Woman Breaks Leg in Fall

Deaths of a Day

J. W. TIPTON

at Age of Ninety

was known as the "Grand Old Man"

Mrs. Sarah Bowne

Philip Morris

THE attitude of the sales force towards your advertising has a great deal to do with results.

As an ex-salesman, the head

Advertising Agency
Every Phase of Sales Promotion

400 Chestnut Street Philadelphia

Cooper Hospital, Camden.

Mrs. Cynthia P. Snizely.

VISIT TO SCHMIDT GETS POOR RESULT

Man Who Charged Soliciting Bribe Won't Say When He'll Come to Testify

WITTIG INTERVIEW FUTILE

City Pays Railroad Fare for This Piece of Dialogue

"Are you coming back to Phila-delphia?"—Wittig. "I am as soon as my wife sufficiently recovers. -Schmidt. "How is your wife?"-Wittig. "She seems to be getting better, but her temperature rises in the afternoon." - Schmidt.

A. B. Schmidt, eastern representative of Sears, Rocbuck & Co., will come here from his Chicago home to testify before the councilmanic committee investigating the attempted $25,000 shakedown of the company,
But the time is problematical. Harry Wittig, sergeant-at-arms in Council, who was sent to Chicago to discover when Schmidt would come here to testify, if at all, got the same answer Mr.
Schmidt previously gave by telephone.
He will come when his wife's condition warrants his absence from Chicago. tion warrants his absence from Chicago.

Mrs. Schmidt has been sick for some time with typhoid fever and her condition is still grave, due to frequent re-ome to Philadelphia some time this The Republican National Convention in Chicago may aid in an earlier solu-tion of the problem. Mr. Schmidt indicated today he would be pleased to call upon Mayor Moore and Charles B. Hall the councilman, when those men arrive there. There will probably then be two conferences—one between Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Moore and another between eurregces of fever.

Schmidt believes he may be able to

Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Hall. Concerning Alexis J. Limeburner, another councilman, but one whose name was brought into the discussion by witnesses before the Cox Lexowers. Mr. Sesmidt had little to add yesterday make the remark, previously attributed to him, that "Limeburner has a damped crude way." Mr. Schmidt Homesville early this morning, hoping also explained that Mr. Limeburner sever came to him for an advertisement | her death. ter Patriotic Philadelphia, as had been reported.

Mr. Schmidt was anything but seere

"There is a wrong impression affoat the effect that I have gone on record saying I refused to return to Philadel-phia." said Mr. Schmidt. "This is un-true. My wife is very, very ill with typhoid fever. I would be a poor hus-band to go East while she is danger-I am not running away from any one. I shall go back to Philadel-phia the moment Mrs. Schmidt's condiion warrants my leaving her bedside. I have told the Council committee every hing I know. There is nothing I can add to my previous story. I assured Mr. Wittig I would do everything in my power to assist the committee certainly shall return to Philadelphia

CLASS DAY AT SWARTHMORE Graduation Week Exercises Are Be-

follege today began the exercises attending the forty-eighth annual commencement, which will conclude Mon-The class-day celebration began this and eighteen, beginning June I, in acmorning. Fraternity luncheons and Fe-cordance to the following conditions: unions were held at noon. At 2 Clock the senior class will present the play "Monsieur Beaucaire" in the outdoor amphitheatre.

The applicant must apply for a rating restricted to the above ages, must present bons fide evidence of age and consent of his parents, must be under door amphitheatre.

Saturday is "aumni day," when there will be special reunions of all classes numerically divisible by five. At classes numerically divisible by five. At most the dedication of the two new structures. Hicks Hall and the Spencer-Trotter laboratory, will take place. Hicks Hall is the new engineering building given to the college by Congressman Hicks. In the afternoon the varsity baseball team will meet Haverford, while the varsity lacrosse team will cross sticks with the alumni. The parade of the classes and the second performance of the senior play also are performance of the senior play also are on the program. At 6 o'clock the alumni dinner will be held, followed by dancing.

The baccalaureate address will be

The baccalauveate address will be delivered on Sunday morning by the Rev. Henry E. Jackson, of Washington, D. C.; the planting of the classivy and the key oration are to take place at 7 in the evening. The windup of the Gremonies comes on Monday morning at 11, when Herhert Hoover will speak at the final exercises.

SALESMAN

C 529. Ledger Office.

Funds While Traveling

For obvious reasons it s inadvisable to carry a large amount of cash. The best way to obtain funds is by means of travelers letters of credit.

