Nancy Wynne Tells of Some Beautiful Gowns Seen Recently-The Plays and Players' Club Night Next Week-Other Bits of Interest

I DO think this new silvery, shimmery green is the most wonderful color for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening I have seen for a long time, for evening II. nd has a little train.

Mrs. Joe Lappincott is also wearing Saturday evening. mrs. Joe Lippincott is also wearing an evening gown of the same unusual green. Her frock is made with a short skirt and the trimming is opalescent. It is very becoming to her, with her of Miss Ruth Valerden. hair and complexion.

THE Plays and Players forty-seventh

Miss Dora Shoemsker is to be director. The second play will be "The Stranger," by Dr. Frank Crane. Sophie Norris, Roy Smith, Howard Reber and Henry Sheppard will be the stars on this horizon, and Mr. Henry Schaffer Ir. is the director.

WELL, everything is ready for the VV fashion show tonight and the in door horse show on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights! Then next week will be Mrs. Clothier's pony show. Perhaps you think the League of Nations or Notions as some call it, is a thing of the past, but it isn't gains to be and or Notions as some call it, is a thing of the past, but it isn't going to be at the pony show. You're going to have a chance to "buy" votes for it or against it, (indeed I don't know which; all I know is you are to vote) and the votes in some way are grabs and they are to be sold by representatives of Spain, France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Scotland, Alsace Lorraine, Armenia, Rus-sia of the Old Regime, England and Morocco, Elsie Hirst, Dr. Barton Morocco. Elsie Hirst, Dr. Barton Hirst's daughter, who will be debutante next year will represent Columbia and will preside over the booth. I think it is a grab bag with various children elling grabs.

There is to be supper and dancing in the evening and some specialty dance stunts too. So it sounds very interesting to me. It's to be held on May 12, with the usual if, if clear otherwise the next day. And it's out at Wynnewood at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Clothier, LL these various things are so in-A teresting. I stopped in at the rum-mage sale the executive board and council of the Girl Scouts are holding at he old saloon on Fifteenth street and Drury lane, you know just off Chestnut street. And you know I thought every one's garret must have been entirely cleared by now, but I just wish you rould see all they had there. And the crowds! It's simply amazing.

WENT to the theatre on Friday night, boys and girls, and I sawwell, you see I was on one of the last rows, because I got my tickets late and they did tob, evidently, and just in front of me sat—well I won't tell you who, but she didn't see me nor did he, but there's going to be an announce-ment soon, believe me. And they are awfully in love, and it's awfully nice! NANCY WYNNE.
