EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1920

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Hears the Junior Music Club Meets This Afternoon at Mrs. Cuyler's Home-The Spring Cleaning Struggles of a Recent Bride

week. There are fifty members in this club and every one contributed to the dis-play, some even showing two and three arrangements. All these flowers were home grown, as most of the members, work in their gardens themselves. Mrs. Dixon is to marry William Heyward who is to marry William Heyward Were on June 1. Mrs. George Reynolds gave a luncheon at the Sedgley Club on Thursday. Among the guests were Mrs. William Mrs. W. S. Belding and Mrs. A. H. Kennedy. The Junior League held its annual supper at the home of Miss. Mary D. Newbold, of Jenkintown, on Tuesday.

You know when we inst near of it, the date was not sure, we simply knew that it was to be in the first week of June. Now the day is set. The wedding will be at St. Paul's and it will be very quiet; and Emily Welsh will be mar-William Tiers. Mrs. Welsh married Mr. Dixon some years after Mr. Welsh's death. Louise Dixon, Mr. Dixon's daughter by his first marriage, will be a debutante next winter. She is most vivacious and attractive. She and Betty Welsh, who came out this year, are to be bridesmaids for Emily.

home of Mrs. De Witt Cuyler in Haverford this afternoon. The Cuyler house is beautifully fitted for just such an affair, as the large ballroom opens into the parlor and there is plenty of room for the guests and performers. These musicales are quite delightful delightful for many, in fact every one of the mem-bers has decided talent, while some of them are quite extraordinary with their various instruments. Of course, those who play the piano

Of course, those who play the plane lead the list in point of numbers, but there are violinists, cellists, harpists and all the other "ists." as well in the club. The little plantsts include John Adams, Helen Allen, Mary Baltz, Elizabeth Barringer, Sarah Barringer, Robert Benedict, Eleanor Clark, Con-way Clark, Maisie Chance, Ning Gabrilowitsch, Virginia Heckscher, Muriel Hodge, Ethel Heckscher, Louise

Muriel Hodge. Ethel Heckscher, Louis Norris, Virginia Norris, Anna Pratt, Rowland Roberts, Gwendolyn Roberts, Mary Carroll Rolin, Elaine Supplee, Carroll Spencer, Jack Wheeler, Sophie Farnall and Agnes Yarnall, Among the violinists are Dolly Duane, Alice Benedict, Dorothy Hodge, Florence Michell, George Miles, Sylvia Strong,

Polly Thayer and Norris Tuttle. The cellists include Helen Chance and Irene Hubbard, and the harpists re Anne Ashton, Blanche Rubbard, Margaret Joyce and Helen Michell. Cresson masters the cornet, Osborne Cresson (and you know his mother was a Coates from his name, n't you?) is a clarionetist, while ed Baily plays the saxaphone.

Fred Baily plays the saxaphone. I can't just tell you how I feel about saxaphone, but it's this way: All my life I'vé wanted to play a saxo-will take place early in June. men who play with Fred Stone, about four years ago. So you know my life is long and well spent. And to think that small Fred Baily can play one; well, I admire him. I think they are simply scrumptious, and they are so sent, I admire him. I think they are simply scrumptious, and they are so nice and silly, and look so foolish, and they can make such simple sounds. If you ever know where they are nother, Mrs. J. A. Hughes, of Hunting-ton, W. Va. They can make such simple sounds. If you ever know where they are playing a saxophone, just lead me to it, because I want to hear it, and see it, and laugh and roar at it

THEY are going to have pony rides, who has been the guest of and vegetables, and garden acces-sories, and flowers, and toys, and ice cream an everythings at the Flower Market next Thursday and I think it winter are now occupying their country will be lovely. The beneficiaries this year are the Visiting Nurse Society, Soplace at Devon.

