NOTHING ON FOR FAN THIS WEEK BUT FIGHT

Eleven Different Boxing Programs Are Arranged for the Followers of Fisticuffs in Philadelphia and New Jersey for Next Six Consecutive Nights

By LOUIS H. JAFFE
MR. FIGHT FAN, and his fair follower of fisticuffs, too, will have all sorts of action this week.

Never before in the history of boxing was so many bouts jammed into one week. In addition to the regular shows in this city—Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday—a number of special attractions are on, and if the fan and fannette are going to attempt to attend all the attractions it will be a physical impossibility.

O'Dowd Tomorrow Night
Then on Tuesday night we will have the weekly bouts at the Auditorium here, consisting of two eights and three six-rounders, while Herman Taylor will put on his great all-star program of a ten-round set to be held in Jersey City and Jackie Clark and three eights.

PENN KICKING CONTEST

Punting Test Will End Spring Practice Tomorrow

A punting contest will be staged on Franklin Field tomorrow afternoon as the final act of the Penn spring football. It is expected that at least thirty-five Quaker students will compete.

Last year the punting contest was won by Bert Bell, who captained the 1919 eleven. Gardner won the punting competition in 1899. Bell and Gardner are the only names engraved on the cup offered to the best kicker.

Bingles and Bungles

No game today—wet schedule.

No game tomorrow. Browns play here.

Phils got four runs in the fifth yesterday and lost, 5-4. It was a four-flush.

Brooklyn base hits flooded the Phils' Mead-ows. Cravath's club got all wet.

Meadows' record still is defeatless. George Smith broke into the game in time to lose.

Twenty-two thousand saw the game in Brooklyn which proves they're not all fat in Flatbush.

Stanley Colesdale scored his seventh straight win yesterday over the White Sox.

The Pole's win put the Indians back in great place. The Red Sox are a half game behind.

The other half of the Boston major league contingent maintained its lead by blanking the Giants. The Braves to the Reds by a half box score.

Walter Reuther set the Cards down with two hits a-chance. He had a double yesterday and held in fine style.

Red Shannon is playing great ball for Washington. He had a single and a double yesterday and held in fine style.

Ralph Peckinpah and Del Pratt had three hits apiece of Walter Johnson.

Purdum sends another ball player to the Giants today. He is a left-hander, star infielder. Ari Devlin has recommended LeFevre as the best infielder in collegiate ranks.

All the fans at the Pale grounds yesterday were at half-mast in memory of Harry Harrows, the Yankees' secretary, who died in Washington. The Braves to the Reds by a half.

Art Fletcher couldn't see Dick Rudolph. The Giants' captain faced Richard three times and carried his bat to the bench with him each time.

North Philadelphia Wins Game
North Philadelphia defeated Camden, 4-2, yesterday. Demko's slug with three on in the ninth decided the game.

LATE START FOR STRAW HATS TODAY

Unofficial Opening of Hay-Kelly Season at Penn-Swarthmore Baseball Game

Straw hats will get a delayed start at Penn this afternoon. The official opening was supposed to have been staged on Saturday at Franklin Field, but the rain put a crimp in the debut.

The hay-kellys started to bloom yesterday and today they were out in full strength. When the correct weather arrives there's no waiting for the Penn-Princeton battle.

The game with the Tigers probably will be played on Thursday of next week. The Red and Blue authorities suggested tomorrow as the day for the engagement, but this date was turned down by Princeton. May 20 is the new date under consideration.

Either Walter Huntzinger or Shoffey will get the assignment from Coach Cariss to fling for the Quakers. Huntzinger is in fairly good shape and he believes he can beat the Garnet again. Swarthmore already has been beaten by the Red and Blue.

Humphries will handle his curves behind the plate. In addition to the baseball game

FAIR U. S. GOLFER HURT IN IRELAND

Miss Sherwood May Be Unable to Play for British Title

New Castle, County Down, Ireland, May 10.—Miss Rosemary Sherwood, of New York, met with an accident yesterday which probably will prevent her from participating in the British ladies' golf championship tournament tomorrow.

While vaulting a fence, Miss Sherwood ran a stake into her foot and today was being wheeled about in an invalid's chair.

Miss Cecil Leitch, British women's golf champion, won the ladies' golf stroke competition today with a score of 84, Miss A. G. Mackenzie, of Toronto, was fifth with 88 strokes.

