BIOGRAPHIES OF FAMOUS AMERICANS—FICTION LIPPINCOTT

NEW BOOKS PRAISING WOOD. ROOSEVELT AND WILSON

John J. Leary Jr.'s Diary of T. R.'s Private Conversations Made Public-A Southerner on the President and a Campaign Biography

nany things were said that could not be published at the time, but which revealed a point of view that is most illuminating when read now. Besides, the colonel said many things about men in public life that would have made trouble if they had been printed at the time they were uttered.

instead of thinking all the time whether what he did would help him get the presidential nomination. And Mayor Mitchel was defeated for re-election because he lost contact with the people. The colonel told Mitchel of the mistakes he was making but his did. mistakes he was making, but his advice was not taken and the opposition, which characterized Mitchel as the mayor of Fifth avenue, succeeded in defeating him largely on that issue. Secretary Baker was a weakling, unfitted for his post in the War Department, but was just the kind of a man the President liked to have about him. He would agree with the President and if the President changed his mind Baker would change his own mind at Baker would change his own mind at once. He had no positive views on his duties and responsibilities or, if he had, was incapable of fighting for them. Mr. Leary tells how the break between Taft and Roosevelt came about and describes the delight of the colonel when Taft found him in a Chicago hotel and greeted him heartily and agreed with him in densuciation of the vaciliating policy in Wachington vacillating policy in Washington. There is no more intimate picture of There is no more intimate picture of Rooseveit than this which Mr. Leary has given. It is filled with characteristic Rooseveltisms and is written with a fine appreciation of the significance Robert Gordon Anderson in "Leader of Men" has produced a little book very different from that of Mr. Leary. It is a tribute to the greatness of Roosevelt, his humanity, his courses and his versity of Chicago, is a southerner, and, whether he is a Democrat or not, he is an ardent admirer of Wilson and of the torthern state." writes Professor Dodd, "its support in the South seemed secure. But this meant that the older and more rigid protestant parts of the country. the conservative, native-born, English-speaking groups of the composite nation, would be aligned behind the new regime. That itself was an offense, as every one saw from the importance attached by the Hughes campaign managers in 1916.

TALKS WITH T. R. From the diaries of John J. Leary Jr. Boston: Houghton Mif-din Co. 33.50. LEADER OF MEN. By Robert Gorden An-derson. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

e sectional issue. It must be said, in justice to the authat he has made a very comprehensive story of the six or seven years included in the administration of Mr. Wilson as President, as well as a suf-Wilson as President, as well as a suf-

IN MEMORIAM

Deaths

years ago. Aside from its relation to the political campaign, the book is an inspiring story of achievement typically American, for it shows how a man by sheer merit can force himself upward from the mass and win the recognition of the world. Mr. Holme has given us nothing not known before. He has merely put the story into an entertainmerely put the story into an entertaining narrative.

A fifth book about General Wood, which is so thin that it hardly deserves to be called a book at all, is by Herman Hagedorn. He calls it "That Human Being, Leonard Wood," and in it he has attempted with distinguished success to present a picture of the man. The story of how General Wood settled the labor trouble in Gary is told settled.

the labor trouble in Gary is told so fully chough to fall in love, too, with the that it ought to be instructive to every executive officer charged with the duty of keeping order. Those who do not wish to spend the time to read the larger volumes will find in Mr. Hagedorn's how the hero and the girl's, efforts to book just that picture of the man for which they have been seeking. which they have been seeking. THAT HUMAN BEING, LEONARD WOOD, By Herman Hagedorn, New York: Har conomy at Yale University, is confident that he has discovered a plan for solving the problem of the high cost of living. His plan, if it were adopted, his humanity, his courage and his un-adulterated Americanism. It is neither, biographical nor anecdotal, but is ap-preciative in the best meaning of the are responsible for the variation in the ALKS WITH T. R. From the diaries of John J. Leary, Jr. Boston: Houghton Miffilm Co. 53.50.

By Herman Hagedorn. New York: Harf-court, Brace & Howe. THE LIFE OF LEONARD WOOD. By John G. Hoime. Garden City: Doubleday, Page

EADER OF MEN. By Robert Gorden Anderson. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.