DID you hear that Mrs. T. Henry Dixon, of Rhodora, Chestnut Hill, received first honors in the competi-tors' display for arrangement of flowers at the meeting of the Garden Club? It was held at the home of Mrs. John Packard, 3d, in Chestnut Hill this week. There are fifty members in this club

Dixon is the monner of Limity Weish. who is to marry William Heyward Myers on June 1. And speaking of the Dixons, makes me think of Dorothy Newbold, whose mother was Miss Dixon. Her wedding to Lothrop Ritchle is to be on June 5. You know when we first heard of it, the date was not sure, we simply knew that it was to be in the first week of June. Now the day is set. The wedding will be at St. Paul's and it will be very quiet; and Emily Welsh will be mar-ried at home, the Dixon place, Rho-dora. Emily Welsh, who was a brother of Mrs. Archibald Thomson and of Mrs. William Tiers. Mrs. Welsh married William Tiers. Mrs. Welsh married will be a debutante next winter. She is most vivacious and attractive. She and Betty Welsh, who came out this year, are to be bridesmaids for Emily. Betty is Emily's sister. YOU know there is to be a meeting of the Junior Mnsic Club out at the home of Mrs. De Witt Cuyler in Harerford this afternoon. The Cuyler homes is beautifully fitted for just such homes of Mrs. De Witt Cuyler in Harerford this afternoon. The Cuyler homes is beautifully fitted for just such home of Mrs. De Witt Cuyler in Harerford this afternoon the large ballroom onens A the large ballroom onens difference in the fitted for just such home of Mrs. De Witt Cuyler in Harerford this afternoon the large ballroom onens difference in the large bally the start of large the start the land the suster the large mony at the Germantown Cricket Club. Among the guests who attended the reciprocity luncheon given by the Satur-day Club, of Wayne, of which Mrs. W. Allen Barr is president, on Tuesday, were Mrs. Jamgs Hunter, of Media: Mrs. Wal-ter Hancock, of the Philomusian Club, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ralph Kinder, of Cynwyd: Mrs. A. Dercum Yocum, of Ridley Park; Mrs. Irwin James, of Nor-ristown; Mrs. G. H. Fisher, of Downing-town, and Mrs. R. A. Rayner, of Wil-mington.

Mr. Ellot Wadsworth, who was vice chairman of the Red Cross, will talk on the expedition through Central Europe at a luncheon to be given at the Cham-ber of Commerce on Thursday, May 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Mencke, of 6311 Sherwood road, Overbrook, have is-sued invitations for a dinner dance in honor of the graduating class of Miss Hill's school, of which their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mencke, is president, on Wednesday evening, May 26, at the Overbrook Golf Club. Mrs. Thomas Bartram, of Media, w entertain at dinner at her home today.

Mrs. Frederick T. Chandler, Jr., of Harvest lane, Haverford, entertained in-formally at bridge yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Wilbur, of Rail-road avenue and County road, Haver-ford, have as their guest Mrs. Wilbur's sister, Miss Elizabeth Dean, of Washing-Miss Jane B. Gilfillan daughter

Miss Jane B. Glinlian daugner or Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glinlian, of City line and Church road, Overbrook, has issued invitations for a luncheon on Saturday afternoon, May 22 in honor of Miss Grace Christine Geiger and her bridal party. Miss Geiger's marriage to Mr. Jonathan S. Wilford, of Merion, will the place asply in June.

Miss Eliza H. Bell, of Bayside, L. Miss Anna Barnard, of Bryn Mawr, left for her

Children of Mrs. J. Emott Caldwell, of Bryn Mawr

Children of Mrs. J. Emott Lagwen, of Dryn slaw. Son Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. George Esta-brook, Mrs. John Hellings, the Rev. and Mrs. John Hellings, the Rev. and H. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Nirahaniel Saxe have re-turned from their wedding trip to Mon-treat, Car., and will be at home at 400 West Horiter street, Germantown. The bride, before her martinge, on Mrs. Muthaliel Saxe, Mrs. C. Palmar of Einst Montgormery the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Saxe, Mrs. C. Palmar of Einst Montgormery the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Saxe, Mrs. C. Palmar of Einst Montgormery the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Saxe, Mrs. C. Palmar of Einst Montgormery Mrs. C. Palmar son Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. George Esta-brook, Mrs. John Hellings, the Rev. and Mrs. John G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam G. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Eimer D Smyth. The officers of the club are: President, Mrs. Craven; vice president; Mrs. Warme; secretary, Mrs. Estabrook, and transurse Mas Stevens

Miss Baptist Church, Lehigh avenue and t, on the ment of mirth and music on Tuesday evening in the church social hall, un-der the direction of Mr. Watkins Davis, isst evening in the church social hall, un-

