

METHODISTS PLAN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

General Conference Asked to Parallel Public Educational System

DAILY TEACHING ADVISED

By the Associated Press
Des Moines, Ia., May 21.—Establishment of a religious educational school system at every point is planned in a report presented by the committee on Sunday schools to the Methodist Episcopal general conference in session here. The report asks that exclusive jurisdiction be given to the committee in the matter of week-day religious education.

The latest plan for unification of the Methodist Episcopal churches North and South, considered by a special committee of the general conference last night, suggests a joint general convention, to be composed of not less than 200 and not more than 400, one-half to be laymen and one-half to be ministers. Before this body would be laid all plans for unification.

It is proposed that no plan be submitted which does not have the entire approval of the representatives of each church. The Methodist Church South is asked to determine the exact num-

DROPS OF MAGIC! CORNS LIFT OUT

So simple! Drop a little Freezone on a touchy corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it off with the fingers. No pain! Try it.

A few cents buys a tiny bottle of Freezone at any drug store. This is sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, also all calluses, and without the slightest soreness or irritation. It doesn't hurt at all! Freezone is the much talked of, magic elixir discovery of the Cincinnati genius. So easy.

WORLD MOVEMENT PRAISED IN SYNOD

George W. Richards, in the chair, the following were elected: First vice president, A. B. Brodbeck, of Hanover; second vice president, the Rev. Henry C. Nott, of Milwaukee; corresponding secretary, the Rev. Howard Obold; reading clerk, the Rev. John D. Bloom, of St. Joseph, Mo. The stated clerk, the Rev. James Bauch Stein, of Wilkes-Barre; assistant stated clerk, the Rev. F. W. Leich, of Cleveland, and roll clerk, the Rev. Samuel H. Stein, of York, retained their offices.

Reformed Church Convocation at Reading Completes Election of Officers

Reading, May 21.—The second day of the triennial meeting of General Synod of the Reformed Church of the United States began with the synodical celebration of Holy Communion at the Second Reformed Church yesterday. This was conducted by Dr. A. S. Weber, of Baltimore; Dr. C. B. Schneider, of Shamokin; and Dr. Ellis N. Kroner, of Harrisburg.

WORLD MOVEMENT PRAISED IN SYNOD

The work of the day was more in the nature of routine reports from committees and appointment of new committees. The question of union with the Presbyterian Church North was referred to a special committee made up of the Revs. A. S. Weber, J. Calvin Fisher and Franks S. Bromer, and Elders Harry Spangler and C. C. Davidson.

Reformed Church Convocation at Reading Completes Election of Officers

The evening session was devoted to the topic, "The Forward Movement—Its Results and Its Opportunities." Addresses were made by Dr. C. E. Greig, chairman of the forward movement; Dr. C. E. Miller and Dr. Joseph H. Apple, executive secretary of the forward movement.
