Nancy Wynne Talks of the Newbold Wedding in June. She Tells of the Entertaining at Bryn Mawr. Cushman Club Tea for Mr. George Arliss

The marriage of Dorothy Newbold and Mr. George Arliss, which is to take place in St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, the exact date of which has not yet been determined, is the first wedding of the season. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Arliss, of Philadelphia. She is a very attractive young woman, and her betrothal has been the subject of much conversation in the city.

The bridegroom is a well-known actor, and his marriage to the daughter of a prominent Philadelphia family is a union of social and artistic circles. The wedding is expected to be a grand affair, and the bride's trousseau is reported to be one of the most valuable ever assembled.

The Cushman Club has given a very successful tea for Mr. George Arliss, which was held at the club on Friday evening. The affair was a most enjoyable one, and the guests were entertained to the utmost. The proceeds of the tea were for the benefit of the club's funds.