Jeat are the Visiting Nurse Society, So-cial Service of the University Hospital. First Day Nursery and the Rittenhouse
Guiffornia visiting har brother, Mr.
First Day Nursery and the Rittenhouse
Guiffornia visiting har brother, Mr.
R. E. Oftle, of Devon.
Mrs. Charles M. Thomas, of Weat
Chester, has been spending the winter in California visiting har brother, Mr.
R. E. Oftle, of Devon.
Mrs. George F. Good, of St. Davids, is entertaining Miss Florence Fiddall, of Evanston, Ill.
Mrs. Thomas L. Elwyn is treasurer and Mrs. Howard Pancoast, secretary.
Mr and Mrs. Jesse J. Schamberg, of time and had moved into a dear little partment and everything was perfective
Mrs. Charles M. Thomas, of Weat
Mrs. Howard Pancoast, secretary.
Mrs. Pauline Joseph, of the Ritz-time the october.
Mrs. Pauline Joseph, of the Ritz-time the October. A session of the Women's Christian Temperance Union Institute was held in the Seventh United Presbyterian Church, Orthodox and Leiper streets, on Thurs-day. Among the speakers were Mrs. C. A. Moore, on "Work Among Soldiers and Sailors"; Mrs. Withinston, Mrs. Field and the Rev. T. T. Mutchler,

MISS ELLA EISENBREY "THE SEVENTH DAY" A BRIDE OF TODAY

Weds Mr. Norman Felt Shelton Russell at Rosemont—Other Marriages Marriages Minnie Antiput State State Store State State

The wedding of Miss Ella Dewees Eisenbrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elsenbrey, Jr., of Haverford, Louis P. and Mr. Norman Felt Shelton Russell will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Mr. Townsend, and the bride will be given in marriage by her father.

Miss Eisenbrey will wear a gown of white satin and rose point lace with a tulle vell. She will carry a shower bou-FANNIE HURST tuile veil. She will carry a shower bou-quet of gardenias and illies of the valley. The bride will be attended by her sis-ter, Miss Irene Eisenbrey, as maid of honor. She will wear a frock of white taffeta and lace, with a hat of white tuile trimmed with ostrich. She will carry a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride will carry a shower bou-tuile trimmed with ostrich She will carry a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

tune trimmed with barrier barbers carry a bouquet of American Beauty roses.
The bridesmalds, Miss Bernice Berens and Miss Sidney Rogers, will wear barbers, and will also carry American Beauty roses.
There will be two flower girls, Miss Barbara Walker and Miss Constance Carpenter, and two fibbon bearers, Miss Marie Elizabeth Halbach and Master Rudolph Rauch. They will wear white organdie with polk bonnets, and will carry old-fashioned bouquets of small roo landing outside the window ledge. I She shared the fire escape with the corpandie with polk bonnets, and will red roses.
Mr. Russell will have Mr. T. W. Coleman Carpenter as best man. The ushers will be Mr. D. Birney Stokes, Mr. H. Newton Walker, Mr. J. Hansell French and Mr. Edward P. Lea. Immediately after the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents.
But there is a saving circumstance. On the scenth day Minnie emerged from her chrysalis and black sateen in the corpusation and black sateen in the corpusation will be mer chrysalis and black sateen in the scenth day Minnie emerged from her chrysalis and black sateen in the corpusation will be mer chrysalis and black sateen in the scenth day Minnie emerged from the chrysalis and black sateen in the corpusation will be mer chrysalis and black sateen in the corpusation will be held at the home of the bride's parents.

was Ans. Lillian T. Welleman darge of the Jage Border and Table 1 and the form of the state of the state of the bridgeroom, will as the state of the bridgeroom, will be state bridgeroom, will be state bridgeroom, will be state bridgeroom, will be sthe bridgeroom, will be state bridgeroom, will b

14 M M Pongee. Made in $1.50 Janan. Value $2.25

By FANNIE HURST

the opera, or in the drawing room, "But now that I have found ynu, why begin the search anew?" he urged "The prince must rescue the maiden from the tower."" Ab. I see!" he exclaimed, in mock enlightenment. "You want to meet me on a prancing steed instead of in the satin parlor of a Eroadway hotel."

