

BOLSHEVIKI WISH TO MARKET GOLD

Lloyd George to Confer With Krassin This Week, Says London Times

RECOGNITION IS HINTED

By the Associated Press London, May 28.—Premier Lloyd George will meet Gregory Krassin, Russian Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, this week, says the Times, which also mentions a rumor "circulated through channels notoriously in touch with the premier's entourage," and the persons engaged in them "would be more widely extended than at present acknowledged."

It is said that Earl Curzon of Kedleston, secretary of state for foreign affairs, will, in addition to Mr. Lloyd George, confer with M. Krassin.

M. Krassin will propose, among other things, says the newspaper, to put into effect of Russian gold, stamped with the seal of the old Russian Government, on the English market, and it is believed the main object of the visit is to obtain a general license to send such gold to England and sell it here. The Times adds:

"By receiving Russian gold, stolen by the soviet, we would be virtually recognizing the soviet government. It is impossible to dissociate the two ideas of trade relations and official recognition. It is absurd to imagine that two countries can trade with each other and not have diplomatic relations."

The newspaper, which is equally hostile against the premier and the Bolsheviks, denounces the "official and dishonest pretense that negotiations are not between the soviet and British Governments" and ironically congratulates Nikolai Lenine and Mr. Lloyd George upon the success with which they have at last carried their point.

ITALY FREES CAVALLINI

Deputy Accused of Treason Like Bolo's Acquitted With 7 Others Rome, May 28.—(By A. P.)—Seven persons accused with former deputy Filippo Cavallini, of communicating intelligence to the enemy during the war, have been acquitted here. This case has been going on for the last three years and at times seemed to have a close relation with the prosecution of Bolo Pasha, and Joseph Caillaux in France.

Four former deputies were among those placed on trial. It was found the proof of guilt adduced by the government was not sufficient to justify conviction.

The acquittal of the former Italian deputy Filippo Cavallini of the charge of treason in Italy will make no difference with his status in France, it is declared here. He is still under sentence of death in this country, having been condemned at the same time as Bolo Pasha.

UN ERRORE DELLA POLIZIA IN ROMA

Indignazione e Provvedimenti per l'Illegale Arresto dei Dalmati e Fiumani

Published and Distributed Under PERMIT NO. 341 Authorized by the act of October 3, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa.

Roma, 27 maggio.—La responsabilità della polizia per gli arresti e la ricerca di tutti i nativi della Dalmazia e di Fiume ora in Roma, avvenuti lunedì, verrà stabilita in una investigazione iniziata dal Procuratore Generale presso la Corte d'Appello. Si asserisce che la polizia agì senza alcun ordine dell'autorità giudiziaria.

Come risultato degli incidenti il prefetto dipolizia sig. Zoccolotti è stato trasferito ed il sig. Masi, capo della polizia, è stato posto in aspettativa, secondo quanto annuncia il giornale l'Epoca. L'azione della polizia ha creato una grande indignazione, poiché non vi era bisogno di procedere ad arresti. Si dice che vecchie donne e ragazze prese in custodia dalla polizia e trattate con molta severità, il giornale predetto parla di una madre che fu divisa da un suo bambino latitante e che, invano, chiese le fosse restituito il giornale riferendosi a questa madre le dice: "D'Annunzio darà il latte al tuo bambino." Anche due vecchie, una di 74 e l'altra di 87 anni di età, furono arrestate e poste in una cella delle prigioni. Tutti gli arrestati sono stati rilasciati perché nessuna accusa fu potuta elevare contro di loro.

Roma, 27 maggio.—L'Italia aspetta dal suo nuovo gabinetto un programma di vera ricostruzione, secondo l'esperienza del Consiglio On. Giolitti, in una intervista pubblicata oggi dalla Tribuna. Egli ha dichiarato che vi sono due pericoli che minacciano la nazione: il discredito del Parlamento e le disastrose condizioni finanziarie.

Il prestigio del Parlamento è scosso—ha detto l'On. Giolitti. Vi è un'assoluta mancanza di attività legislativa ed il lavoro del Parlamento viene rimpiazzato con decreti reali, i quali sono inconstituzionali. Negli ultimi dodici mesi i decreti dell'Italia ha raggiunto i diecimila, di cui 1000 di legge, mentre in 52 anni, dal 1862 al 1914, non fu superiore ai quattordici migliaia. Ciò è stato possibile poiché il controllo del Parlamento sopra le finanze fu debole, ma è un mezzo che potrà condurre alla bancarotta se le spese non saranno immediatamente fermate.

Presente Ask-Law Against Strikes Paris, May 28.—Parliament and the government will be asked by the union of French peasants to pass legislation intended to assure freedom of workers and put an end to strikes. Resolutions to that effect were adopted in a general meeting of the union delegates representing a membership of 42,380 farmers being in attendance.

DIAMOND MERCHANTS—JEWELERS—SILVERSMITHS

Green Chestnut St Shops

Even though we do not, like Diogenes, pace the streets with a lantern looking for an honest man, in the last analysis, the quality which we most appreciate in a firm is honesty of intention and purpose. The Chestnut Street Shops endeavor in their advertising to represent their merchandise exactly as it is. That is one reason why satisfied patrons return to purchase a second time.

Delorah Logan
"SPRINGTIME is ringtime," they say, and the girl who is very lucky going to be the possessor of a ring set with a Polished Girdle Diamond if the interest which various and sundry young men are evincing in them is any indication. The Polished Girdle Diamond, you know, is a gem of wonderful brilliancy and polished according to a special process which brings out the hidden beauties of the stone. This diamond is exclusive with Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company. An exquisite ring of platinum with fine traceries on either side of the stone makes a wonderful engagement ring that is worthy of the fairest hand. Some of these stones are set in green gold and look particularly well with the chased green gold wedding bands.

THE difference between a good baby and a "better baby" is, in many cases, due to the kinds of cribs which they occupy. Really, it is quite important that a crib be scientifically made and that the mattress be the most comfortable that it is possible to procure. I was looking at cribs and bassinets at the store of H. D. Dougherty & Company, 1632 Chestnut Street, not long ago. You know, of course, that they have a long-established reputation for the quality of their beds and bedding. I have visited the factory and can assure you that you may expect perfect workmanship when you buy Dougherty's furniture. Their mattresses of curled horsehair are most sanitary and comfortable. They well deserve the characterization of "Faultless."

WHAT would a championship game be without a Spalding Official National League Baseball? We've come to think of it as part of the game, for it has been the regulation ball for the past forty years. It has a patent cork center and is stitched in red and black. A. G. Spalding & Bros., 1210 Chestnut Street, carry a full line of athletic goods, and are particularly well known as headquarters for all things needful during the baseball season. Catchers' mitts, basemen's mitts, infielders' gloves, body protectors, bases, catchers' masks, bearing the Spalding trademark are all of the finest quality made. I saw some natty uniforms, too, at Spalding's. One was of gray with blue stripes, and the other was plain gray.

STRAWBERRY and pineapple wafers made with the purest juices of the fresh fruit! Really, you have no idea how delicious they are until you have tasted them. I discovered them at the store of Edouard D. Kruse Company, at 100 South Eleventh Street. There is another Kruse store, too, at 4903 Baltimore Avenue. Another delicious confection for which the Kruse stores are well known is their butter cream, with either a chocolate or vanilla center. They simply "melt in your mouth." I've made a mental resolve to say "Butter Creams" next time any one asks me what kind of candy I like. Another thing about these candies, which is, of course, part of the reason why they are delicious, is that they contain only the purest and most wholesome of ingredients.