We issue letters of credit in dollars and pounds sterling available in all parts of the world.

Our travelers letters of credit are also letters of introduction to the prominent banks and give the holder additional facilities.

Brown Brothers & Co. OURTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS

PHILADELPHIA

Loss Near Westville, N. J.

IN HOLD-UP FIGHT Fire, caused by a gas explosion, swept the farmhouse occupied by Charles Weatherby on the Moore Farms, near Westville, N. J., early this morning. The loss is estimated at A gas engine in the basement, used the numning water, exploded. Fire Alleged Robber Wounded as He A gas engine in the basement, used for pumping water, exploded. Fire companies from Westville and South Westville and farmers from the surrounding countryside fought the blaze for more than an hour. Battles With Green Street

VICTIM IS BLACKJACKED

Storekeeper

An alleged bold-up man was seri ously shot by his own revolver early this morning when his intended victim suddenly turned and grappled with him, had gone there to assist at a special Police later blackjucked the man who had defended himself. Both were taken to the Hahnemann Hospital. The hold-up and fight occurred at 12:20 o'clock this morning, at the cigar and caudy store of William Miller, at 723 Green street. According to the police, Patrick Ryan entered Miller's store just before clos-ing time. He said he wished to buy ing time. He said he wished to buy candy. Miller turned for a paper bag, and when he again faced Ryan the latter

MISS AUGUSTA C. GLASS

Youngest daughter of Senator and

Mrs. Carter Glass, whose engagement to Robert McClanahan Allen,

of Roanoke, Va., is announced

CALLS ARCHBISHOP

Prelate Hurries to

Bedside

Mrs. Bridget Dougherty, ninety-two

Despite her years, Mrs. Dougherty

Last night word of her illness was sent to the archbishop and Mrs. T. J. McCormick, of 940 North Forty-eighth to reach their mother's bedside before

Mrs. Dougherty had always predicted high honors for her son. His steady final elevation to the episcopacy was highly gratifying to Mrs. Dougherty during her declining years.

Mrs. Dougherty came to this country when a girl and made her home at Girardville. Her husband died more than

NAVY SEEKS RECRUITS

sixty inches in height and weigh under

120 pounds, and enlist for period of

LINEN MESH UNDERWEAK

Dougherty, died at her home in Homes-ville, Pa., at 6 o'clock this morning.

whipped out a 45-caliber auto Shove up your hands and make no Ryan is alleged to have or-of the Main Line. Miller moved as though to comply, and then suddenly langed for Ryan's gur, and both fell to the floor. As they struggled the hold up man burg for about seventy-five years. until he reached his seventy fifth year. when he made his home with his daughand his unwilling victim rolled out struggle Miller succeeded in drawing a revolver from his pocket.

Ryan grasped Miller's wrist, and Miller retained a vise-like grip on Ryan's. Finally Miller succeeded in twisting Ryan's wrist around until he End Comes at Homesville While had the alleged robber covered with his

Ryan's gun suddenly went off, and two shots entered his right thigh. The shots attracted Patrolman Forgey, of SHE WAS 92 YEARS OLD the Tenth and Buttonwood streets sta-

As Miller was brandishing a gun and was streaming from Rean's years old, mother of Archbishop wounds the patrolman mistook the intended victim for the assailant. He struck Miller over the head with his blackjack. Then Ryan tried to strike the patrolman with the butt of his gun and the policeman overpowered

At the Hahnemann Hospital Miller was discharged after having his head dressed for scalp wounds. Ryan's con-The archbishop and his sister left for dition is considered serious, due to loss the bearly this morning, hoping of blood.

FUNERAL OF DR. MORRISON

Educators and Students at Service

advancement since his ordination and for Principal of Northeast H. S. Funeral services for Dr. Andrew J. great grandchildren. The funeral will Sanuel Gummere, Jesse H. Hall, Mrs. Morrison, principal of the Northeast High School and one of the most beloved educators of this city, who died loved educators of this city, who died Tuesday afternoon in the Women's Tuesda twenty years ago.