and wore the subscription of the seven big and carried a go she the formality of livery and society, make me long to fly back to nature."
The formality of livery and society, make me long to fly back to nature."
The man moved toward her with a new interest.
"Strange." he half mused "that when a test is the formality of the moment, that a "Tables for the subscription of the moment, that we are off for the West tomorrow. I, too, am weary of the honk of the automotile, the chug of a yacht, the titter of society. I want the wideness and the mountain topa"
She sighed appreciatively.
"I cannot tell you how all this infigrant red carnation near its head, and tomobile, the chug of a yacht, the titter of society. I want the wideness and the mountain tops." She sighed appreciatively. "I sometimes even long to change places with my maid." "I cannot tell you how all this in-terests me." His face betrayed his eageness. "Often have I sat behind my chauffeur and envied him. We suf-fer from ennui, but we do not heed the call; we crave househoats but cling. presented it to him with silent gran diloquence. "And you the lady's." she whispered. They locked into each other's eyes." "I am beginning to fear that I am neroaching upon your evening." ahe ald after they had finished with the This history has to do with the seventh. At 4 o'clock call; we crave houseboats, but cling said the yacht and ocean liner." salad o the yacht and ocean liner." "True, too true." assented Minnie, The man regarded her intently." If you will pardon the personality, I cannot escape the feeling that we have net before. Could it have been on the so many." "Doubtiess," she replied. "One meets to glanced at his watch. "Since your maid is delayed, may I trave the honor of dining with you." "Thank you but I am dining in my "Thank you but I am dining in my "Yee, but I cannot permit you to sac-rifice your social obligations in my be-half. I, too, am obliged to obey un-dicates of my engagement calendar." "Let us ignore those dictates together." She finished her demi-tagse. "You tempt me." she said "but I have Falad

"Since your maid is delayed, may 1 "There you maid is delayed, may 1 "Thank you but I am dining in my own apartments. I cannot account for this delay. Annette is usually most

They laughed, and he leaned ac

the table, holding a crystal "To the beginning!" "To drink in water is an evil sign." she of erved, but raised the glass in her lips, and the ice tinkled against its frail sides. "We will probably meet some day."

"Oh, it may be on the high seas, i the opera, or in the drawing room."

om the bank between them. "At least wear your knight's co-She in turn snapped the stem parloing steed instead of in the parloin of a Eroadway hotel," es. and you must have jangling and a shiny heimet." took a long-stemmed carnation the bank between them.

least wear your knight's colors,

They passed out through the crowded ining room and the brilliant lobby. At ning room and the brilliant lobby. At e entrance to the little parlor she gave m her hand. "Good-by, and thank you for a pleas-she said. "How?"

Yes

course

down apartments, it can usually most this delay. Annette is usually most punctual."
He did not press further, but bowed and handed her his card.
"At least these few moments have been a pleasure, dear lady."
"H. Dudley Livingston." The name meant nothing to her, but she read it with an intelligent raising of the eyebows, and glanced again toward the bloby.
"Knowing you at least by hearsay, and shoe you ask it. I will dine with you, if you will return me here im mediately. Annette is stupid." He smiled with pleasure, and rose.
"I dared not hope that you would network the said. She watched him blow thoughtful wreaths of cigarette smoke, and leaned back in her chair contentedly.
"Is it possible." he asked her slowly. "Is it possi

She placed a quick, detaining hand the entrance ant hour." His eyes read into hers with well-bred "Isn't it to be au revoir?"

"I'm afraid not." she answered, with a low note in her voice. "At least, not until the knight finds the tower." "At any rate, you have made me very happy, even if I found you only to lose

He pressed her hand, and she slipped between the heavy curtains. in It was 3 o'clock when Minnie Stradolis tain with a bank of fern and carnation between them. "You have redeemed a hopeless, dreary old bachelor." She smiled at him through the fret-work of fern. "And you have tempted my adven-turous nature to a shocking indiscre-tion." "I wish that I might tempt yon to She shock her head prettile.

"I wish that I might tempt you to reveal your name." She propped the stem against the stew-pan. and mothered and caressed the frag-rant head. "I am bound to discover it sooner or later, and besides." he added seri-ously. "I want this to be more than an adventure; i want it to be a begin-ning." "Oh," she said archly, "not the be-ginning of the end?" "You know better than that," he ad-monished.

Value $2.25....

Goods Exchanged if Not Satisfactory

Also Volles, Organdies, Foulards and other silks.

But there is a saving circumstance. On the seventh day Minnie emerged from her chrysalis and black sateen shirt waist like a Moth Emporatus, and the six days of Biggest Store were left to the series encours of the week known.

ah, on seventh!

