MORRIS JASTROW, JR.

Who discusses the castern question

NEW BOOKS

General

HAT HUMAN BEING, LEONARD WOOD, Hy Herman Hagedoin, New York, Har-court, Brace & Howe. A brief but appreciative sketch.

PRISONER OF PENTONVILLE. By "Red Dand." New York: G. P. Put-

GS AND PORTRAITS. By Maxwell Struther Burt. New York: Charles Scrib

rics of graceful phrasing and genuine

W IT FEELS TO BE 56. By Ellis Par-ker Butler, New York: Houghton Mif-flin Co.

thumorous essay by a man a decade be

HE NEW PRONTIERS OF FREEDOM By E. Alexander Powell. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons. Major Powell, war correspondent and globe acter, describes the cartography drawn by a great war from the Alus to the Aegean.

Fiction

Boribuer's Bone

The day the hero was a wealthy, respected tubman, the next the chief of a rang of rooks—and all over a woman. A bully tale ells all about the transformation.

IESPONSIBILITY. By James E. Agate. Now York: George H. Doran Co.

The first novel by a young Englishman chose work has caused glowing forecasts or his future.

for his future.

SARA AND HER DAUGHTER. Ry Berths.

Fest. New York: Scott & Seltzer.

A movel of the New York Chetto, showing the omersence of the newer generation to American life.

The Presbyterian Book Store

Everything Desirable in Books

WITHERSPOON BLDG.. Walnut, Juniper and Sansom Sta. Elevator to 2nd Floor

Proofs of the

Spirit World

By L. CHEVREUIL, translated

This book was awarded the Prize for 1919 by the French Academy of Science. It collates and analyzes a mass of incontestable scientific evidence accumulated in

E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

$3.00 at any bookstore

by Agnes Kendrick Gray

recent years.

LOVE AND MR. LEWISHAM. By H. Walls, New York, George H. Doran . Reprint of one of Mr. Wells's earlier bels about a scholar.

SOME NEW SPRING BOOKS ON A VARIETY OF INTERESTING SUBJECTS PROFESSOR JASTROW

OBJECTS TO MANDATES He Suggests International Commissions to Take Over the

Control of Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia and Armenia. Opposes Political Zionism

the population is made up of peoples which no traditions. But in western decided upon the adoption of the man Asia, which has played a distinguished date system. Professor Jastrow's dis custom time to some the man decided upon the adoption of the man
decided upon the adoption of the man
decided upon the adoption of the man
custom is merely of academic interest

ment of the populations pour be based at the present time, yet it may become semisavages. He does not elaborate this succeed. point quite so fully as might be desired, apparently assuming that it is axio-matic. In addition to the inapplicability of the mandate system to the western Asiastic problem, Professor Jastrow asserts that the assumption of a mandate he reviews the history and purposes of over Armenia would be unwise because Zionism in its religious, economic and we would have to maintain an army of political aspects. The subtitle, "The fallacies and dangers of political Zionno direct interest in that country. The ism. ceptance of a mandate by them.

The solution of the problem that appeals to Professor Justion lies, not n the division of western Asia into France and Great Britain, but in the creation of joint international commisover the territory, with subordinate commissions taking charge of the separate districts. He sums up his plan briefly in this way: "The tutelage the manufacture of the separate districts are sums up his plan briefly in this way: "The tutelage the manufacture of the separate districts."

THE EASTERN QUESTION AND ITS SOLUTION BY MORTIS JUSTION BY MORTIS JUSTICAL BY MORTIS JUSTION BY MORTIS JUSTION BY MORTIS JUSTION BY MORTIS JUSTICAL BY MORT

Quaint and Quiet Humor

delightful quaintness threads through the bright pages of "Love Laughs Last," which was written by Tallentyre, and which possesses an interest its title belies. It is a story of an old-fashioned love, refresh in its simplicity and absence of dern morbid treatment. The hero is a stalwart young merchant skipper in the British trade, whose early affections he impulsively mistook for love. eventually he learns what true love is and where to find it and how he finds the story, which spackles with quiet humor.