The funeral will be held on Monday Homeopatffic Hospital, were held at his The funeral will be bein on Momes of clock this morning. Interment was Tuesday from her home in Homes of clock this morning. Interment was made in the West Laurel Hill Cemetery. home, 2205 West Venango street, at 11

e. Mass will be celebrated at Joseph's Church in Girardville, and The Rev. Dr. Robert R. Littell, pas-tor of the Tioga Presbyterian Church In addition to the archbishop and officiated. He took the text of his ser-Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Dougherty is survived by four other daughters and Corinthians and preached on "Love and

Previous to the services thousands of students of the Northeast High School viewed for the last time the body of

Seventeen-Year-Old Youths Are Again Eligible for Enlistment
It is again possible for seventeenyear-old youths to enlist in the navy, according to authorization of the New Year of the schools: Louis Nusbaum, superintendent of the school extension work gun at College

Class day ceremonies at Swarthmore odlege today began the exercises atnding the forty eighth annual comThe bureau authorized recruiting of

The bureau authorized recruiting of The bureau authorized recruiting of-ficers to resume the enlistment of minors between the ages of seventeen and sighteen beginning land linear

Cigarette Starts Fire

A lighted cigarette which fell on the floor in the parlor was the cause of a $150 fire in the home of Mrs. W. Mr-, Kinney, 5794 Angora terrace, last evening. A caller at the house laid a cigarette on the edge of a tray, from Pittsburgh, June 4.—(By A. P.)—City Council yesterday authorized the hearen department to employ additional nurses to help in the fight against the epidemic of measles here.

SALESMEN WANTED

Just two, for Philadelphia branch of well-established New York stock brokerage house. Must be of unusual ability, either proved or potential. Stock promotion salesmen not wanted, as we handle no promotions. This is a genuine opportunity for an upstanding young man of unimpeachable integrity and good connections. Adequate remuneration. ections. Adequate remuneration

Address C 603, Public Ledger

BLAST WRECKS FARMHOUSE BRYN MAWR P

Community Building to Be Erected in Honor of Those Who Served in War

FUND WILL BE RAISED Mrs. Joseph Stair, sixty-four years old, wife of a sanitary inspector for Camden's board of health, tripped and fractured her leg last night as she was ascending the steps of the Collingswood Home for Aged and Infirm Women, She citizens who sacrificed their lives of served in the great war, the Bryn Mawr memorial committee plans to erect a Mrs. Stair was taken to the large community building which will house the civic organizations of the town. The structure will contain clubrooms, a gymnasium, an auditorium, a headquarters for visiting nurses and a public library.

'Grand Old Man' of Main Line Dies The decision to raise a fund, for this purpose during the latter part of June John W. Tipton, for many years a was taken at a meeting of the commit-resident of Gettysburg. Pa., died last tee last evening at 841 Lancaster ave. Rev. Dr. S. S. Palmer and Others night at the home of his daughter. Mrs. nue. Beyn Mawr. Address Elders' Association

The organizations included in the Cynwyd. He was ninety years old and memorial building project are the Community Center, the Main Line Federa-Mr. Tipton was a resident of Gettys- tion of Churches, the Bryn Mawr Hos-He pital Social Service Department, the ter, Mrs. Stine, at Cynwyd. Mr. Tip- ganizations have been occupying the ton has two other daughters, who live Milestone House, on Lancaster avenue. the Rev. Francis S. Downs, in Cynwyd, Mrs. D. L. Sherman and for the last three years. It was recently learned that this property had

Mr. Tipton was a great friend of the rising generation of Cynwyd, whom fee regaled with first-hand information of the battle of Gettysburg. His reminiscences carried him back to the time when James Buchanan was elected Bryn Mawr avenues. With some al-President of the United States. He was terations the house on the property can an ardent admirer of the late President be used to fill the immediate urgent need Buchanan and frequently visited the for a home for the Community Center latter's grave in Lancaster county.

Besides the three daughters who re-

Besides the three daughters who reside in Cynwyd. Mr. Tipton is survived by a daughter, Mrs. H. H. Hartman, who lives in Baltimore, and a son, Dr. Karl S. Tipton, who makes his home in Pittsburgh.

In a statement made at last light meeting. Alba B. Johnson, who is a member of the Bryn Mawr memorial committee, said: The fund which will be raised in this campaign will be used first of all to cover the purchase of the ground and the cost, of the necessary alteration, to the existing building. All alterations to the existing building. A! money raised in addition will be ap-Sarah Bowne, ninety-seven plied to constructing a building for years old, widow of Joseph G. Bowne. community purposes. Mr. Johnson at one time a state Senator in New and Charles Wilson were appointed to Jersey, died yesterday at her home.

S05 North Fortieth street. She was born at Ringoes, N. J., a daughter of the Rev. Dr. Jacob Krkpatrick. She morial committee include: Alfred M. is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Eliza-beth Nevius, eighty-seven years old, and Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, eighty-one years old: five grandchildren and two learners old: five grandchildren and two learners Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Sargent, George Gibbs, Philip Hart, the Rev. Andrew Mutch. Alfred C. Maule.