Southern View of Wilson

After reading Professor Dodd's book on President Wilson one cannot help wondering whether the President is mount of a group of commodities purchased with this sont of an undiscrimi-leased with this sont of an undiscrimi-lish in its place a system by which a lish in its place a system by which a lish in its place a system by which a rative of a sort of personal biography

South. Both predispositions color every page of his marrative—a narrative which he announces in the preface "is designed to be a brief history of recent times as well as a chronicle of a great times as well as a chronicle of a great career." His attitude toward the South is indicated in the course of his discussion of the kind of support which Mr. Wilson had reason to expect from his to the amount of gold paid in redemption of the dollar reduced by the same amount. There would have the amount of gold paid in redemption of the dollar reduced by the same amount. There would be readjustments cannot reduce the support which Mr. Wilson had reason to expect from his foother state." Writes Professor Dodd. every two weeks of the amount of gold to be paid for a dollar certificate. He gives an elaborate argument to support the feasibility of the plan, and quotes distinguished authorities who agree with him. The best, however, that this re-viewer can say of the project is that it is an interesting attempt to devise a way by which to overcome the inevitable fluctuations in value of the various commodities in common use and to pre-serve the purchasing power of a fixed

SPRINGTIDE FICTION OF VARIED APPEAL

Which is by no means rare in American life, though it is seldom so well novelized as by Jennie Irene Mix. The beroine is a girl with a musical talent which is smothered in the boom town of her origin. So she migrates as near as she can to the Metropolitan Opera House, Carnegie Hall and the artistic congeries of Manhattan. Her experiences there, her reactions to culture and cults, her endeavors to remove the various impeding bushels from her talent, are told with a nice sense of proportion and glinting humor. Miss Mix apparently knows the life. She is not "kidded" by pseudo-geniuses, but she is tolerant in her attitudes. And she has written a most knowing of them is Jackson Greg. a Campaign Biography

John J. Leary, Jr., has written a book about Colonel Roosevelt which is invaluable to all those who wish to understand the course of American politics in recent years. Mr. Leary, who has been an editorial writer on the Boston Post, the New York Tribune and the New York World, knew Mr. Roosevelt intimately for many years. He kept a series of notebooks, in which he wrote down accounts of his conversations with the colonel, in the course of which many things were said that could not be published at the time, but which with colonel said many things about men the colonel said many things about the survey of the years the ficiently complete survey of the years the followed the carried for the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. James Oliver Curwood, and Peter B. Kyne, the Southwest is not far behind in its fictional celebrators. One of the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. Kyne, the Southwest is not far behind in its fictional celebrators. One of the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. Kyne, the Southwest is not far behind in its fictional celebrators. One of the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. Kyne, the Southwest is not far behind in its fictional celebrators. One of the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. Kyne, the Southwest is not far behind in its fictional celebrators. One of the fuller discussion of the career of Mr. K of action. And the action is not sugar-coated by the style at that.

Edgar Wallace, who has written a

For example, if what he thought of Hughes had been printed in 1916, every below the developed in the country would have shouted with glee, yet the colonel supported Hughes for the presidency. He supported Governor Whitman and Mayor Mitchel in New York, but he was not under any illusions about them. Whitman migot have had the presidency for the presidency in the country to world fame of instead of the business of being governor instead of the business of being governor instead of the business of being governor instead of thinking all the boy born in New England fifty-nine in the country to world fame of the business of being governor instead of thinking all the boy born in New England fifty-nine instead of thinking all the boy born in New England fifty-nine instead of thinking all the boy born in New England fifty-nine in the country who has written a lot of them, has surpassed himself as a conspiracy which has for its purpose nothing less than the wrecking of the world. The title with the year of the with the structure to the surpassed himself as a conspiracy which has for its purpose nothing less than the wrecking of the world. The title with the year of the with the structure to the surpassed himself as a conspiracy which has for its purpose nothing less than the wrecking of the world. The title with the Turks. An engaging and enthal the wrecking of the world. The title with the Turks. An engaging and enthal the wrecking of the world. The title with the Turks. An engaging and enthal the wrecking of the world. The title with the Turks. An engaging and enthal the wrecking of the world. The title with the wrecking of the world. The title with the truk.

The hero resourceful, intrepid, and there is a hero, resourceful, intrepid, and developed than is customary in th for the presidency it will not be for lack of campaign biographies. Four lives of the distinguished general have already come from the press. The latest is by John G. Holme, a Washington newspaper writer. Mr. Holme in 225 pages has told the romantic story of the rise from obscurity to world fame of the boy born in New England fifty-nine years ago. Aside from its relation to the political campaign, the book is an inspiring story of achievement typically afternance of the story, a somewhat different sort of description. The situations in Wads.