LOVE LAUGHS LAST. By S. G. Tallen-bre, New York: George H. Deran Co.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Presbyterian

ECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ALEXANDER MacCOLL, D lister.

MacColl will preach at II and 8 is close MacColl will preach at 7:40 p. m. 10 chorus-choir under the direction of Lindsay Nordon, assisted by Vincent nelli, harpist, and Frederic Cook, singlet, of the Philadelphia Cochestra. The sic, entirely by Philadelphia composers.

Hear Us. O Savour hemet. Souls of the Righteous O Gladsome Light Thord. Let Me Know The Day is Gently Sinking

The Twilight Shadows our friends and leved ones to the Eternal fon of God. At 10.45 Dr. Macartney will preach on "The Things Still Left—A. Bucket of Water Out of the Well of Hope." Bible School at 12. C. E. Supper and Meeting at 6.30.

RETHLEHEM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

10:36 a. m.—Morning Worship
"God's Herigage"
2:30 p. m.—Sashbath School
8:45 p. m.—Young People's Sec of C. F.
7:45 p. m.—Evening Service
Dr. George F. Pentecost, Plaster of Bethany Preshuterian Church, will preach.
Subject. "The Infailible Word."
Organ Recital. Song Service.
Everyhody welcome.

SPECIAL MUSIC FRST UNITARIAN CHURCH, 2125 Chest-FREDERICK R GRIFFIS, Min-

m. Rev. Henry W. Pours gastrials smort in the Harrison District School pidge Mask, all negach INITARIAN CHURCH OF GERMANTOWN Chelten are and finence at Rev ROWERS & FURBLES Minuster. 11:00 a. m.—Religion to Relationship Classes for children andusted by trained teachers every Sunday morning at 11

Miscellaneous TRANCE - VESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW IN THE LIGHT OF BIBLE PROPHECY. This wonderful Bible

Jastrow, Jr., of the University of Penn ternational co-operation, be confided to by the United States of a mandate over which Great Britain. France and the seems to him to be wrong. In gether with representatives of two or Eastern Question and Its Solu-three other powers equally interested ... be has discussed the matter at (does he mean Germany?)— "and ar important point—there should also be The mandate plan, he writes, may representation on the commission of the

As the Supreme Council seems to have sation which doesn't decided upon the adoption of the man-where in particular. ment of the populations must be based at the present time, yet it may become ment of the populations must be based at the present time, yet it may become ment of the populations must be based at the present time, yet it may become ment of the populations must be based at the present time. on an entirely different theory from of some importance as prophecy if the that which will work in the case of plan of the Supreme Council should not question should read along with Pro-fessor Jastrow's book on the broader issues his other volume on "Zionism and the Future of Palestine," in which ism." indicates its general tenor. He quality sympa concludes that "A Jewish state would in their quest. says, are great enough to justify the simply mean a glorified ghetto, narrow acceptance of a mandate by them. ganization, and that may well turn out to be reactionary in its tendencies." The political Zionists will, of course, disagree with him, but even they will mandatories under America, doubtless admit that he has written an and Great Britain, but in the interesting and informing book on the subject.

MORLEY AT HIS BEST

His "Travels in Philadelphia" Is a Book of Delightful Essays

Morley's "Travels in Philadelphia" when printed originally in the columns of this newspaper to get them all bound in a book with pictures by Frank II. The fineness of the little essays was generally recognized during their ap-pearance in their original newspaper type. When one rereads them in the dignity of large type on a neatly printed page they take on a new and distinguished quality. As A. Edward Newton says in an appreciative introduction, they "have a quality which we supposed had disappeared with the essavists who were writing in London, just a century ago." They are human and in-timate, filled with a quaint humor and bubbling over with the love for humanity. And they are couched in English of a rare and rhythmic beauty And they are couched in Eng-Zeckwer Young persons learning to write Matthews cover an absence of the nackuryed parts. Sternberg and they would find common words used

Protestant Episcopal

RURCH OF THE HOLY APOSTLES

21st and Christian size.
Rev. GEORGE H. TOOP. Rector.
8:00 a. m. —Holy Communion.
16:30 a. m. —Holy Communion.
Prayer and Sermon by the Rector.
The Restor's sixt anniversar:
2:30 p. m.—Sunday School and Size.
Classes. of these have expressed themselves en-thusiastically about the work, among them Albert Payson Terbune, author of "Lad: A Dog" and proprietor of the ANNUAL SERVICE OF THE CORIN famous Sunnybank Kennels, where he breeds some of the finest collies in the ADDRESS

The Spirit of Quakerism

RELIGIOUS NOTICES Baptist

Ethical Society

Sunday at Y. M. C. A.

