Nancy Wynne Speaks of More June Wedding Dates-She Tells of Those in Charge of Booths at the Flower Market

THERE are certainly many dates for June weddings, it seems. Every day one hears of a new one. I'll have a nice one to spring on you in a day or two. In fact, I can tell you the date now. It's June 17, and it's not Delphine Dodge and Jimmie Cromwell, because we all know that is to be June 17. This is a new one and a nice one at that.

The marriage of Miss Nan Boggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Comments.

phine Dodge and Jimmie Cromwell, because we all know that is to be June 17. This is a new one and a nice one at that.

Did you know that Margery Taylor is to be married on June 16? At first they had planned for June 23, but now it is definitely arranged for the earlier date. Margery is very pretty and will make a lovely bride. She has the most wonderful color, such bright cheeks and lovely brown hair, and she has such a sweet manner. Gordon Hardwick, you know, is not a Philadelphian, but he came here to college and is a very popular member of the younger set. I have seldom heard of a man who seems so thoroughly liked as he.

Inter part of June.

The marriage of Miss Nan Boggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour street, to Mr. Frederick Jordan, of Olney, will take place at the home of the bride's parents, on Thursday evening, June 3.

Mrs. Cornelius Ambruster is enterstaining at luncheon and cards today at her home in Roslyn, with the following guests: Mrs. Ernest MacMorris, Mrs. Nathaniel W. Jones Mrs. G. Barham Bond, Mrs. Marting A. Prenzlau, Mrs. Joseph Lanning, Mrs. Lambert J. Bordo and Mrs. Harry Hartman,

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kendle, Jr. came here to college and is a very pop-ular member of the younger set. I have seldom heard of a man who seems so thoroughly liked as he.

DID you hear that Anna Williamson. DID you hear that Anna Williamson, a sister of Mrs. Colket Wilson, 3d, is engaged to a southern clergyman? Anna is a sister of Julia Williamson, too. Julia was abroad for some time with the "Y," you know. She is a wonderfully expert story-teller, and she nsed to keep the soldier boys at the huts entertained for half hours at a time with her splendid stories. Anna has been class will take the leading parts. doing mission work among the moun-taineers of Virginia for the last three or four years, and I hear that her flance, day than yesterday? It's beginning day than yesterday? It's beginning to get seasonably warm and ready for the Flower Market, which is to be held on Thursday of this week. I have never heard of more elaborate plans than there are in the making and I do hove it will be a decided nice day. You know last year it rained for about twenty minutes just after everything was started, everyone had to rush to cover: and it was just kind of half and half till afternoon. And there's nothing so trying as that. If it does rain definitely, at least you know it's to be day, and there's no this way hat way. It's a definite thing. or that way. It's a definite thing. There's nothing more trying than inde-

Frank Willia Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe is in charge of booth No. 1; Mrs. Sidney Keith has booth 2; booth 3, the candy one, is headed by Mrs. William Dray-ton Grange, while booth 4, headed by Mrs. Jack Hollingsworth, will have vegetables. Mrs. Morris Jastrow will have care of booth 5 and members of visiting hurse board will assist her. while the Garden Club of Philadelphia, with Mrs. Marshall Morgan in charge, will sell flowers, plants and baskets at booth 6. The Society of Little Gardens will have booth 7 with Miss Frances Clark in charge and the Candenses. ces Clark in charge and the Gardeners will preside over booth S, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles A. Service.

Mrs. Charles Platt, Jr., is chairman of booth 9 and Mrs. Howard Rhoades will have booth 10. Mrs. Sam Henderson will have ice cream cones and cakes as she has so successfully engineered that booth each year; and there will be pony rides up and down Rit-tenhouse street, and all sorts of odds and ends for sale. Sounds great to me.

WE LIVE and learn and, of course, we do learn by stages. So the other day the family sat round and listened in delight to small Sister who is nearly three, and who had recently learned word women.

WE LIVE and learn and, of course, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Wirkman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. Miller and their infant sun, of 103 Northeast boulevard, will leave on June 1 for their cottage on Stenton avenue, Chelsea, where they will spend the summer, Mrs. Anna Shortthree, and who had recently learned the word woman, announced that "Mother is a woman." And "Auntie is a woman." And was for going on the rounds of the family, when her mother "And what is baby brother?" For a moment she was floored, man was not in her vocabulary, then a smile broke over her countenance and she lisped "He's a lady." NANCY WYNNE.