If Leonard Wood is not nominated for the pression of the with the Turks. An engaging and enthralling story is this. Serious touch, too, concerning the hardisold of the Armenians in their conflict with the Turks. An engaging and enthralling story is this.

THE EYE OF ZEITOON. By Talbot Munday. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill Co. AT FAME'S GATEWAY. By Jennie 1. Mix. New York: Horry Holt & Co. Reen Rust. Brown & Co. The Boston: Little, Brown & Co. The Boston: Little, Brown & Co. GREEN Rust. By Edgar Wallace, Boston: Small. Maynard & Co. The Bellas Of San Juan. By Jackson Gresory. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons.

story, a somewhat different sort of de-tective thriller. The detective in Wadsworth Camp's new novel is not an in fallible Hawkshaw, not a 100 per cent ratiocinative Holmes. He is a human being who does something not at all customary in sleuth fiction—he makes mistakes. As somebody says about him, he has a boy's heart under his badge. This is a nice angle of approach for a detective story, since many boyish hearts are anxious to have badges over them, and in lieu of that to read the exploits of eletectives. He is human apough to fall in love too, with the terrorism entangle and finally are straightened out forms the basis and straintened out forms the basis and substance of an adroitly told detective of his tales of sport life. They have story.

story.

B. M. Bower's gifts of intimate compathetic insight into western character Stable Prices

Irving Fisher, professor of political conomy at Yale University, is condent that he has discovered a plan for colving the problem of the high cost of conditions. relieving sentiment which is not sugary or mawkish. The locale is a part of Idaho where the terrain is shut in by desert waste and mountain ranges. A feud, business and social, between two families, one a somewhat reformed "bad" family, with some stigma yet,

The Presbyterian Book Store Everything Desirable in Books

WITHERSPOON BLDG... Walnut, Juniper and Sansom Sta. Elevator to 2nd Floor

Indispensable Book

Jackson's Philadelphia Year Book for 1920. Enlarged and Includes New Charter. Philadelphia's Standard Book of Reference. Used in Leading Industrial and Financial establishments. the Philadelphia School

JOSEPH JACKSON, Publisher Real Estate Trust Building

invited to funeral on Tuesday, at 8:30 a.m., from parents' residence, 1625 Point Breeze ave. Solemm requiem mass at 8t. Edmond's Church at 10 a.m. Interment New Cathedral Compters.

PATTERSON.—At Berwyn, Pa., May 20, SOPHIE V., widow of Samuel D. Patterson. Services and interment at Westminater Ceme-tery, Monday, May 24, at 1:30 p. m.

HENDERSON.—In affectionate memory of BELAIDE C. HENDERSON, who on May 22, 1919, entered into life eternal. Requisecat to page. WILIAM H. HENDERSON. J. Interment private.
GREEN.—At his home, 4019 Baltimore ave. May 21. ROBERT McCAY GREEN.
Further notice of the funeral will be siven.
HAUSSMAN—May 29. FREDERICK C., husband of Anna Haussman (nee McLaushlin) and son of Marie Haussman, ared 24.
Relatives and friends invited to funeral services, Monday, 2 p. m., residence, 2013 Amber st. Interment private. Greenmount Cometery. Remains viewed Sunday evening. ARNOLD.—May 20, CONRAD, husband of stree Hannah E. Arnold. Relatives and strey.

Finds invited to funeral services, Manday.

D. m. residence of his son, 3344 Jasper.

Friends may call Sunday, after S. p. m. disment Northwood Cometery. tery. Remains viewed Sunday evening.

HOPKINS.—May 19. MARGARET, wife of Horace S. Hokkins and daughter of Henry and late Mary A. Morrow. Relatives and late Saturday, after 6 p. m.

Saturday, after 6 p. m.

