Hello! Yes, the Real Selling Is on

MEN'S SUITS,
$25 and $33.50

Savings Run to $22 on a Suit

FIRST—This is a sale for the United States Senator who says
"he will wear patches before he will buy a suit at the prices that have been ruling."

SECOND—For several thousand men who, while not as determined as the Senator, still have "gotten along" without.

THIRD—For the men who simply won't stand for present merchant tailor prices, yet require comely clothes.

Yes, Kuppenheimer Suits—Plenty of Them—in the $33.50 Group

And it is all regular high-standard all-wool Gimbel clothing—well designed; full tailored, not merely sewn; all silk-sewed.

Three Thousand Four Hundred (3,400) Suits Are Ready

The suits include all the good models of the year—the snappy sorts that young men want and the whole line of conservative styles.

One-Third the Lot Is of Blue Suits, Unfinished Worsteds and Serges

The man who cares—

The man who wants the realness in clothing that custom tailors monopolized in former days—

The man who knows the difference—knows good clothes, though he cannot tell just why he fixes his choice—

The man who "feels" the rightness of his attire as he "feels" the response of a good car at its best—comes to Gimbels for clothing—and the business has grown through this favor to the importance that "first place" gives.

We have been ashamed to have to charge the prices for clothes—though right along we have led in value-giving.

Now, for us—for you—newly big dollar's worth.

The highest priced lines no longer exist—the suits have settled to lower price.

There are Suits at $44, $49 and $59 and $64 that bring savings up to $30.

Ready! The Philadelphia Sale of Men's Clothing that restores the dignity of the dollar.

—Gimbels, Second floor.

STRAW HATS, $3, $4, $5. Panamas, $6 to $15.

—Gimbels, First floor, Ninth-Street Corner.

In the Subway Store

1200 Men's and Young Men's Suits
at $20

And there hasn't been such a thing heard of—in any worth-while line of clothes—for an age. $20.

It means saving $8 to $17.50 on a suit.

It means fully meeting a requirement and meeting your idea of good looks.