May 2, 1920

NORTH BUILDING, 1913 Lehigh Ave. First Address of May Series
By Rev. Albert Barnes Henry.
Subject: "Why I Believe the Bible"
Four other gripping talks to men dur-SOUTHWEST BUILDING, 1724 Chris-Auditorium tian St. 4 P. M.

Choir of St. Thomas a Episcopal
Church in special concert of religious music.
Rector: Rev. Garrett. Rector: Rev. Garrett.
WEST BUILDING, 52d & Sansom Ste.
4 P. M.
Topic: "Can We Talk With the Dead?"
The Control of Andrea

"Rev. Frank J. Andius. soloist: Dr. Wayne T. Klillan

2, 1920 CENTRAL BUILDING, 1421 Arch St. 3 P. M. DROP-IN BIBLE CLASS pic Bendering an Account."
ader Mr. George H. Streaker arer A.P. M.

SERVICE MEETING
Speaker: REV H. CLAY FERGUSON
Preacher and Lecturer.
Topic: "Saving Appreciation."
Special vocal and Instrumental program.

EVENING SONG SERVICE Sing your favorite Hymns with us Leader: George W. Schroeder

EVERYBODY WELCOME

CANNAN'S NEW NOVEL LEADS NOWHERE

Characters All Dressed Up With No Place to Go, Artistically Speaking

The solution of the Near Eastern over the peoples of the East should, in the visitor in the visitor of the Near Eastern over the peoples of the East should, in the visitor in the visitor in the visitor. a very different story from most you meet in modern fiction," and, indeed, it is. Mr. Cannan is growing more modern with each novel he writes, and not altogether to the satisfaction of his readers, who found real delight his earlier stories, such as "Mummer and "Three Sons and a Mother." Gracefully written, polished in phrase is "Time and Eternity," but there is a very great deal of ultra-modern conver sation which doesn't seem to lead any so many nice words were used, such potentially interesting characters troduced, and then, after they were all dressed up, no place provided for then to go.

The story is one of three exiles in Those interested in the Near Eastern London-an Englishman who voluntarily exiled himself from his class the real loss to his class); n "big black bear and a Jewish revolutionary he Ukraine, and a young woman from South Africa. The theme of the tale is, to quote again from that yellow jacket. "their search for reality" unlify sympathize with the three exiles TIME AND ETERNITY. By Gilbert Cannar New York: George H. Doran Co.

> Mrs. Grenfell on Labrador A most enjoyable book is "Le Petit

Nord, or Annals of a Labrador Har-ber. It is the account of a year's work at the mission of Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell by his wife, Anne Grenfell, and Phila a nurse, Katie Spalding, the mistress of the orphanage. It is a vivid picture of life in the country whose climate described as "nine months snow and three months winter" among the settlers, the descendants of the English fishermen "who came out about 200 years ago and settled on this const for the cod fishery." Especially inter-esting and attractive are the frequent glimpses we get of the "little bairns' who hold in their tiny hands the future of Le Petit Nord." Their was a future of Le Petit Nord. 'Their way of re-ceating what they have been taught is of Le Petit Nord. illustrated by what the writer over-heard a small boy tell other children. Thanks to David McKay it is now that "Satan was once an angel, but he gossible for those who read Christopher of Heaven," Their plain speech is shown by a little girl of five who, on this newspaper to get them all bound being told that the children must play with their dolls out of doors and not in the house, was heard to tell her play mates. "Teacher says you are to go out, every dained one of you." A five-yearold boy closed a discussion on equal rights by the confident assertion that made the boys and Jesus the The attractiveness of the book s greatly increased by the reproduc-ion of twenty-four drawings by Doctor Grenfell of some of the amusing experiences narrated. E PITTI NORD. Or annals of a Labrador harbor. By Anne Grenfell and Katle Spaiding Boston: Houghton Mifflin Co. 159.

