

GIRLS PLAYING BASEBALL at the Athletic Recreation Center. Miss Katherine McDermott, the batter, missed the ball by inches and Miss Ella Arenberg is ready to catch the ball barehanded. It's a rubber ball.

WEST PHILADELPHIA HIGH SCHOOL girls will appear in the operetta "Little Miss Muffet" tonight and tomorrow night. Some of the cast are seen in the photographs. At the left—Miss Louise Doak and Miss Mildred Keebler. Center, back row—Miss Gladys Moore, Miss Ruth Gilbert, Miss Alberta Elwell. Front row—Miss Dot Meigel, Miss Dot Mendte and Miss Rosaline Landesberg. In the photograph at the right are Miss Louisa Gallagher (left) and Miss Ida Frey.

THE LAST BREAKFAST in Philadelphia for a little while for the marines that went away on the transport Henderson early yesterday morning.

"THE LAND OF HEART'S DESIRE" is one of the four Irish plays to be given by the Philomathean Club of the University of Pennsylvania at the Academy of Music on May 19. Some of the cast are (at the table, left to right) Miss Dorothy Buckley, Merle Schaaf and Miss Florence Caldwell. In the photograph at the left is Miss Ida J. Whitaker, who will appear as the Fairy Child.

RAYMOND POND, acting chief of the Bureau of City Property. The appointment was made yesterday in spite of the fact that John E. Arthur still refuses to be discharged as head of that bureau.

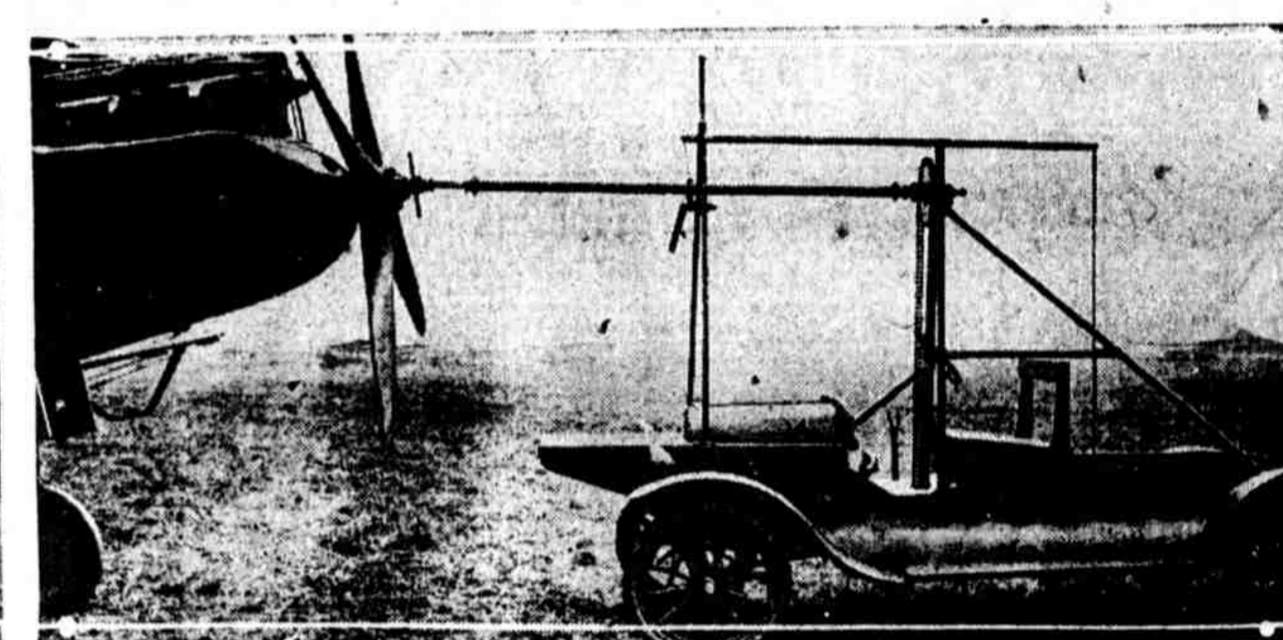

THE PRINCE OF WALES at Barbados, where he is seen making an official inspection of the Girl Guides on the lawn at the Government House.

COLONEL DUNCAN F. D. NEILL, nautical adviser to Sir Thomas Lipton (left), and Captain A. B. Turner, captain of the Shamrock IV, here for the yacht races.

