EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1920

Anne Carter's father has always hought his will supreme and right. Thought his will supreme and right. In his own eyes he could do no wrong, and hane has never dared to assert in-one of a husband, housever, the pirl re-of a husband, housever, the first re-of a husband, housever, the pirl re-ress first he first time. Jim Carter, father for the first time. Jim Carter, father for the first time. Jim Carter, is a fit of anger, has a stroke. In the meantime Aine has met Dane Grey, the man she really loves, but she feels that his declaration to her has not that his declaration to her has not that his feels certain of his interest in that she feels certain of his interest in smalker woman.

demands the fair Astara as his bride.)
CRAFTER IV
CRAFTER IV
CRAFTER IV
The Bride's Love Tap
BALKY SAM'S offer to become the bride by any restain the part of the supposed to the stars as a stroke. If the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the supposed to the supposed to the fair Astara astonished the part of the supposed to the

Anne felt no wild grief at her father's death. She seemed stunned, unable to realize any emotion. "Something's been killed in that girl." Mrs. Barnes remarked to her husband, sagely. "And it hasn't been her fault. There's never been anything between Anne and her father or she'd grieve for You know I always said his face looked cruel and forbidding, and the way they wouldn't have anything to do with any one on the street is strange. Anne is different, she likes to be with people, her nature seems to crave love affection. It's a strange combina.

Mrs. Barnes did not tell her huaband all she knew, she was that strange thing, woman who could hold her 'tongue

The Marriage Trifler

An interesting new story of maried life will begin on Monday, une T.

HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR The clever writer of so many ripping serials is at her best in this ype of story. This one begins where "The Streets of Life" stops -with an engagement and a marisge. Do they live happily ever Read It and See!

Last night when she had gone over to be with Anne, the two women had been alone together for a few minutes, and Mra Barnes had said unthinkingly: "The doctor says your father must have had a terrible shock." Anne started. "Yes; it was my fault." the said, dully. Mra Barnes hurried over to the girl and put comforting arms about her. "You musin't say that, my dear; what-ever happened I'm sure was for the best. It couldn't have been your fault, you wouldn't willingly hurt your father. u wouldn't willingly hurt your father

I know that." "Oh, you really do believe that?" Anne said carnently. Her gray eyes were wide with anguish and she looked for comfort straight into Mrs. Barnes's Wed heave over long day. Balky Sam walked slowly toward the waiting robber. He had to go very carefully to avoid tripping over his long blue robe. El Murfa hadn't ex-pected a bride as big as a mule, but he was very polite as he met Balky Sam. "The loveliness of the daughter of Raban the Greedy is famed through all Persia." he said, stretching forth his hand to take that of the supposed bride. But when he grasped Balky Sam's front hood, he was startled. "What a hard little hand you have!" By DADDY (Peggy, Billy, Balky Sam, Johnny Bull and Lonesome Bear are carried away to Persia by a magic rug. They reach there as the robber, El Murfa, demands the fair Astara as his bride.)

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES THE MAGIC RUG

beeves were driven into the courtyard of the castle—so many of them that Raban the Greedy rubbed his hamis with delight. There were enough to feed him and his followers for many a long day.

El Murfa agreed to this and the fat (Tomorrow will be told how El Murfa gets a hugging bride.) WANAMAKER'S

DOWN STAIRS STORE

WANAMAKER'S

Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

Let Every Woman Know that a Wonderful, Wonderful Sale of Dresses has Started in the Down Stairs Store, and there will be Hundreds and Hundreds of New things for Tomorrow.

> You Couldn't Make them for so little, you couldn't find prices elsewhere so low And yet there's one-fifth off these prices even.

New for Tomorrow

-Figured voile dresses in Georgette patterns, mostly dark colorings, at $7.50 and $12;

-plain navy blue voile dresses, of fine quality, at $7.75;

-dotted voile dresses with pink or blue pleated organdie frills at $12; -flesh pink or white organdie with big fichu collars and sashes of white organdie at $12;

-exquisite organdies in pastel colorings, suitable for Summer evening parties, at $15, $18.50 and $22.75;

-figured voile dresses, in light grounds, with wide, scalloped collars of white organdie, at $11.50.

Every dress in stock is reduced and hundreds of new dresses, bought at low prices, are pouring in to augment the collection. Seldom has there been such choosing among moderately priced dresses.

A Further Deduction of 20 Per Cent Is to Be Made at Time of Purchase and women of foresight will be quick to act. As the great bulk of the dresses are marked less than $25 you can readily see that a Summer wardrobe of the latest mode can be assembled at trifling cost.

Hundreds of Summer Dresses of gingham, voile, organdie, Georgette crepe. foulard and Summer silks, are made in more ways than you would think it possible to devise — and every dress is marked at a lowered price. (Market)

Yes, There Is a 20 Per Cent Deduction on These Men's $36.50 Suits

And not only has a man something in pocket, but he has something worth putting on his back-a reliable, all-wool Wanamaker suit.

Double-Warp

Straw Rugs

4.6x7.6 feet, $3.

8x10 feet, $7.50.

9x12 feet, $7.50.

(Chestaut)

9x12 feet, $10.

6x9 feet, $5.

The patterns are stenciled

Until Further Notice: 30% Off Capes & Suits

Every model is included. Tag prices as low as $39.50. Luxurious models to $175. All prices closely marked and extra discount makes them startling bargains. Sport, street and elaborate shore capes, some silk and fur trimmed. Exquisite sport and formal suits.

HATS SPECIALLY PRICED

3.50-5.00-10.00

Values 15.00 to 35.00

Benguyer

1214 Walnut Street