Airplane Photography

Voung persons learning to write could do much worse than to study Morley for his style. They would discover an absence of the hackneyed phrase and they would find common words used in a tione. Sternberg Richards at the words at the words and they would find common words used in a tione. Glichrist Wood and Arch. So clock To To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be early and they word the essays when they first applicate a word of the sale of the supplied by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be early and they word and arch. So clock To To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be early and they word the essays when they first applicantly a proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the memory of those who can be conveyed by the proper choice of epithets.

To refresh the much words and major in charge of the experimental department of t Herbert E. Ives, a graduate of the Meariney will preach at 8 o'clock
"I Thank God Even Amid My Tears."
To refresh the memory of those who feel the will discuss the outsiton as to better it makes are difference what a being surfaced being surfaced and being surfaced method for the weare justified being surfaced on The Things Still Left—A method of the Well of Hope. Siles School at 12 C E. Supper and seeding at 630.

**HEMEN PRESENTERIAN CHURCH**

**Branch God Even Amid My Tears."
To refresh the memory of those who feeled when they first appeared in print, it may be said that the volume contains an appreciation of Ludlow street, some musings on Chestmut street as seen from a fire escape, the description of Market street as it might have been written by Edgar Allan Poethers what may be the purpose of the world against white world substitute that the reader is a seen from the sire of the world against white world substitute that the proper cannot be might be described in nontechnical in which aerial photography can be of practical use in peacetime. He treats the subject, as far as possible, as a discussion of the colored reach on The Things Still Left—A description of Market street as it might have been written by Edgar Allan Poethers and the account of a trip to Valley Green, besides forty or fifty other and and Diamand ats.

**THEMEN PRESENTERIAN CHURCH**

**Baedeker and the account of a trip to Valley Green, besides forty or fifty other and the library of every Philadelphian and a practicing photography, yet considerable in the library of every Philadelphian and a practicing photography, some measurement of the subject. The also points out the ways that the field of exigencies of the all of war. He also points out the ways then they first appeared in print, it may be said that the field of exigencies of the all of war. He also points out the ways then the field of exigencies the library described in nontechnical tangence of the colored to war. He also points out the ways then the field of exigencies to the clear the field of exigencies to a serio delightful things. The book ought to be in the library of every Philadelphian and every other lover of literature.

TRAVELS IN PHILADELPHIA By Chelstopher Morier With drawings by Frank H. Taylor. Philadelphia: David McKay 11.50.

Readers Like "Sigurd"

Katharine Lee Bates's appealing account of her dog, "Sigurd. Our Golden Collie," has gone into its second editional control of the sasuand of the harmonial and though it is assumed that the reader is a practicing photographe, yet considerable space has been devoted to the fundamentals of photography and scientific methods of study, tests and specifications. This has been done because aerial photography strains to the unset advanced methods be understood by those who would secure the behind the scenes of censorship. Brightly written and full of farcinating details. stood by those who would secure the best results or make the next advance. The book is divided under general heads: The airplane camera; the sus-pension and installation of airplane cameras; sensitized materials and hemicals; methods of developing plates, and data; the future of aerial photog-aphy. There are 210 important illus-

> J. B. Lippincott Co 14. Philadelphia The Panama Affair

Philippe Bunau Varilla's story of the manner in which the Panama revolu-tion was organized will not persuade to the contrary those who have been saying that the United States was guilty of iniquitous interference in the affairs of Colombia. Yet Mr. Bunau-Varilla is the man who arranged the revolution after persuading Floctor Amader that it after persuading Foctor Amador that it would be impossible for any one to induce this country to pledge itself to the support of the revolutionists in advance. Indeed, according to Mr. Bunan-Varilla's story, all that the United States did was to lice up to the terms of a treaty with Colombia under which it support of the revolutionists in advance. Indeed, according to Mr. Bunan-Variational Director of Markin Hanna, Musical Director, or J. Markin Hann

