"Under the Blue Lantern"

A New Series of Burke's Limehouse Tales

"The Blue Lantern is a drinking place in the centre of the Limehouse underworld. A place where valorous schemes are laid, where the keen wit of the Cockney meets the deceptive frankness of the Oriental or the tortuous reserve of the black. Around it revolve the tragedies of the flash boys and girls, the regulars of The Blue Lantern."

THIS is the background against which Thomas Burke sets his new series of mercileas little dramas of broken lives, passionate sacrifices, and flaring loves and hates of mean streets.
