

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of the Indoor Horse Show—She Hears of Charity Ball Date—Card Party at Acorn Club. Other Bits of Gossip

WELL, the Indoor Show could not have had a fairer day to open than yesterday, and the horses seemed to appreciate it, for they were certainly in good form. The transformation of the scene from Monday night, when the ponies were displayed, to the tan bark oval, King Horse and all the rest of it, was quite marked, I'll say.

A great many people were there, and the horse lovers, I saw principally. Mrs. Mather, looking very smart in a dark blue, and Mrs. Tom Ashton in a light blue, were the only ones who came in for a little while during the show. The transformation of the scene from Monday night, when the ponies were displayed, to the tan bark oval, King Horse and all the rest of it, was quite marked, I'll say.

DATES are certainly being arranged for far ahead, are they not? The Charity Ball is planned now, and it will be held earlier than ever before, I understand. As usual, the date will be Thursday, but the date of December 2. Thursday, but the date of December 2.

I THOUGHT it was time we heard of some other day nurseries, after the Hope Day Nursery party, and the Sunside and the Saint Christopher, and now I find that the Willing Day Nursery, at 427 Pine street, is to have a card party on Wednesday afternoon at the Acorn Club.

THE annual fair for the parish house of Old St. David's Church, at Devon, will be held for two days, June 17 and 18. Mrs. T. Mellon Rogers, of Devon, is general chairman, and many other prominent women are working hard to make this a big success.

IT'S nothing but benefits for every one of these days and one wonders where the money comes from. It does come, but it is not as easy as it should be. And now to turn to something new. I have a story for you about my friend, Danny.

Well, he's no longer three, he's four now and he is growing very wise and logical and drawing conclusions, as you will see. The other day his mother took him and his little cousins to a museum. Danny was much interested in the stuffed animals and asked: "What are they, Mummy?" "Stuffed animals, dear," she replied. "Who killed them and stuffed them?" "Who killed them and stuffed them?"