BROAD ST. THEATRE, Sunday, 11 a. m.
Mr. NORMAN HAPGEWED, "Moral Issues of the 1000mg namery." Moral Issues

Friends

WORSHIP AT THE OLD FRIENDS' MEETING HOUSE, Morigamery pike, Merion
Every First day. (Sunday) morning, 11 general, established (day, one of the oldest historical spous in America, where William in Market and with an attempt to persuade Colombia to allow her to get control of cal spots in America, where William to allow her to get control of worshiped. Visitors cordially in the causi route. The author is proud of his connection with the canal enterprise and with his success in bringing about the revolution, and he does not attempt to belittle what he did. His book ought to be read by every one who vishes to understand the relations of the nited States to the Isthmus of Braina.

"IP GREAT ADVENTURE OF PANAMA
By Politippe Bonau Varilla. Garden City
Doubleday. Page & Co.

The TIN SOLDIER

By Temple Bailey Liked by Everybody

it all backstores PENN PUBLISHING CO., Philadelphia

LE LIVRE CONTEMPORAIN A magazine devoted Sent free on application.

SCHOENHOF BOOK CO. French Bookshop Boston, Mass

STEVENSON'S WIFE An Entertaining Biography of

a Remarkable American Woman

Theoretically a life of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson would seem a biograph. ical superfluity. The personality of the ical superfluity. The personality of the its. Steve subject, vivid and distinctive though it joice in it. was, is inevitably overshadowed by the fame, appeal and charm of R. L. S. Books about the author of "Treasure Island" would now fill a library shelf equal in extent to the space reserved for his own works.

Graham Ralfour has told the fascireminisced the flavorful French days, capitalized in an imaginative way by Stevenson himself in "The Wrecker."
From these books and almost an embarrassment of others it is possible to piece together a biography of the "trusty, dusty, vivid, true" helpmeet of the great romanticist. Nevertheiess Nellie van de Grift

By Edwin Arilagton Robinson. : Thomas Seltzer. rica's foremost poet's reshause Sanchez has executed her task so simply LOT. By Edwin Arilagion Robinson.

Ne York: Thomas Seltzer.

America's foremost poet's reshapes and directly, with so little affectation and with such a firm sense of biographical values, that her "Life of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson" is justified the blank verse.

Beaton: Atlantic is realized after it has been filled.

Be Walfe Howe. Beaton: Atlantic is realized after it has been filled. The need for such a book to Waife Howe. Boston: Atlantic is realized after it has been more forthly Press.

The Higginson founder of the Boston that part of the story in which Steventham Orchestra.

There is a fillip of new insent for the Boston that part of the story in which Steventham Orchestra. AVELS IN PHILADELPHIA. By Christopher Morley. Philadelphia. David Moterest, however, in the disclosure of the Kay. elightful sketches that first appeared in Evening Public Lepoks. EXANDER HAMILTON. By Henry Jones Pord. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons.

The initial volume of a series of popular t carefully compiled biographies.

The initial volume of a series of popular t carefully compiled biographies.

TEPHEN A. DOUGLAS. By Louis How-land. New York: Charles Scribner's

It is a remantic and picturesque life volume in 'Figures of American which Mrs. Sanchez has so pleasantly described. Cosmopolitan her sister asstory" series.

ILLING TIME THROUGH THE AGES.
New York: Published by Doubleday, Page
& Co. for R. H. Insersoil Co.
A fascinating account of the history and
Beress of clocks and watches.

ILLING TIME THROUGH THE AGES.
New York: Published by Doubleday, Page
& Co. for R. H. Insersoil Co.
A fascinating account of the history and
Beress of clocks and watches.

ILLING TIME THROUGH THE AGES.
Suredly was, for her wanderings, which ranged from the first eventful trip from Indianapolis, her birthplace, to California in the comparatively early days.
to Europe and the Pacific isles, did not cease with Stevenson's death. And yet her emphatic American traits stand forth prominently in the portrait. She ADER OF MEN. By R. G. Anderson.

