HOFFNER'S LEFT HOOK SENDS GOLF TILT TO NINETEENTH

Local Champion Has Narrow Squeak—Clarey and Reynolds Shine—Lots of Time, Pop, Protests Willie Jones

By SANDY MENIBLICK. GEORGE HOFFNER, amateur golf champion of Philadelphia, had a marvelous left hook which nearly spelled his ruin yesterday in the opening game of the men's links season...

Clarey had all the spotlight yesterday. He was driving one of the longest balls of his life and the only possible fault to find with his game was an occasional approach putt that left him a hard one to sink...

MIKE O'DOWD FIRST TO FLATTEN K. O. BROWN

Chicago Greek Never Was Knocked Off His Feet Until Ex-Champion Put Over Sleep-Producing Wallop in Sixth

They all go, sooner or later! Opponents, including champions and some of the leading middleweights in the world, found that the first twelve years were the hardest in which to take a fall out of Knockout George Brown...

Use to Train Mike. "O'Dowd," continued Brown, "must be some puncher. But you can't prove it by me. I never felt the wallop. All I know is that everything suddenly grew dark, and the next thing that came to me was some one shouting 'eight' in my ear. I tried to get up, you know I did, but it couldn't be done. I was out, feel all right now. Tell me, how did he do it?"

Dusty ring records give evidence that several hundred middleweights failed to insert "ed" in the prefix of the knockout-proof Greek...

O'Dowd Some Puncher. "And to think," Brown also said, "that it was a former sparring partner."

Both Phils and A's are in seventh place, getting to be like old times.

The Phils have it on A's by two games. They've each lost fifteen games. The Macks have won nine and the Cravathians eleven.

The Red Sox walloped Clevelers for Louisa and just managed to close for a 5-3 victory.

Stanley Czerwik blanked the Yanks with six hits, but they failed to face the Phils in the second round.

Don Johnson is giving Joe Jackson a great battle in the batting race. Don had two out of four yesterday.

Dave Bancroft was more than half of the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday.

The champion Reds haven't been able to swing into action for two days. It's not in the cards.
