE LISTON, 2320 Montgomery ave., Philadelphia. Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER