

GOING TO BRIBE SCHMIDT ON BRIBE

Council's Probers to Send Sergeant-at-Arms to See Chicagoan

TESTIMONY IN CONFLICT

In the hope of obtaining a statement from A. B. Schmidt regarding the $25,000 concubine bribe scandal...

Braun Reticent

At first Mr. Braun seemed rather reluctant to testify, but he soon opened up and told the committee all he knew of the affair.

Mr. Schmidt mentioned any concubine?

"Quite a few," he told me that Mr. Limestone had called on him and told him that he would take care of the concubine ordinance...

Rodenblum or 'Rodenbach'

Mr. Braun then detailed the name of the mystery briber as either 'Rodenblum or Rodenbach.'

Mr. Braun said Mr. Limestone had spoken to him on many occasions...

Horn Contradicted

The next witness was F. L. Putney, manager of the Philadelphia Felt Co., who contradicted in part testimony given by William Horn...

COMMENCEMENT AT STATE

Busy Week Is Planned by Pennsylvania College

State College, Pa. May 29.—Pennsylvania State College commencement week, June 14 to 16, will be featured by the graduation on June 14 of a class of 300 men and 57 women...

HONOR GRAND COMMANDER

Thomas R. Patton Presented With Sword on Ascension to Office

Thomas R. Patton, grand commander of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, was presented with a sword on his ascension to office...

Grane Reported Backing Hoover

New York, May 29.—W. Murray Grane, formerly senator from Massachusetts and a leader in national Republican circles for many years...

AMERICAN BOOKSELLERS AT VALLEY

One of the most successful groups of book sellers in the country will meet in Philadelphia on Sunday afternoon...

State Delegation Will Back Sproul

Continued from Page One. ters of the future. They are behind the immediate naming of Governor Sproul.

TESTIMONY IN CONFLICT

In the western part of the state, the suggestion, as I gather from conversation with men from that section, was received with considerable indifference.

No Friction at This Stage

In this light, then, there is no friction between the personalities at this particular stage of Sproul and Knox.

Tryouts Boost Penn and Tigers

Continued from Page One. if one team piles up a total of thirty-two points it will be good enough to land the laurels.

RE-ELECTION FOR CROW

Governor Sproul will be the active leader of the Pennsylvania delegation to the Republican national convention.

Working Man Grows Respecting

His ideals have been raised to a tremendous degree and in the past few years he has become a more idealistic, more practical man.

ELDER'S WALLET STOLEN

A delegate in the Presbyterian Church Assembly convened in this city yesterday had a narrow escape from two alleged notorious pickpockets.

OSTEOPATHS MEETING

Philadelphia Doctors Deliver Addresses at Opening Session

Pittsburgh, May 29.—The twenty-first annual state convention of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Association opened here yesterday.

RECEPTION FOR BISHOPS

The Methodist Episcopal Social Union and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are giving a reception to Bishop Joseph P. Berry on his return to Philadelphia.

FIRST PICTURES OF THE OREGONIAN

The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

ASSEMBLY PRAISED BY PRESBYTERIANS

Meeting Most Far-Reaching in History of Church, Says New Moderator

GREAT STRIDES ARE TAKEN

That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, which closed at the Academy of Music yesterday, was the most significant and far-reaching in its results...

"A Wonderful Assembly"

"It was a wonderful assembly," said Doctor Palmer. "We received the Welsh Calvinistic Church into our ranks, made decided moves toward organic union of evangelical churches and settled the Interchurch World Movement question."

Educational Advance

"We have gone ahead in our educational program to the tune of $35,000,000," said Doctor Thompson. "As a result of the plan the assembly will raise $2,000,000 a year for the next five years, the balance being raised by other means."

CAUGHT IN REACTION

"The Interchurch Movement was caught in the reaction. We will take up the job again, doubtless, but the release was unfortunate. But in spite of this, the movement has not come across with more money than ever."

Working Man Grows Respecting

His ideals have been raised to a tremendous degree and in the past few years he has become a more idealistic, more practical man.

ELDER'S WALLET STOLEN

A delegate in the Presbyterian Church Assembly convened in this city yesterday had a narrow escape from two alleged notorious pickpockets.

OSTEOPATHS MEETING

Philadelphia Doctors Deliver Addresses at Opening Session

Pittsburgh, May 29.—The twenty-first annual state convention of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Association opened here yesterday.

RECEPTION FOR BISHOPS

The Methodist Episcopal Social Union and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, are giving a reception to Bishop Joseph P. Berry on his return to Philadelphia.

FIRST PICTURES OF THE OREGONIAN

The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

AT DEVON'S ALL-BREED DOG SHOW

Among the many exhibitors at the All-Breed Dog Show, in connection with the Devon Horse Show, yesterday, was Miss Constance Vaucelin. With her are Gladiator and Jimmy.

SCHOOL FUND SPREADS JOY AMONG NEEDY ATTENDANTS

'Penny a Week' Brings $300 Year Happiness Sum—Money Always Available for Worthy Charity

"Please you don't need to send the money any more," a youngster in the McCall School told the teacher.

Another family gets $2 a week to keep an especially worthy child in school, and two other families get a dollar a week to help along with needed food.

A penny a week means $300 a year at the McCall School, and without frenzied financing, every week on Friday there is a collection taken and the money goes to the fund.

The church expressed by the Presbyterian Church through its united and important step and will encourage other denominations to do likewise.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

The program of the movement was to bring about a new era of world peace and to the present point during the war it doubtless would have gone through without much trouble.

The Interchurch World Movement was one of the by-products of the war. Then we were talking in terms of millions and thousands of millions.

AD FOR TEACHERS

URGENT MEETING Big Crowd Overflows Academy. Resolution Passed Asking $40 Monthly Increase

SPROUL AND MOORE THERE

An enthusiastic, determined crowd filled the Academy of Music last night and overflowed into the street, constituting one of the biggest meetings ever held in this city.

They were citizens and educators who had come to demand an immediate increase in pay for teachers in the public schools in order that Philadelphia might be able now and in the future to compete favorably with the teacher markets of this country and procure and retain the most capable teachers for its children.

Speeches in vigorous language from prominent men, including school teachers and members of the Board of Education, individually and collectively, were delivered. For a while it looked as though the meeting had been called to discuss a matter of local interest, the salary of the teachers.

But eventually, through a speech of George Wharton Pepper, the audience was turned back to its chief purpose. A resolution was passed favoring a flat increase in teachers' salaries of $40 a month, effective from January 1, 1920, and the appointment of a committee of five citizens to confer with the Board of Education to make the resolution a reality.

Edward Bok, chairman of the citizens' committee which arranged the meeting, presided, and the speakers included Governor Sproul, Mayor Moore, Dr. Thomas E. Finigan, state superintendent of instruction; Mr. Pepper, Miss Margaret Maguire, supervising principal of the McCall School, and Joseph H. Hager, newspaper editor. Speakers and others addressed three overflow meetings.

"You may rest assured that these resolutions will not go into the waste basket," said Mr. Bok. "These resolutions will be acted upon."

Another notable feature of the meeting was the reading by Mr. Bok of an official statement which had been received from the State Treasury Department at Harrisburg, saying that the department, before the end of the month, will pay the full back pay for the Philadelphia Board of Education for salary increases for the fiscal year.

A much-appreciated high-light in Governor Sproul's address was a pledge that he will "fight for the right of the teacher to a 50 per cent in the state appropriation for education at the next session of the Legislature."

The last session increased the appropriation from $22,000,000 to $26,000,000. If the Governor makes good his pledge, that amount will be raised to $30,000,000.

Until 10:30 o'clock a peaceful, friendly atmosphere pervaded the meeting, as if the speakers and audience had taken the time to get acquainted.

Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

The Mayor in a thirty-minute address had made many digressions, jesting with the Governor, talking about the contracts for the South street bridge and finally making an appeal for an increase in the state appropriation for education.

"Let us discuss these problems with- out heat. What we need is not heat, but light."

An abundance of heat, however, was injected into the proceedings when Mr. Pepper, his frame and voice trembling with anger, criticized Mayor Moore for "discussing everything except education."

GRIFFERS DEBATES WITH H. J. ALLEN

Veteran Labor Chief and Governor Clash on Tollers' Right to Strike

HINTS A. F. OF L. SOCIALISM

New York, May 29.—The presence in a long row against the stage of Carnegie Hall of nearly fifty reporters and correspondents of newspapers in many parts of the country attested as well as any single fact the immense interest which the nation took in the debate last night between Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Henry J. Allen, governor of Kansas.

