Mr. Bok announced that the present management of the Academy would be transferred to a stock company to be known as "The Academy of Music Corporation," a charter for which would be applied for at Harrisburg. The speaker then told of the many considerable sacrifices made by all parties conserved in order to bring about the "devotily-hoped-for consummation," and went, into some of the details of the transaction and a sketch of the future policy of the Academy.

Mr. McClain said he has reserved many letters from the mining districts because miners cannot obtain sugar for several weeks at a time. The commissioner said strikes and other signs of industrial unrest in those regions van be attributed in part to a lack of necessary articles of food.
