PALMER'S POST AIDED ANARCHISTS

Labor Official Declared to Have Perverted Sympathy for Criminal Aliens

LAW AND EVIDENCE DEFIED

By the Associated Press Washington, June 1.—Charging that Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, had a "perverted sympathy" for the criminal anarchist, Attorney General Palmer told a House committee today that in dealing with attempts of the government to rid the country of dangerous aliens Mr. Post has employed a "self-willed and autocratic substitution of his own mistaken personal viewpoint for the obligations of the public law."

VICTIMS OF TRAIN-AUTO CRASH

proaching. The truck was going about twenty-five miles an hour when I stopped the train after it had run about 700 feet beyond the crossing.

Couple Were to Marry

William Eggers, Jr., the man from this city killed in the Clayton accident, and Edith McCandless, one of the dead girls, were engaged to be married, and June 29 was the day set for the ceremony.

Truck Straddles Track

The body of one of the girls was found about 100 feet from the crossing. The third rail was torn up for several lengths, and traffic was delayed while it was being repaired.

Rules of Evidence Defied

"He has defied the rules of evidence as laid down by our most responsible courts, has canceled hundreds of legal warrants issued by his department, entirely without justification and in face of the facts, has flouted the judgment of a committee of the Senate which has shown a decided favor to violators of the law and their attorneys, refusing even common courtesy to the Department of Justice, which is charged with the duty of enforcing the law."

Sympathetic With Violence

"It is not surprising," he added, "that Mr. Post, when the opportunity has presented itself in an official way to render a service to those who advocate force and violence, should employ it to the limit. He has always acted sympathetically with that sort of thing."

Dead and Injured in Automobile Crashes

The dead: William Eggers, Jr., twenty-two years old, 6157 Elmwood avenue. Edith McCandless, twenty-four years old, of 2522 Carpenter street. Bessie Craigmie, twenty-five years old, 401 West Penn street. Bessie Gramlich, thirty-four years old, 1505 Mifflin street.

Crossing Censured by Coroner's Jury
