

THE LEAS RULERS LAST KING OF ITALY

Lifts Ban on Catholic Monarchs, but Doesn't Waive Temporal Claims

WOULD CUT ARMAMENTS

By the Associated Press
Rome, June 1.—Pope Benedict has issued an encyclical letter, announcing that, while he still maintains the claims of the holy see to temporal power, he rescinds the order forbidding Catholic rulers to visit Rome under the new conditions will be Alfonso of Spain.
Pope Benedict stresses the necessity of "eliminating the germs of discord, which have prevented the full establishment of peace and seriously injured not only the temporal interests of the nations, but the life and spirit of Christianity as taught by the Lord's Prayer and the example of our Saviour."
In conformity with this principle, the letter declares the pope "forgives those who, during the war, distorted his intentions and tarnished his work."
He adds that the chief object of the Catholic Church is to help humanity and appeals to bishops to teach their flocks the necessity of forgiveness and charity.
His Holiness urges the nations to join together fraternally to reduce, if not to eliminate, the military expenditures which weigh heavily upon the various states. He sets forth that the danger of fratricidal wars would thus be rendered more remote and that independence and territorial integrity would be insured.
Pope Benedict's efforts to re-establish peace in Europe during the war were extolled by Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, at a banquet in the Irish College yesterday at the close of festivities incident to the beatification of Oliver Plunkett, first archbishop of Armagh.
Wilson's fourteen points that were not included in the pope's peace conditions," the cardinal added.
Great interest in recent events in the United States and Mexico was shown by the pope yesterday in receiving Monsignor Daniel Fehan, bishop of Fall River, Joseph J. Rice, bishop of Burlington, and Sanchez Parodi, archbishop of Puebla, Mexico. To the American prelate he remarked upon his interest in the coming presidential campaign.

The Charm of Brick.

HAVE you ever gazed at Old Christ Church, near Second and Chestnut, and tried to determine the charm of that fine building? Plain, solid, yet graceful, that was the secret of the original builders, that Mr. Wright brought such beauty to the simplest material.
The secret was in their choice of material, the brick. In 1920 the builder is faced by the endles variety of materials. In 1870 he had brick—stone and brick—limbwood, common brick. He studied its possibilities and with loving care, and we result today in the magnificent collection of brick buildings in Philadelphia stands as a rival.
If you build, get architect's opinion on the cost.

SO many people think of a bank as a composite of massive, frowning walls, forbidding cage-windows, pomp and solemnity. But they find here a very human institution, an atmosphere of genial friendliness and genuine helpfulness; because every official and every employee is imbued with the spirit of service. We believe this is largely responsible for our successful co-operative work in developing this great Northeastern industrial section. Come in and let us get acquainted.