ECKER — May 21. ELIZABETH A.
ECKER — May 21. ELIZABETH A.
EMPT of Chas, and Bridget Becker, aftires and friends, B. V. M. Sodality of actives and friends, B. V. M. Sodality of actives and friends, B. V. M. Sodality of actives and friends, B. V. M. Sodality of freedry's and all other church societies, lied to funeral Tuesday, 7:30 a. n. 5521
Mary Humma, aged 81. Relatives and Mary Humma, aged 81. Relatives and friends invited to attend funeral, Tuesday, for Schurch, 9. a.
M. Interment St.
Ser's Cemetery, Belleville, N. J. Newark
J. and Syracuse (N. Y.) papers copy.

BISHOP — Nass Delatico, N. J. May 20,

RISHOP — Nass Delatico, N. J. May 20,

ENTRA PROPRIEM TO COMPANY HISHOP—Neag, Delainco, N. J., May 20, HENJAMIN F. BISHOP, aged 82. Relatives and friends invited to funeral services, Sunday, 1 p. m., Coopertown Church Interment Coopertown Church Interment Coopertown Camben at Heverly, N. J. BUCKLEY.—May 21, JOHN H., husband for Lizzie A. C. Buckley, Funeral services, Sunday, S. M. Trolley from Camben at Heverly, N. J. BUCKLEY.—May 21, JOHN H., husband from his late residence, 218 E. Markhall st., N. M. Skodilles are invited to fundamental Monday. S. So a. m., late residence, 218 E. Markhall st., N. M. Skodilles are invited to fundamental Monday. S. So a. m., late residence, 218 E. Markhall st., Sundamental Monday. S. So a. m., late residence, 218 E. Markhall st., Sundamental Monday. S. So a. M. Hushall St., Markhall St., Sundamental Planchet St., Markhall St., Markhall St., Sundamental Planchet St., Sundamental Planchet St., Markhall St., Sundamental Planchet St., Markhall St., Markhall St., Sundamental Planchet St., Markhall St., Markhall St., Sundamental Planchet Planchet St., Markhall St., Markhal AMPRELL.—May 20, THURZA J. wife don S. Campbell. Services Monday 3 announcement of funeral later, from 639 N. ARTWRIGHT.—May 20, CHAPI is 7 of Alf. 18 of AMPRELL.—May 20, THURZA J., wile Jos S. Campbell Services Monday 3 m., 3500 vine st. Interment private.

ARTWRIGHT.—May 20, CHARLES I., 1 of Alfred and Bessle Cartwright (nee Morthy). Relatives and friends invited to heral, Monday, 8:30 a, m., from parents sidence, 215 W. Columbia ave. Solemn quiem mass, 8t, Michael's Church 10 s. m. iterment New Cathedral Cemetery. ARTWRIGHT—May 20. CHARLES I., son of Alfred and Bessle Cartwright (nee Mocarthy). Relatives and friends invited to fuseral, Monday, 8:30 a.m., from parents' residence, 215 W. Columbia ave. Solemn requism mass, St. Michael's Church 10 s.m. Interment New Cathedral Cemstery.

CHANDLER — May 21. FLORENCE S., Minday of D. Woelpper Chandler. Services on dense of Charles J. Webb, Ashbourne road, Eikins Park, Pa. Interment private, CURLEY—May 20. WILLIAM J., son of the late John and Mary Curley. Fineral, 40. Which relatives, friends, and White Lifty Social are invited, Monday, 8 s.m., residence of his slater, Winifred Dillon, 232 Gertilt at Mass of requism Church of Sacred Haarl 9:30 a.m. precisely. Interment Holy DOUGERY.—May 20, JAMES, husband of Mary Curley. Fineral, 40. Which relatives. Friends and White Lifty Social are invited, Monday, 8 s.m., residence of his slater, Winifred Dillon, 232 Gertilt at Mass of requism Church of Sacred Haarl 9:30 a.m. precisely. Interment Holy DOUGERY.—May 20, JAMES, husband of Mary Curley. Firends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday, after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday after 7 p. m. terms of Mary Curley. Friends may call Friday. A. May Curley

Heart 230 a. p. precisely. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

The process of the pro

E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Av., N. Y.

LEONARD MERRICK'S

Van Loan's Yarns of Fistiana

baseball short stories ever penned are those in "Score By Innings" and the "Old Man Curray" series are splendid yarns of the track. His posthumous volume, "Taking the Count," is a rich and recondite record of happenings in the squared circle. In style and form, in all the externals of short fiction, these readable pieces are sharply clean-cut, bristling with the racy humor of the ring and its hand-picked, richly colored language. But beneath the sur-face it is the homely frailties and virtues of mankind that are the design on which Mr. Van Loan weaves the threads personages and environment.