She had only been married a short Carlton, will leave next week for Mount Clemens, Mich., where she will remain some time before going to Chicago. Mrs. vely, when one night as she sat sewing the electric lamp, she happened to k down and on the floor she saw main until October. ok down and on the floor she saw Johnnie Waterbug. Straightway murder shone in her eye.

and evening after evening she refused to go out. Tried one remedy after another till she thought, dreamed, spoke and whistled waterbugs. She even called them her state the state of the state of the state of the state them her state of the Miss Miriam Vandergrift of 73 East Penn street, entertained the members of the Beta Kappa Sigma Sorority, senior and junior Germantown chapters, at her home on Thursday evening. The guests included Miss Harriett S. Pentland, Miss Margarat Schrahar, Miss Klitty Smith then by name, when speaking of them. but still back they came (it being shad time). Finally she was told of a pow-der, if what I hear is true, and she bew it is all the scenes, and later included Miss Harriett S. Pentland, Miss Margaret Schreiber, Miss Kitty Smith, Miss Alice Byrom, Miss Bertha Ormis-ton, Miss Helen Deighton, Miss Mar-guerite Judge, Miss Helen Taggart, Miss Eleanor Blood, Miss Beatrice Tippin, Miss Helen Naylor, Miss Sidney Follick, Miss Katharine Faber, Miss Mary Faber, Miss Justine Keller and Miss Fesher Acknowl in all the cracks; and later when Genevieve and Geraldine came out for their evening stroll, they were greetd with a blast of powder, which acted ike poison gas, for they ran round in Faber, Miss Jus-circles and then folding their paws laid Esther Ackroyd.

Well, the bride gloated with foy and bad found something at last, but, per-Willow Grove Park. haps, also it only worked when the ractually was blown upon the insect

Picture her joy on arising the next morning to find Eloise stretched before The women's committee of the Cedar Brook Country Club, formerly the Sten-ton Country Club, has planned a large down the hall lay Abelard, and over by the kitchen sink was Edna. Geraldine and Geneview of the club-Geraldine and Genevieve still lay on their little backs under the dining-room table and by the sideboard was John. who, being a most husky individual, had struggled long and well. I think after this her friends will ee her again, but Johnnie Waterbug's ay in that apartment is over NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Montgomery. of Ardrossan, Villanova, have issued invitations for a dance to be given at beir home on Saturday, May 22.

Among the guests who attended the uncheon given by Mrs. Thomas McKean, d Giencoe House, Rosemont, were Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. Penn Smith, Miss Lucile Carter, Mr. Walter Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Church<sup>4</sup> man and Mr. Alfred Gilpin.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. John Tenaglia, of 1211 South Broad street, have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Emma Eleanor Tenaglia, to Mr. Victor Edward Lambiase, of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

An entertainment, dance and coffee party was given on Thursday evening by the members of St. Luke's and the Epiphany, Thirteenth and Spruce streets. Music was furnished by the orchestra of the Richardson Church, Sixtleth and Walnut streets. Mrs. Beck was in charge of the affair. Walnut streets. Mi charge of the affair.

FALLS OF SCHUYLKILL The City History Club, under the leadership of Dr. Charles K. Mills, for-merly of this section, will take a hike to historical places along the Schuyl-kill river this aftermoon. The hikers will meet at 2 o'clock at Ridge avenue and Huntingdon street and follow the line of Mendenhall ferry road, which led from that point diagonally down the hillside to the Schuylkill. They will visit the old chocolate mill, built in 1774, and which forms the back of two dwellings facing on Ridge road, and will observe the Philadelphia and Reading Railway's skew arch stone bridge erected in 1853. Mr. Cadwalader Evans Franklin, of 339 South Fourth street, has gone to Detroit, where he expects to remain for a fortnight.

TIOGA

a reception and dance on Wednesday evening at the Germantown Automobile Club. The Pi Sigma Sorority entertained at The spring dance of the Delta Chap-ter of the Phi Delta Upsilon Fraternity was given last night at "Danceland,"

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kuehn, of Knox and Logan streets, will occupy their apartment at Ocean City for the sum-

Club. Miss Margaret Ramsey entertained in-formally at her home, 750 South Six-teenth street, followed by a linen shower, in honor of Miss Helen Brooks, daugh-ter of Lieutenant and Mrs. John Brooks, whose engagement to Mr. John Brooks, miss Lillian Hiss Eleanor Fallows, Miss Lillian Hart, Miss Laura Logan, Miss Lillian Hart, Miss Laura Logan, Miss Helen Fullen, Mrs. Turner, Miss Lillian M. Brooks, Miss Katherine Sher-Lillian M. Brooks, Miss Katherine Sher-tz, Miss Florence Simpson, Miss Vera Frankfeld, Miss Bert Shore, Miss Frances Shetzline and Miss Neille Tusch.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gordon Smith, of Manor road, Wynnewood, have as their guest Mrs. Fain Witt, of Morristown, Tenn. in whose honor a luncheon and bridge was given on Monday at the Overbrook Golf Club.

