

WOOD GOT TEUTON PLOT AGAINST N. Y.

General Flashed German Plans for Attack on City in Von Papan's Face

ENVOY WARNED OF U. S.

By the Associated Press
 Berlin, May 24.—"If you do not succeed in keeping the United States out of the enemy coalition, you will have lost the war."
 Captain Franz von Papan, formerly German military attaché at Washington, made that statement to General von Falkenhayn, chief of the German general staff, early in 1916, after Von Papan's recall from Washington.
 Von Papan, according to his evidence before a secret session of the recent parliamentary commission of inquiry, and only now made public, informed the chief of staff he was of the same opinion politically as Count von Bernstorff on the American situation, that tremendous material and moral assets were at the disposal of the United States. "But," continued Von Papan, "These were so imperfectly appraised here I deemed it necessary to enlighten German public opinion concerning them."
 The military attaché obtained the consent of Von Falkenhayn, foreign secretary, to appear before the German editors for the purpose of informing them on the German attitude, but Major Nicoll, chief of the American espionage division of the general staff, opposed the plan.
 In the spring of 1915, General von Falkenhayn, wrote to Captain von Papan, then at Washington, that "if you succeed in measurably restricting American deliveries of war materials to the Entente until the end of 1915, we will in all probability have won the war."
 Captain von Papan declared that he directed his efforts to that end.
 After detailing the plans to secure a corner in war materials in the United States, control factories, divert labor and prevent munitions from reaching the Entente, Von Papan said that the chief of staff, Albert's portfolio containing outlines of the scheme brought the secret into the Entente's possession.
 In the course of further evidence Von Papan touched on the alleged neutral attitude of official quarters in Washington, the American courts and political circles and declared that the British military attaché was permitted to operate unmolested and given the support of official quarters and the American Secret Service.
 Wood Apprised of Plot
 "General Wood once asked me to call on him at Governors Island," Von Papan testified. "He was very cordial and smilingly told me several persons have called on me and given me a detailed plan of a plot which you, Captain von Papan, are supposed to have worked out. The scheme provides for the landing of German U. boats at New York, which would then proceed to blow up the subway tunnels and the city's water mains. We have your complete plans, where you propose to place your explosives and what points you will attack. Complete evidence is in my possession, either that he either was shot down by the enemy or forced to land inside the Bolshevik lines."

HUNGARY LIFTS BAN TONIGHT

Public Will Then Be Told of Decision to Sign Treaty

WON'T QUIT SIBERIA

By the Associated Press
 Budapest, May 24.—(By A. P.)—Publication of the Hungarian Government's answer to the Peace Conference, in which it declared it would sign the treaty of peace, has been withheld until tonight and the public is still ignorant of the government's intention. Newspapers were asked not to print this news because it would affect the festivities incident to Whitsuntide.
 Meanwhile, editorials preparing the public for the unpleasant news are being printed in leading newspapers. They declare Hungary is under compulsion and cannot oppose the big powers, and assert that neighboring countries are concentrating troops along the frontier. Polish forces and the army have been re-enforced in case the news results in outbreaks.
CONDITIONS TOO UNSETTLED
 Telsno, May 20 (delayed)—(By A. P.)—The Empress of Russia, still too unsettled to permit the withdrawal of Japanese forces from Siberia, said the imperial address read by the Empress at the annual meeting of the Japanese Red Cross today.
 "Continuing the address said the general condition of the world was such as to make it impossible to foretell its future development."
 "It is, therefore, highly desirable," the address added, "that the society redouble its efforts in formulating plans best suited to the demands of the times."
 "Due to the emperor's illness, the Empress read the address."
McCORMACK BACKS COX
 Former Chairman Says McAdoo Carries "Crown Prince" Handicap
 New York, May 24.—(By A. P.)—McCormack, formerly chairman of the Democratic national committee, issued a statement yesterday in which he analyzed the qualifications of the various Democratic aspirants for the presidency and placed his seal of approval on Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio. Mr. McCormack said if William G. McAdoo were nominated he would carry into the campaign the handicap of the "crown prince" of the party and that it would give the Republicans an opportunity to "say something along the line of the creation of an American empire."