It was an odd debate in that no question was announced by the chairman, Alton B. Parker, or mentioned in the program. The general subject, although nobody was aware of the compulsory settlement of labor disputes.

Gompers, who began and closed the debate, restricted himself to holding and defending the right of labor to strike. He pictured that as an inalienable right, a fundamental human right, which could not be taken away from man except at the price of liberty—the right to work or not to work except in the case of a strike to be interfered with by government or courts. That, said Mr. Gompers, is the principle for which labor is contending. It is a matter of no matter what may come.

He closed his main argument with a statement into which may possibly be seen the real reason for his interest in socialism for relief if labor is made unlawful and arbitration compulsory.

"The men and the women of labor of America are sovereign citizens with all of you," he said, "and if it should come to pass that you can make labor compulsory, that is, that you can take away from the people the right to work or not to work, then we shall be compelled to labor for you."

Henry J. Allen, on the other hand, did not deny the right of labor to strike, but did—what was the burden of his speech—insist on the right of the public welfare, was supreme over the rights of any individual or individuals.

As an example of the rights of the greater body of society tramped under foot by the lesser body of union labor, he cited last winter's coal strike in Kansas. And as an example of how the rights of the greater body of the public should and could be asserted when it is outraged by a minority of "labor," he cited the working of the Kansas industrial relations law, which he said had created, called the Industrial Relations.

And as the man speaking there for that public, he shot a lot of barbed steel at Mr. Gompers, and this was one of them:

"We have not forbidden to any man the right to quit work (Governor Allen said that the right of the public, industrial law). We have not taken away from any man his divine right to quit work. We have merely taken away from Mr. Gompers his divine right to order a man to quit work."

Miss Louise Almy, of Boston, on Imported Horse, Triumphs Over Bars

Five young women riders carried off the blue and red ribbons in the first event on the Governor's Day program at the Devon Horse Show this morning.

Miss Louise Almy, of Boston, won the first class on Matt H., her imported Canadian horse, with one of the finest exhibitions of jumping seen in the oval this year.

Miss Patty Vaucelin, riding her pony June, showed herself to be a fine little horsewoman and carried off the blue ribbon in the third event for ponies under saddle. Victor C. Mathie, Jr., on Miss Aiken, placed sixth in this event.

Miss Janice Liggett continued the record of straight wins set up by her competitors on the first four events today. She took the event of the best pair of ponies in harness, with Fulgura and Princess Fulgure. Second went to Mrs. Jackson K. Dering, of Chicago. The other event to go to a woman exhibitor was that for ponies in harness, won by Mrs. E. P. Givan's Silver Tips.

"We, the citizens of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia, are to blame for any inadequacy that may exist. We are too much and too easily contented. The Board of Education has been called on as we are to solve this problem, but the members must have the co-operation of the public behind them. That is what we are here for."

Among other things, Governor Sproul said:

"Ever since I have been in the executive chair of this commonwealth, I have been preaching to the people the importance of the teacher to the state through the facts that the public schools are not appreciated or maintained."

"Unless the people get to work and realize the present danger threatening the public school system of America we are going to have a breakdown in the greatest bulwark of the nation. It is such a matter of life and death, as will show those who make the laws, that the people themselves are demanding that the present conditions be changed and that the Legislature be urged to grant such measures as are needed."

Mayor Moore was in cheerful spirits this morning and seemed to be not at all perturbed over last night's incident.

"I was outside when the alleged criticism was made," he said, after first referring to the incident as a "stunt." "I was addressing an overflow meeting in the open air. It was a good meeting, full of spirit and I enjoyed it thoroughly."

"I brought up the whole subject, even to the question of a different method of closing the Board of Education. It must be remembered, however, that the teacher's position, the long vacation for one thing."

"As to my talking about increased pay for police and firemen, I am simply stating a fact. I am not a politician, but I think I would say a word for them, that's all."

TURBULENT MAY DAY IN EUROPEAN

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.

First pictures of disturbances in London. The flight of Carranza and Obregon's triumphant entry into the Victoria section of last Sunday's Pueblo Ledger.