GERMANTOWN

Mrs. Archibald Ehle, of Wynnewood and Hazelhurzi lanea. Merion. enter-tained her bridge club at luncheon on Wednesday. The following members were present: Mrs. Charles Bacon. Mrs. Clarence Moyer. Mrs. Ernest Searing. Mrs. J. C. Sellers. Jr., Mrs. Ross C. Cor-nish, Mrs. Harold Pender and Mrs. S. Earle Haines Earle Haines.

Mrs. J. Garett, of Lelper street, will be hostess to the members of her 500 club at her home on Tuesday afternocn.

FALLS OF SCHUYLKILL

NORRISTOWN

LEHMAN-STERNBERGER The wedding of Miss Edythe Stern-berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al-bert Sternberger, of 6732 Sydenham street, and Mr. Gilbert J. Lehman, of 1827 Butler street, will take place this evening at 7 o'clock in the Hotel Adel by the Rev. Joseph Krauskopf, D. D. of the Keneseth Israel Temple, and will be followed by a dinner for the families, Mr. Lehman and his bride will leave on a trip and will be at home during the could imagine herself journeying

Among the players of the Frankford Country Club on Sunday afternoon were Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Graham, of East Cumberland street, Kenshigton, who have just won the mixed championship of the club.

 avenue, Ardmore.
 Inverness coat, but no drawing-room

 MYRICK—ELIASON
 Inverness coat, but no drawing-room

 An attractive spring wedding will take could also picture this thred-eyed man place this evening at 5 o'lock at the core strolling the white and brass deck bisis Stewart street, when Miss Joneyre, and daughter of Mrs. Lina Eliason, will be hard, but none of his details was lost

 of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harry Myrick, son or strolling the walk easily which hung beyond his

 e. be married to Mr. George E. Myrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harry Myrick, son

 of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harry Myrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myrick and of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Will be aguinnetaiknob and that his shirt studs or corronny will be performed by the five

 That is a very warm and rich bit

 mit Landowne avenue, and will be tot Invernees was containing. Anon of honor and myrick and his bride will leave on

 That is a very warm and rich bit

 myrick and his bride will leave on The is use beautiful," replied Minnie.

 Mr. Lawrence Walton gave a dimar
 Work Arand Mrs. Francis D. Weaver,

 Miss Frances Malton gave a dimar
 The is a very warm and rich bit marty last evening. Among the guise

 The suble was containtaing the work and the and bit.

 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph,

Mrs. Harris Templeton entertained at a luncheon at her West Main street home, at which her guests were Mrs. Charles Stauffor, Mrs. Frederick C. Farnesworth, Mrs. H. Edmund Stone. drs. Kenneth Stauffer and Mrs J Hawley. The Thespian Club, of All Saints' Church presented the comedy, "Between the Acts." Among the participants were Mr. Fred Kilburn, Mr. William Good, Mr. A. Thomas Owens and Mr. Donald Walker.

Miss Martha Hill, of 620 Kohn street

Miss Martna Hill, of 620 Kohn street. Myrick ter a novelty party at her home, at which the guests were Miss Violet Carnegie, Miss Norma Bitting, Miss Bertha Hill, Miss Katharine Trump, Miss Viola Trump, Miss Alice Wardman Mr. and Mrs. David A. Bennis have returned from their wedding trip through the South, and are living with Mr. Bennis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Bennis 641 Chelten avenue, until the completion of their new home, 630 Chel-ten avenue. The bride was Miss Helen 1 Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Best, of 1429 West Erie avenue. and Miss Gladys Lisby.

Mrs. Charles E. Fox has returned staying with her mother, Mrs. J. Umstead, of the Hamilton.

Another returning bridegroom and bride are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, who will be at home at 1226 West Erie avenue. Mrs. Miller will be remembered as Miss Helene Murphy.