TAKING THE COUNT. By Charles E. Van
Loan. New York: George H. Doran Co.

Theda Bara as "The Woman'

The dramatic rights to T. Everett Harre's sensational novel, "Behold the

The new "Dere Mable" book .

"AS YOU WERE, BILL!"

By EDWARD STREETER

"Dere Mable's" Bill at home again, a simple citizen—and simpler than ever—writes Mable sil about his job-hunting troubles. As usual, he takes the situation by the horns and his resulting business career is full of dash and go—mostly go. Net $1.00

STOKES, Publisher

minima to function in Tuesday, at $300 a.m. from narents' residence. 1025 Point Breeze ave. Solemn requiem mass at $1. Edmond's drail Central a.m. interment New Cathedral Central Monica's Church at 10 a. m. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery, SHAFTO.—May 21, HATTIE ESTELLE wife of T. Milton Shafto. Relatives and

Engineering and Technical Books Philadelphia Book Company 17 South 9th Street

Cernatery: Remains may be viewed Monday evening.

WOOD.—Suddenly, May 20. GEORGE W. husband of Mary P. Wood. Relatives and friends, also Harmony Lodge, No. 52. F. and A. M. St. John's Lodge, No. 29. Artisans of America, and employes of Western Union Telegraph Co., invited to funeral services. Tuesday, 11. a. m. wheel of Andrew

BETTY

THE ORIENT IN

BIBLE TIMES

By ELIHU GRANT

Professor at Haverford College

ing a wonderful and historically accurate panorama of the Ori-ental world—its peoples, civilization and history during Bible times. This work is very com-

THE BOOK

OF COURAGE

By JOHN T. FARIS, $1.50 net stirs one to action. The advice is age is, an essence of life itself.

This is a dynamic book. It plete. Illustrated, $2.50 net.

A fascinating volume, present

EXIT

By GRACE LIVINGSTON HILL

Betty Stanhope is one of the most appealing characters that the author of "The Best Man," "The Enchanted Barn," etc., has created. Faced with the problem One reader aptly termed this "a sunshine story." It is filled with happiness and good deeds. Every girl from nine to ninety will read and of marrying the wrong man, she recommend it. The story disappears just before the marriage ceremony is to take place. Thereafter follows a series of enswings along with all the gusto that real people put thralling incidents until the tan-gle of her life is straightened into life. It will appeal to

THE EASTERN QUESTION AND ITS SOLUTION

By MORRIS JASTROW, JR., Ph. D., LL. D. $1.50 net.
This is the book of the hour on one of the most absorbing problems before the Allies at this time. Professor Jastrow is an authority on the ancient and modern East. His discussion of the question is timely. He shows the reason for the failure of the European policies, and gives an illuminating survey of the present situation.

THE GLOSS OF YOUTH

everyone. $1.60 net.

"Sunshine Book"

By JANE ABBOTT

HAPPY

HOUSE

A.B., Litt.D. Editor of the New Variorum Edition of the Works of William Shakespeare.

Ornamental Boards. Paper Label.

This is a delightful one-act play dealing with an imaginary incident in the lives of Shakespeare and John Fletcher. It presents a phase of the moods of the immortal poet which may well be a true picture. It has been accepted for presentation at the Shakespeare festival at Stratford-on-Avon for August, 1920. The acting rights are owned by Otis Skinner. This play will be Otis Skinner. This play will welcomed by students and admirers of Shakespeare everywhere.

practical. The many story illustrations apt and to the point. The author shows truly how cour-

-AT ALL BOOKSTORES-

Three Women Tangled His Fate

Polly Le Brun, the gangster's daughter; Rachel Stetheril, the capitalist, and-well, when three women have a part in the destiny of a man, it's sure to be interesting. It's fascinating in Harre's sersational novel, "Behold the Woman" (Lippincotts), have just been acquired by A. H. Woods, in which he will star Miss Theda Bara next season. Mr. Woods announces a stupendous spectacular stage production. It is understood that the price paid Mr. Harre for the outright dramatic and motion picture rights is one of the highest ever paid an American author. Ladyfingers

A vivid story told by a master story teller,

Jackson Gregory

If a good book can bring you relaxation and entertainment, be sure and get it.

At Bookstores Everywhere.

