He admitted it, and, after answring two or three questions, smally put up his guard and, yery sentelly, suggested that further ques-tioning be made of his manager, Fran-ceis Descamps, explaining that he never gives out information, that that was done by M. Descamps.

Signal From Descamps Carpentier got his inspiration to put the ellencer on himself when he caught a signal from Descamps, which came in the form of a fist, the closed hand of his career. I do all the business, answer all questions and give all information. Carpentier does the fighting, and he has done it well so far. He would continue so against Dempsey. Certainly, I thick—yes, I am sure that Georges hat Georges will box no one other than point at least. we have been in this country for a resonable time, then we will go back to Europe, where Georges's services are in great demand. But we shall return. Carpentier is earnest about a battle for the world's title, and if no match is made on this trip we will hound him on return. Dempsey is not being ded now because of the trouble he basing, but, after that is all over, then we will go after him strong. But from the information that I have been getting I do not expect to have much I do not expect to have much ble getting Dempsey for a contest

Descamps admitted that Cochran, the English promoter, had Carpentier signed to a contract in accordance with which Briton zas entitled to the Carpen Dempsey match, providing the don matchmaker succeeded in get-the American. However, if any nden matchmaker ting the American. the promoter got Dempsey's signa-ture for a contest with the French idol, then that person would get the services of Carpentier for the championship

Carpentier's appearance for the first e in Philadelphia, at the Olympia last night, was a three-round exhibi-tion, in which the Frenchman was greatly handicapped in showing his real class. Often Georges was forced seal class. Every one who has tried to play that

It was Tilly Walker's rough fortune to be the first to step into the big pasture which Spoke patrolled so masterfully. And Tilly had his troubles. Everytime he failed to get a long clout, the hammer hurlers began to contrast him with Speaker, and the comparison was not a bit complimentary to Tilly. It gradually busted Tilly's nerve and resulted in his going from here.

Now he is with the Athletics. Yesterday he came tearing in for an easy

Four Records Fall at Delaware

Newark, Del., May 6.—Delaware College defeated Swarthmore in a field and track meet yesterday, 67 to 58. The Blue and Gold were in fine form, but to trim the Liltie Quakers, it was necessary for the Delaware men to break four local college records.

In the discus Gray Carter, who has already won his letter in football, baseball and basketball, established a new record of 126 feet 2 inches. This was the first dual meet he has ever taken part in. The previous record was 118 feet. Fred Harmer reduced the 440-yard dash record to 52 seconds.
Humphries, a freshman, made a new javelin record of 1.9, the best previous throw of the local field sheins 162 feet. Pittman, another freshman, lowered the 220-yard dash record from 28 2-5 to 25 flat. It was that old Tris Speaker stuff all over again. It got Tilly's nerve when here some years ago and he always feels a bit uncertain when he performs before this Boston gang. Tris did the same, indirectly, too, as other fairly good center fielders, Amos Strunk and Bobby Roth, and right now it be-gins to look as though the same sort of hazing will be meted out to Tim Hendryx, present center field incum-Easton, Pa.. Chances are that C. R. Naylor and Samuel P. Jones will be the opposing huriers this afternoon. Barrow wants to start Harry Harper again, but is just a mite apprehensive of Harry's control. And the manner of play yesterday indicates that the A's are not soft enough to make careless experimenting very wise biz right now.

Hank Gowdy blocked runners at the plate like a truck blocks traffic. If the Phils could do things like their boss they'd still be in first place.