Resolute on First Trials

Bristol, B. I., May 10.—The first trials of the speed resolute, candidate for the honor of defending the America's cup this summer, were held in Narragansett bay yesterday and gave complete satisfaction, according to the experts aboard. The speed went cut first in the afternoon, when a six-knot breeze was blowing from the northwest, and again in the morning, when the water had roughened under a fourteen-knot breeze from the southwest.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

EIGHT-ROUND boxing will be inaugurated at the Olympia Club tonight, and Pete Herman, bantam champion, will get 50 per cent of the honors with Jabez White, of Albany, N. Y., entitled to the remainder. Although the Herman-White match had been clinched before eight-round matches were legalized here by Director Cortelyou, Harry D. Edwards had no trouble at all getting Champion Herman and the Buffalo boxer to agree to box the additional two periods. Herman has been in Philadelphia for the last three days. He says he is feeling fit—in fact, better than ever in his career. Pety says that his manager, Sammy Goldman, was negotiating for several championship contests to be staged this summer. White comes here with the reputation of having stood off Pat Moore, Joe Burman, Joe Lynch, Jack Sharkey and Iroy Moore. Joe Nelson, brother of Alie and Wally, will appear in the semi, opposed to Terry McHugh, of Allentown. Other bouts: Young Robideau vs. Muckle Riley, Young Wills vs. Charley Ray and Young Cornell vs. Leo Reynolds.

Joe Cervino has been appointed timekeeper for bouts at the Olympia. He also will hold the watch at Ship Park this summer. Cervino has been keeping time with spick and span at the Olympia and John Steffen at Camden.

Johnny Mealy, fresh from victories over Eddie Mullen and Johnny Tyson, will go on in Marcus Williams's lightweight exhibition tonight at the Auditorium tomorrow night. This will be an eight-rounder with another eight-round match between George Stern and Philadelphia's Billy Wright, while the six-round encounter follows: Young Joe Brady vs. Joe Wright, Johnny Hanton vs. Bobby Reed and Johnny Byron vs. Lawrence Dougherty.

Requests from out-of-town sportsmen for tickets have been made at the National Club at Camden.

for the final appearance of Jimmy Wilde in a Philadelphia ring on Thursday night, when the Welsh wonder goes on in an encounter with Battling Murray. Wilde has been living up to the reputation of being the greatest flyweight in the world. The Murray-Wilde match will be an eight-rounder with three others, as follows: Hank McGovern vs. Jack Perry; Joe Nelson vs. Dave Astey and Al Thomson vs. Frankie McManus.

Jimmy Jordan, Pittsburgh lightweight, has decided to pass up bouts this summer and will keep in shape next fall by playing baseball. He is holding down third base with the Westinghouse team of the Commercial League.

Joe Honek and Eddie Revere have been matched to box at Columbia, Pa., Friday night.

Mike O'Dowd went out on the road in Brooklyn in the terrific rainstorm on Saturday and he also put in a hard day's training yesterday. After a workout in the gymnasium today Mike will leave for Philadelphia late this afternoon. O'Dowd is confident that he will convince fans in Camden tomorrow night that he still is as good as ever. Premium numbers are Willie Jackson vs. George Young; Ernie, Billy De Joe vs. Ralph Brady and Joe O'Donnell vs. Johnny Murray.

Joe Nelson, brother of Alie and Wally, will appear in the semi, opposed to Terry McHugh, of Allentown. Other bouts: Young Robideau vs. Muckle Riley, Young Wills vs. Charley Ray and Young Cornell vs. Leo Reynolds.

Joe Cervino has been appointed timekeeper for bouts at the Olympia. He also will hold the watch at Ship Park this summer. Cervino has been keeping time with spick and span at the Olympia and John Steffen at Camden.

THE SIGNAL CORPS SCHOOL
Camp Alfred Vail, N. J.
April 12, 1920.
Dear Rodin,
Yes, I am in the Army now, and here at Camp Vail, learning telegraph operating and telephone and telegraph repair work. I like the life and I really believe I am fitting it up.
The work is laid out so that it reaches the average man and you don't have to be a high-brow to start in.
The school now has ten commissioned instructors, three consulting engineers from civil life, and twenty-four non-commissioned instructors and eighteen privates.
I am a private myself but I can be promoted up to a private first class and five dollars a month, all practically clear money, for everything you need is free.
How are James and Hines? Give my regards to your father.
Let me hear from you some time.
Yours as ever,
Dewey

STANDARD EIGHT
A Powerful Car
THE beautiful lines and luxury of your car please you, but you respect it for its power.
In time you come to love it for what it has done for you, and you depend upon it as you depend upon your friends.
To those men and women to whom a motor car is something more than a machine, we respectfully recommend the Standard Eight. See the new models at our showrooms.
