Veterans of Three Wars Parade to Honor Slain Comrades

New York, May 31.—(By A. P.)—ifty thousand veterans of three wars marched in Memorial Day parades held in the five boroughs of the city today. Featured in the lines of march were bearded veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic who, despite their years. marched at the head of the column.

The main parade was in Manhattan, in which marched, in addition to the men of '65, Spanish-American war veterans and smooth-faced youths with gold chevrons won at St. Miniel and in the
