A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

Why not have one of these attractive ruches for your street costume? The type at the left is made of ostrich tips, each tip making a single puff. In the center is the Harlequin ruff, becoming to the slender girl with long lines. Then, if you are short and plump, you'll like the arrangement at the right, which consists of folds of tulle held with French flowers printed, but others are seldom put in.

Fourth—In this the man must be twenty-one and the girl eighteen.

An old picture frame may be made into an attractive serving tray in a very easy, simple way. Varnish the frame, if it needs freshening, put on handles (which may be the bronze kind pur chasable at any hardware shop for buchasable at any hardware shop for hi-reau deawers). Then place a piece of cretonne under the glass, put on back-ing as you would in framing a picture, and tack securely. A hand-made doily may be used instead of the cretonne with good effect, or any pretty silk or

Curl Hair This Way and Keep It Healthy

It has been found that the use of a harmless fluid which drugglets know as "silmerine," will keep the straightest hair in curl for the longest time, giving it the appearance of true naturalness, besides keeping the hair softer and glossier than possible with the heated from. The liquid should be applied with a clean tooth brush before doing up the hair drawing the brush through the hair from crown to tip.

The hair will be beautifully ways and curling, and will lie easily and loosely on the head, as it should considering its welfare from a hygienic standpoint. A few ounces of liquid slinerine will last for months and as it is really beneficial to the hair, it should be generally adopted by the fair sex. It will not spot or discolor scale or hair, nor leave any sediment, grease or stickiness.—Adv.