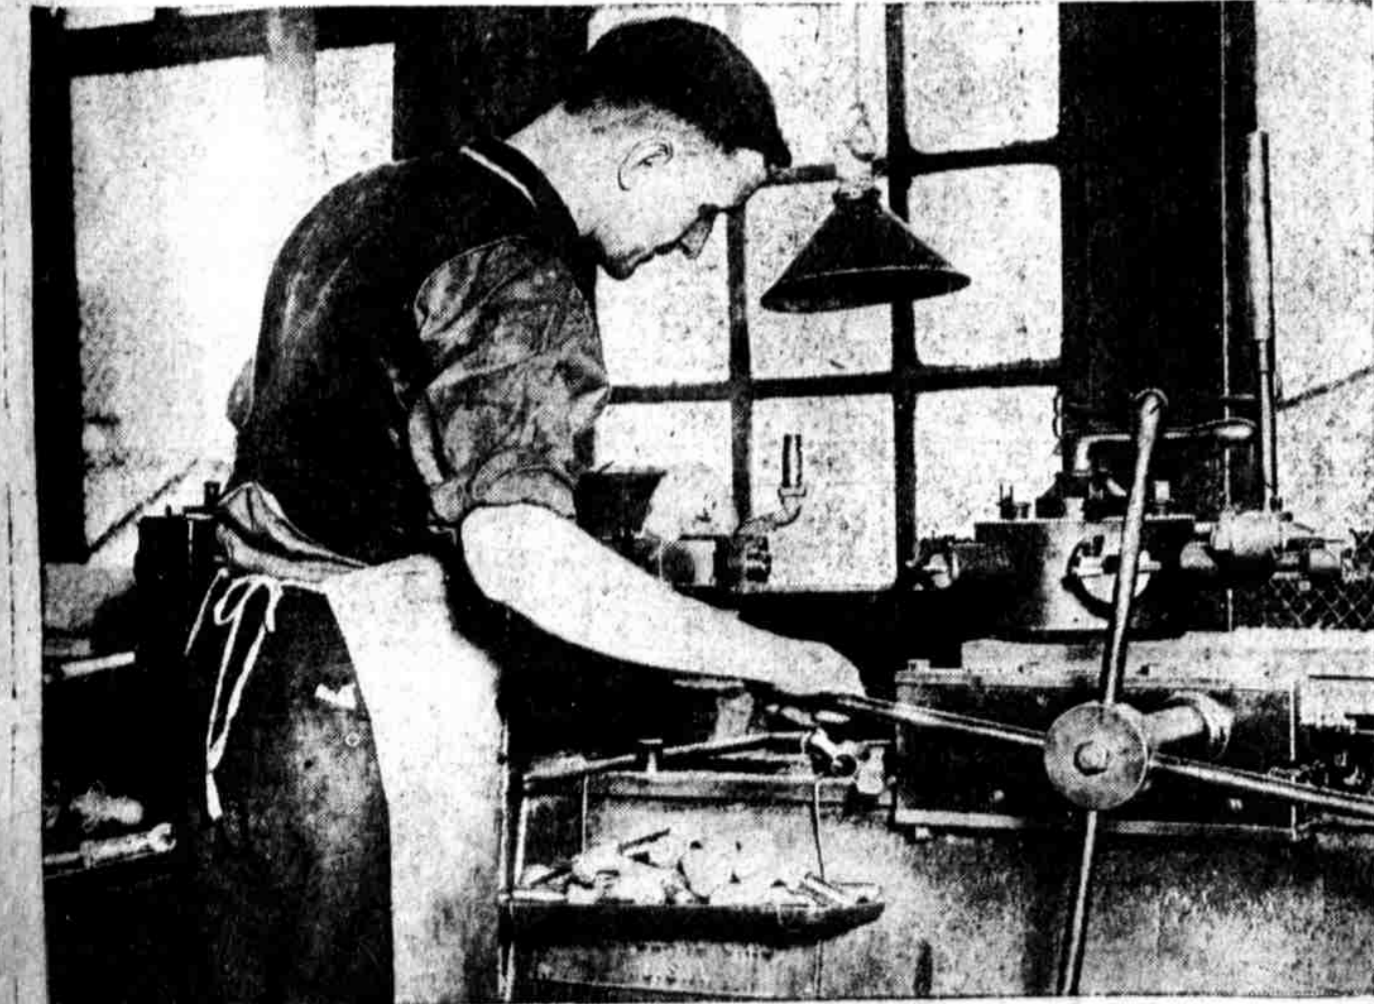

GENERAL PERSHING calling on the President of Panama. The general, dressed in white, is standing with his host on the balcony of the presidential palace in Panama City.

CAPTAINS OF RIVAL TEAMS in the William Penn Charter School color contests. W. G. Miller (left), Blues, and C. B. Mitchell, Yellows. The Yellows won the event.

AN AIRPLANE ENGINE STARTER attached to engine of an automobile, originated by Captain B. C. Hucks, a British pre-war pilot.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THREADING and putting seat on swan-neck faucets with a turret lathe at Thomas Savill's Sons, Thirteenth and Wallace streets. The operator, William Zerweck, of 2244 North Carlisle street, threads about 350 faucets a day.

PREMIER DANCER on way to Europe. She is Rosina Galli, of the Metropolitan Opera Company. She will visit Italy, France and England.

MUCH DEPENDS on Mrs. Annette Adams, district attorney in San Francisco, whether or not Jack Dempsey will be at liberty to box Georges Carpentier in the near future. She is in charge of the case against the American boxer charged with draft dodging.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MATTIE KIRWAN, 2653 Garrett St., Philadelphia. Photographs for this feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.