A NUMBER of Philadelphians have gone over to New York to the races, and one may say the Long Island special has begun. The Joe Widener has been stopping at the Ritz in New York and attending the races, and Mrs. Widener's gowns have attracted much attention.

ward's mother, and Mrs. Stanley Flag, Jr., and ever so many others. Mrs. George Lorimer has charge of this afternoon's affair, and special invitations were sent to the guests.

HAVE you heard about "A Day in June," the party which is to be given out at the Chestnut Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary on Saturday evening, June 19?

"Well, auntie is tired, dear, and so she is resting a while and then she'll take a bath before dinner," exclaimed Edith, "you MUST be tired."

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Among the girls who will appear as models in this interesting feature will be the two Glendinning, Rebecca Thomson, Margaretta Jeanes, Mary LaSalle, Marian Baird, Loraine Diston, Elizabeth Brockle, Muriel Bishop, Anne Ashton, Georgianna Harris, Sally Henry, and Mary Carter. About fifteen models altogether, and the things are to be sold afterward. There are to be several children's dresses, too, I understand.
