

SUFFRAGE BATTLE ON IN LOUISIANA

Prolonged Fight Forecast as Legislature Meets Despite Move to Beat Delaware

WOMAN ARE OPTIMISTIC

By the Associated Press
Baton Rouge, La., May 10.—A prolonged fight to make Louisiana the thirty-sixth state to ratify the federal woman suffrage amendment appeared in prospect today when the State Legislature met in special session.

Suffrage leaders had predicted early and favorable action, but those opposing ratification said they would be prepared to force delay and while endeavoring in the meantime to obtain a vote on a suffrage amendment to the state constitution.

Washington, May 10.—Another great struggle between the North and the South began today. Louisiana is pitted against Delaware in the race for ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. The odds favor the Pelican over the Blue Hen. The home of the sugar cane, the creole and, once, the big fox, has shown the habits of high explosives from the political spotlight. Duver takes second place to Baton Rouge.

Martin Behrman, of New Orleans, leader of the two political factions in the state, are working to have Louisiana enrolled as the decisive state in the long fight for equal suffrage. Senator N. C. Williamson, who is heading the suffragist hosts in the upper house, has sent reassuring messages to suffragists in Washington. Representative Reuben Chavrin, ratification leader in the House, is no less confident of victory.

Among the suffrage leaders in Louisiana to urge ratification is Mrs. Florence Bayard Hill, state chairman of the National Women's party in Delaware.