New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

About Colonel Roosevelt.

trasted situations, whether as a ranch trasted situations, whether as a ranch owner in Lower California in later life or feted by the Pineros, Henry James and the literary celebrities of England.
Mrs. Sanchez had not the privilege of Red Band. New Yorki G. P. Put-lam's Sons. e lyric account of a British prisoner's has faithfully caught much of its flavor.

LEONARD MERRICK'S Price $1.90

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Ave., N.Y. Headquarters For

Engineering and Technical Books Philadelphia Book Company 17 South 9th Street

Sax Rohmer's

latest romance of midnight adven- ammunummunummunumm ture in London's Chinatown.

THE GOLDEN SCORPION

a breath-taking novel that whizzes along from climax to climax, and never lets go of your interest until the very Now Ready, All Bookstores.

Robert M. McBride & Co., Publishers

reprint of one of Mr. Wellas earlier notels about a scholar. PASSION. By Shaw Desmond. New York: Charles Berthner's Sons. A powerful story of strusgle between idea; ism and commercialism, art and the power of gold, purity of mind and sex passion THE NUTCRACKER. By F. E. Isham, Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill Co. Story of a man who discovers it's a crima to be a noneutity and presses forward to become a personality. Letters from JANE. By Anna Alice Chapin. New York. G P Putnam's Sons. Store of an Irish girl who runs a say from unhappy domestic conditions and joins a "one night stand" theatrical frough. He qualinthess, sweetness and racial wholesconness of mind carry her safely through the hearrish she encourters. China and Japan isse of mind carry her safely through the arards she encounters. HEEPARIN AND GRAY RUSSET. D. E. Temple Thurston. New York: J. P. Putnam's Sons. A whinele al. delightful adventurous assay to country life is cieverly recounted. HIE REAL DIARY OF THE WOHAT FARMER By Henry A, Shute, Romon: Houghton Mifflin Co. Judge Shute telle with waggery and ely froller; the humors of farm life. THE GOLDEN SCORPION By Sax Rehmer. New York: R. M. McBride & Co. A typically sensational story by the position of Fullmanning.

By JOHN DEWEY, Ph. D., and ALICE C. DEWEY Professor John Dewey is probably the foremost student of education writing in the English language, and Mrs. Dewey possesses more common sense and incisive understanding than is given to women in general. We believe you will find in this book a new viewpoint toward Japan and China. $2.50 at any bookstore E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

whether in painting the strange wars of a "Footnote to History" or the sol-emn yet colorful scenes on Vaca moun-tain, where Mrs. Stevenson rests with Tusitala.

Tautira, where the Stevensons led an idyllic existence prior to their more per-manent residence in Samoa, is incor-rectly described as an island. It is in reality a celestial spot on the penin-sula of Tahiti. Van de Grift is transformed into Van der Grift on the cover Aside from these slips the biography adds apparent accuracy to its other Stevenson enthusiasts should re

THE LIFE OF MRS ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, By Nellie Van de Grift San-chez, New York: Charles Scribner's Sons.

Letters of Henry James

One of the most interesting literary events in years and a book of letters which will undoubtedly take its place among the greatest of all published cor nating story of Stevenson fully and respondence is presaged by the anappreciatively. Sidney Colvin supple-nouncement from Charles Scribner's Sons that the letters of Henry James mented the account with the delightful are in preparation for publication. Per-"Vailing Letters." Isobel Strong has sons who have been fortunate enough narrated from her own angle the final to have a glimpse of some of these letters say that they are so remarkably entertaining and so thoroughly delightful both from a literary and a human point of view that they will undoubtpoint of view that they will undoubt-edly stimulate enormously the interest in James, which has been growing so steadily since the war.

> Chamberlain Letters Sought J. L. Garvin has been commissioned o write the life of the late Joseph Chamberlain, for years a prominent fig-ure in British politics. Austin Chamberlain has asked all persons who may have received letters from his father to be kind enough to send them to Mr. Garvin, at 9 Greville place, N. W. 6. London, who will return them in good Striking plot, delightful characters, charming style.

