Urges Political Work "It has often been said the men we put in power do not truly represent their constituents. This is not true. They do represent that part of their constituents who have taken a part in politics and helped put them in office. If you want your beliefs and feelings expressed in the laws, you must take an active part in political life.

"We must see to it that the officials who are elected and appointed to take part in the government of our comwealth and country truly represent dominant sentiment of the people. D HILADELPHIANS have always been interested in the furniture of the Colonial periods. Many of us treasure pieces that hark back to pre-Revolutionary days. Mayhap, we have a grand-father's clock made by Bailey's in the days when purchasers from outof-town arrived in stage coaches. Those of us who do treasure one of these clocks marvel at the accuracy with which it has told off the hours through so many years. These hall clocks are just as much sought after today as they were 200 years ago, for they possess true dignity and beauty. HE window of Henry R. Hallowell & Son's store, Broad street below Chestnut, is announcing this week the arrival of those luscious dark-red Cherries from California. No wonder they attract so much attention from passers-by, for they certainly look tempting, and are even more delicious than they look. Strawberries from New Jersey, the first to arrive from that state, are now at Hallowell's, too. The Gift Baskets of Fruit look more charm-ing than ever, the cherries lending an interesting touch of color here and there. If you are leaving town in the near future, you will be glad to know that Hallowell's make a specialty of week-end shipments of fruit on Fridays to out-of-town points. This plan is one which will recommend itself to the thoughtful a charming individuality.