Illustrated. $1.75.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Publishers, FIFTH AVE., AT 48th St., NEW YORK

The Cresting Wave

By Edwin Bateman Morris

The story of a man who made money his god. He was looked on as a big man. Then a girl called him a pigmy—and proved it. And he found what was wrong with himself and

There is a love element, humor, a big shipwreck, and all in sprightly style. At all booksellers. Jacket in Colore $1.75

THE PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA

The TIN SOLDIER

By Temple Bailey Liked by Everybody

At all bookstores PENN PUBLISHING CO., Philadelphia

LE LIVRE CONTEMPORAIN a magazine devoted Sent free on application.

SCHOENHOF BOOK CO. 5 Beacon St. Boston, Mase.

-JAÇOBS 1628 BOOKS CHESTNUT STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING "HEET HE AT JACOBS"

Headquarters For

BLASCO Woman

Triumphant

$2.15 at all bookstores

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 631 5th Av., N. Y.

NOVELS BY Blasco Ibanez

the keenest observer, the most powerful analyst of character among living writers of fletion.

Woman Triumphant Mare Nostrum The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse Blood and Sand The Shadow of the Cathedral La Bodega

Each, $2.15 E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Ave., N.Y.

"I know of no other instance in which such really beautiful poetry has been written by a child," says
Miss Amy Lowell

HILDA CONKLING'S POEMS BY

old. "Probative no other book of the season will stimulate a greater interest and certainly none will hold the reader in dearer, enchantment. Readers will be glad of the book, not only because it was written by a child but because it contains beautiful poetry." Marguerite Wil-kinson in N. Y. Pimes.

Net $1.50 / STOKES, Publisher

Tarzan Fans -Attention! By Edgar Rice Burroughs The famous "ape-man" bids fair to rank with the great heroes of 'ancient legend in the affections of readers. Here's the latest Tarzan story—the best yet. The marvelous instincts, the superhuman cunning and brute strength of the jungle are marshalled against the "frightfulness" of modern warfare. At all Bookstores-Now A. C. McClurg & Co.

The Most Talked of Book of the Day

Publishers

MAY WRIGHT SEWALL'S

Amazing Psychic Experience

NEITHER DEAD OR SLEEPING

BOOTH TARKINGTON says:

As I read, it seemed to me that I had never known so strange a story. One amazing thing was that it was written by Mrs. Sewall. It was to me dumbfounding to find that for more than twenty years this academic-liberal of a thousand activities, May Wright Sewall, has been really living not with the living, so to put it.

At All Booksellers The BOBBS-MERRILL Co., Publishers

You'll find here

T. R.'s opinions of Wilson and his Cabinet, Leonard Wood,

Hughes, Taft, prohibition, religion, the campaign of 1920, etc., given with absolute candor and with all of T. R.'s downright vigor of expres-

"I VOUCH FOR JOHN J. LEARY ABSOLUTELY."-THEODORE ROOSEVELT

TALKS WITH

From the Diaries of JOHN J. LEARY, JR.

Here is a book that will stand out from the entire field of Roosevelt literature for its vividness, freshness and authenticity. It's just like talking with T. R. himself to read his colorful, unconventional comments as set down in the note book of a friend to whom he confided with absolute frankness his candid opinion of men and events. If you want to know the real Roosevelt. read TALKS WITH T. R.

Illus. 8.50 net HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY 4 PARK ST. BOSTON 8

The Treasure Isle of Mist

An exquisite fantasy contrived with delicious humor, with a lovable heroine who has "a warm heart and a largish size in shoes"-a tale of utmost charm which is to the Hebrides what Stephens' "Crock of Gold" is to the Green Isles. "Its dry humor—the beauty of its language—and the poetry of its thought would impress any sensitive nature, young or old."-Manchester Guardian.

At All Booksellers, $1.90 net

NEW YORK West 45th St., Just West of 5th Ave. G. P. Putnam's Sons

24 Bedford St., Strand.

Hannah Bye

By Harrison S. Morria

A clever picture of Quaker life in a present-day com-munity. The life of Hannah Bye, a sweet but courageous Quakeress, is filled with strange happenings by contact with the "careless, sinful outside world." At all booksellers

THE PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY

PHILADELPHIA

A LITTLE GIRL Verse by a little girl eight years old. "Probably no other book of the season will stimulate book of