

I GRAVI DISORDINI DI IERI IN ROMA

Quattro Agenti di Polizia ed un Borghese Uccisi Durante una Dimostrazione

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 241 Authorized by the Postoffice at Philadelphia, Pa. A. S. BURLINSON, Postmaster General.

Roma, 25 maggio.—Quattro agenti di polizia ed un borghese rimasero uccisi ieri in un conflitto tra sovversivi e la forza pubblica, durante una dimostrazione per celebrare il quinto anniversario dell'entrata dell'Italia nella grande guerra. Circa 30 studenti procedevano lungo la via Nazionale e mentre la polizia tentava di disperderli, alcuni individui, che si credono erano stati detti ma elementi turbolenti, spararono alcuni colpi d'arma da fuoco, ai quali risposero gli agenti. — Oltre agli uccisi di cui sopra rimasero ferite varie persone e tra quelle in condizioni più gravi vi sono due agenti di polizia e nove cittadini. Altre tre persone furono uccise e parecchie altre ferite in un conflitto avvenuto tra la folla e la forza pubblica in Canosa, Puglia, nel pomeriggio di ieri, secondo telegrammi giunti al Giornale d'Italia. I disordini furono la conseguenza di una disputa sugli affari locali della città. L'ordine è stato ristabilito.

ufficiali si dice che l'Italia sia determinata a rammentare agli Alleati i grandi sacrifici sostenuti durante la guerra e far comprendere che essa non è stata sufficientemente compensata per tali sacrifici e che i territori che si sono annesi non sono nulla in paragone delle ricche provincie che si sono annesse in Francia e con le colonie tedesche che gli Alleati si sono divise tra loro. Si dice che l'Italia non riguarda definitivamente le decisioni raggiunte nella conferenza tenutasi a Yalta. I figli di

"The Cigar That Never Varies!"

It's one thing to give a cigar a slogan and an entirely different proposition living up to it.

With us it's no idle phrase or boast, for EL BORITAS are rolled by men who understand how good cigars are made. The choicest, selected tobacco, skillfully cured and properly blended to guarantee absolute satisfaction to the last puff, is the reason why it wins patronage and holds it.

Doom French Autos as Luxuries

Paris, May 25.—(By A. P.)—Adoption by the Chamber of Deputies of a provision of the tax bill placing levies totaling 351 francs on small cars has doomed automobiles as luxuries, in the opinion of owners of machines. Efforts are being made to induce the Senate to change the bill, but there is little hope of success.

French Defend Rhine Troops. Paris, May 25.—The French Government is protesting against the accusations against the French Colonial troops who took part in the recent occupation of certain Rhine cities. In a statement

It says that of 85,000 men comprising the army of occupation only 23,440 were Colonials, and of these only 7,400 were negroes, the remainder being Algerians and Moroccans. It says excellent relations existed between the inhabitants of the Rhineland and the Colonial troops.
