CARL FISCHER IS PENN WINNER

Leads Red and Blue Tennis Team to 3-1 Victory Over Tigers at Princeton

The University of Pennsylvania tennis team continued its winning march yesterday by triumphing the Princeton racquet sharks three matches to one.

Carl Fischer, the Philadelphia youth, has been among the first ranking players here for the last three years.

Tomorrow Fischer will lead the Penn team against Columbia at New York on Saturday the Red and Blue will play Lafayette on the turf courts of the Germantown Cricket Club at Manheim.

The Penn singles team is composed of Fischer, Phil Goldborough, Andy Morgan and Don Nichols.

Carl Fischer has defeated the Harvard captain, Helms, and with Morgan has won the doubles from the best that the Crimson could produce.

The best collegiate battle of the year is promised when Fischer goes against Chuck Garland, of Yale, although it is not likely that the Blue leader will be very hard pressed.

DAVIS CUP TEAM NAMED BY FRANCE

Strong Combination Will Give Americans Battle in International Tennis Matches

France has chosen its Davis Cup team, naming four men for the first of the preliminary ties.

Andre H. Gobert, who won the British indoor championship recently, leads the team, with Max Decugis in second place.

It is quite conceivable that this team, familiar with English turf, may dash America's hopes in its first trial.

English tennis writers have offered a suggestion to avoid a recurrence of the recent mix-up in the Davis cup draw because of late entries.

Carl Fischer has defeated the Harvard captain, Helms, and with Morgan has won the doubles from the best that the Crimson could produce.

The best collegiate battle of the year is promised when Fischer goes against Chuck Garland, of Yale, although it is not likely that the Blue leader will be very hard pressed.