OLIVER PLUNKETT BEATIFIED BY POPE

Irish Archbishop Who Was Executed in 1681 Proclaimed Blessed at Rome

SECOND CANONIZING STEP

Rome, May 24.—Oliver Plunkett, the Irish archbishop, who was executed for treason by the British at Tyburn in 1681, yesterday was elevated to the ranks of the beatified by the pope.
 The ceremony of beatification, the second step toward canonization, took place in the basilica of St. Peter's, its place instead of the smaller hall of beatification, where such rites usually occur.
 Cardinal Merry del Val, archbishop of St. Peter's, and the officers of the beatification took their places near the high altar as the ceremony began. The mellow light of hundreds of candles and electric lights illuminated the basilica, and the summer sunshine streamed down through ancient glass windows, making more glorious the brilliant scene. In the congregation were Count and Countess George Plunkett representing the family of the archbishop, Sir Thomas Grattan Esmond and family, Dean O'Connell, member of the Irish parliament, and the vice mayor and members of the municipal council of Dublin.
 It had been originally announced the mass would be celebrated by Archbishop Haly, of Birmingham, but Irish bishops objected to the choice of an Englishman for the service, and Monsignor Pietro Paolo, canon of St. Peter's Church, officiated. Monsignor Hagan, rector of the Irish College, delivered to the Pope, in the name of the postulants, a reliquary containing fragments of the bones of Archbishop Plunkett. This reliquary was a replica of the shrine which contains the bell of St. Patrick in Dublin.
 The Papal Bull announcing the beatification was read, the relics were exposed, and a Te Deum was chanted. Then the curtain before the picture of the archbishop was withdrawn, and the bell of St. Peter's rang out the tidings, being answered by peals from other churches throughout the city.
 Yesterday afternoon there was a greater concourse when Pope Benedict, in the midst of gorgeously robed and uniformed dignitaries and attendants of the Vatican, visited the Basilica and inspected the reliquary. The ceremony closed with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by the pontiff.
 It was really "Irish day" at the Vatican, the only thing not mentioned of Ireland being the weather. Rome is suffering just now from a burst of summer heat, but the oppressiveness of the day was relieved by a shower.
 Cardinal Logue, the octogenarian primate of all Ireland, headed the list of distinguished ecclesiastical present.

WON'T RUN POLICE TRAIN

Irish Engineer Refuses to Aid Roads Are Blocked

SHOOT LAUNCH'S CREW

Ballinamore, County Leitrim, Ireland, May 24.—(By A. P.)—After three men had been caught raiding a house near here for arms Saturday, and remanded to the Sligo jail, the engine driver of the train on which the police intended to transport the men declined to move the train.
 The police were forced to keep the prisoners here until yesterday, when a military lorry was sent for. Every road into Ballinamore by then had barricaded with trees or stone obstructions and the lorry had the greatest difficulty getting into and out of the town.
Pleasantville Pastor to Quit
 Atlantic City, May 24.—The Rev. Henry E. Jones, formerly of Philadelphia, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Pleasantville, surprised his flock Sunday by announcing that he will terminate his pastorate on September 15. The Rev. Mr. Evans stated he could not decline a call extended to him by the commission on evangelism of the General Assembly to engage in evangelistic work. Before going to Pleasantville the Rev. Mr. Jones was pastor of the Addison Henry Memorial Church, Sixty-fifth street, Philadelphia.

Do you give bonuses to your employees?

In SYSTEM for June is an article entitled "Adding a handshake to the bonus." The bonus idea is quite common now; so common that many employees, after a while, take the bonus as a matter of course.

A handshake from the "boss" isn't much in itself, but when it goes with the bonus, it makes both of them seem more important.

Read about it in SYSTEM for June

Here's a general manager who did. Saving 42 per cent on routine work. A big saving where saving counts. Seven buyers a salesman meets. Practical points by a leading sales manager.