SLIPPY McGEE By Marie Conway Oemler

A Century Book Price $1.75

AÇOBS 1628 CHESTNUT STREET BOOKS STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING "HEET HE AT JACORS"

(ARQUERAYS DUEL Anthony Pryde

A forceful, dramatic ro- ≡ mance of today, and of the struggle between the best and worst elements in a man's nature. "It's the best I've read in a month ≡ of Sundays," says one reader. "You can't skip pages, for each has something you don't want to miss. The political background, Marqueray's charac-ter, even the melodramatic spots, are cocktails to a jaded appetite." And another writes: "Success to the best written and most entertaining novel in vears!"

Just published. All bookstores, $2

Robert M. McBride & Co. Publishers

Readers of "Parnassus on Wheels" will be glad to know that the whimsical little tale of Roger Mifflin and his caravan bookshop is now in its seventh edition.

CHRISTOPHER MORLEY

is headed for a secure place in our literature. His unique charm has won for him a large public.

The success of his latest book, "Kathleen," is gratifying proof of his growing popularity. His books are:

The Haunted Bookshop Kathleen Parnassus on Wheels Shandygaff DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO.

The Great Adventure of Panama And Its Relation to the World War By PHILIPPE BUNAU-VARILLA ("The Man Who Made the Panama Revolution")

Published by

THE SECOND LATCHKEY

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO., Garden City, N. Y.

Philippe Bunau-Varilla has been called "the man who made the Panama revolution.'

Even the "well informed" will be amazed

by the revelations made in this book:

A postage stamp settled the canal route.

plans for a world war in 1902.

ing of the canal at Panama.

At All Booksellers, Net, $1.75.

bloodshed.

Germany lost the first battle in her preliminary

How "T. R." foiled the Prussian plans to strike

Why Germany conspired to prevent the build-

Proof that the United States had no hand in promoting the revolution of Panama. The details of the great victory won for Panama without

A new mystery story

by C. N. and A. M. Williamson

AUTHORS OF "THE LION'S MOUSE"

I Did she dare? The alternative was offered her-Romance with danger to make it more alluring, or the dull monotony of her present existence. But she hurried on, and the tryst with the unknown man, in an unknown cause, led her deep into a startling mystery and romance.

$1.75. At any bookstore. DOUBLEDAY, PAGE &

"An American Jean Christophe"

Fairfax and His Pride

By MARIE VAN VORST Author of "Big Tremaine," Etc.

"No American novel of the season so far surpasses the quality of 'Fairfax and His Pride.' We close the book with the consciousness that here is a real American novelist."-Boston Transcript.

Net $1.75 (by mail $1.90)

Publishers SMALL, MAYNARD & COMPANY Boston

MANY JUNES

Author of "The Honour of the Clintons," etc.

By ARCHIBALD MARSHALL

A picture of English country life of surpassing loveliness; as warm, as fleeting as June itself. At bookstores, $2.00

DODD, MEAD & COMPANY, New York

Publishers for Eighty Years

OVER 2,000,000 HOCKINGS NOVELS SOLD A Romance of the Strongest of Human Desires

Joseph Hocking's Greatest Novel

The Cresting Wave

The story of a man who made money his god. He was locked on as a big man. Then a girl called him a pigmy—and proved it. And he found what was wrong with himself and ousiness America.

At all booksellers. Jacket in Colors $1.75

By Edwin Bateman Morris

There is a love element, humor, a big shipwreck, and all in sprightly style.

THE PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA

SHIPS ACROSS THESEA

Adventures of modern American seafarers on, above and and in the Naval Intelligence Service.

beneath the ocean

Author of "The Fighting Fleets," "The Call of the Offshore Wind,"

fiction.

Illustrated $1.90 net. At all Bookstores. Houghton Mifflin Company

By Ralph ( D. Paine

Filled with the romance of the sea, these thrilling stories will stir the pulse of every lover of good