Coal Bill Cut Ten Thousand Dollars
THAT'S what a power plant burning 10 tons of fuel a day and equipped with the Automatic Combustion Control (Gray System) can save in a year. This appliance makes it possible to burn River Coal instead of Bituminous at an average saving of three dollars a ton. At the same time greater power is obtained.
The Automatic Combustion Control was perfected after years of scientific research. It has been in constant use at several large power plants for the past eight years. The experimental stage has passed. Every installation has made good.
The complete story of the Automatic Combustion Control (Gray System) is of vital interest to every owner, manager, superintendent and engineer. It outlines a saving that has been the subject of engineering research for years. Upon request we will gladly forward you without obligation the complete story in booklet form.
Then, if after reading this booklet you want more definite information one of our Combustion Engineers will call at your convenience and go over your particular power problem with you.
Find out what the Automatic Combustion Control (Gray System) will do, how it operates and the saving it makes possible. Send for this booklet today.
