What Can You Do?

Perhaps It Will Fit in With the Wanamaker Employment Opportunity

Come in and tell us about it anyway, for just now there are an unusual number of desirable openings, both for the experienced and for ambitious young people just ready to enter on a business career.

Pay has never been higher, nor conditions more favorable for all hands, than today.

Life insurance, sick benefits, savings and pensions are provided through the John Wanamaker Foundations.

Worth-While Jobs for Worth-While Persons!
Women

INSPECTORS and Cashiers—who need not stay cashiers forever, if they've the stuff for advancement in them. The qualifications are trustworthiness, intelligence and quickness in handling money. Those who've done this work under less favorable conditions appreciate our reasonable hours and other privileges.

SALESWOMEN, experienced, for both full time and part time. Some jobs are for Monday only—"home" women, a nice chance to add to your personal income!

FITTERS and dressmakers, operators on cushion work, women experienced in making waists and fine lingerie may profitably "cash in" here on their experience.

BILLERS, and typists whom we'll train to become billers. Make this your business school and your business home!

LAUNDRY HELP—Come to the Market Street Laundry (1308 Filbert Street) if you want any sort of laundry job; but especially there are openings for markers and sorters (experienced or inexperienced), fancy ironers (experienced) and operators on flat work. Hours, 8 to 5, Saturday, 1 P. M.

CLEANERS—Day or night work.

Men

PORTERS—Both white and colored men, who have strong shoulders and clear heads on them, appreciate this chance to become part of a fine business organization and to use their strength without losing it, as is the risk in outdoor work with all its exposures.

MEN, husky and handy, to handle stock—rugs, furniture and the like.

TWO promising Young Men, of 19 or thereabouts, newly graduated from college, can get their start in the desirable field of credit work through two high-grade positions about to be opened.

Apply in person at Employment Office, First Floor, Gallery.