REV. JOSEPH A. McDONALD He has been appointed by Arch-bishop Dougherty to be chaplain at the Philadelphia General Hospital

DISCUSS EVANGELISM

Following the conference a born there and lived in that city Red Cross Home Service and the Main were made by Prof. Charles R. Erd-man, of Princeton Theological Seminary; the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Palmer moderator of the general assembly, and These officers were elected : President

Benjamin Franklin, Summit Presby terian Church; vice president, T. Ed-ward Ross, Ardmore Presbyterian Church; secretary, J. W. Landell, Wissabickon Presbyterian Church; Wissahickon Presbyterian Church treasurer, Henry S. Borneman, Frank ford Presbyterian Church.

Stenographers in New York Bank Section to opportunity in large down is for canable, experienced stenographer 25 years. Permanent positions for 25 years, Permanent positions from working conditions, Good marry ches. Since age, education, experience and experience with the condition of substitution of the condition of the cond

Hanscom's

Fancy Assorted Chocolates 65c lb.

They're actually worth a dollar, possibly more. 1232 Market St. 929 Market St 734 Market

SILVER

Candlesticks Bread Trays Bon Bon Dishes

Vases Salls and Peppers Roll Dishes

Sandwich Plates

John Ward Men's Shoes

of this agency can talk to the men in their own language.

HERBERT M. MORRIS

Advertising Agency

Every Phase of S.

Surprizing Savings

SEASONABLE LO SHOES

$8.95

$9.95

REGULAR PRICES AR HOT-STAMPT ON THE SOLES AT THE TIME OF MANUFACTURE. YOU CAN FIGURE YOUR OWN SAVINGS

1221-1223 Chestnut Street Just belo the Adelphia

*We started the sale with 17,000 pairs of new fresh stock.

and Son Wounded, but Save Thousands of Dollars

ROBBERS FLEE-ONE HURT streets.

After a revolver fight with three highwaymen, Oscar Blades and his son Herbert routed the robbers last night and saved several thousand dollars be-longing to the James B. Cowen Building and Loan Association.

The building association met last ice cream and hand woven rugs, night at 766 South Broad street. Ar- The annual flower market has rangements had been previously made attraction this year in a sand pile for to deposit the funds collected at the voungsters in the neighborhood of Southwark National Bank, 610 South the University Settlement House Second street.

automobile was trailing the car.

bank. Herbert saw the red automobile coming toward them. When but a few feet away the car stopped and three men jumped out. They drew revolvers and ordered Oscar Blades to Mrs. B. C. Hirst, Mrs. Charles Days arop a bag containing the funds of the Clark, Miss Louise Herring, Mrs. Patassociation. Blades made a pretense of rick McDevit, Mrs. George Bellewoar, complying with the request, but instead of doing so fired at the bandits. Herbert Blades fired at the same time. Mrs. Philip Kaiser.

The robbers returned the shots as they backed toward the automobile. Persons on the street flew to the shelter doorways. Blades fell to the sidewalk with slight wounds, and about the same time one of the robbers receied toward the car.
His pais helped him into it and the highwaymen drove with great speed down Second street. Two patrolmen Building and Loan Treasurer ing fired after them and the cobbers

A passing automobile was pressed into service to take the injured m the hospital. Late last night a bullet-ridden car was found at Ninth and Wharton

The police have a good description of the highwaymen, who, they say, are not professionals.

FLOWER MARKET TODAY

Old Popular Airs Will Feature Fete in Fitler Square

Hospital, where physicians said today the wounds are not serious. Blades is treasurer of the association and the police believe the highwaymen knew he would take its funds to bank last night.

The building association met last night at 700 and the police believe the highwaymen knew he would take its funds to bank last night at 200 and 100 a The appual flower market has a new

The women's committee and the A conference on evangelism was held by the Elders' Association of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North at Falls bytery of Philadelphia North at Falls and his son, with the been aided by the Society of Little Gardens in getting up the affair, and all proceeds are to be devoted to summership to the conference addresses automobile was trailing the car. streets.

At Second street Mr. Biades and his Mrs. Samuel C. Dixon is chairman son left the car and started toward the for the women's committee, and other lrop a bag containing the funds of the Clark, Miss Louise Herring, Mrs. Pat-

The Best Buy in the United States, bar none!

EMERGENCY SALE of Intensified Values

> PERRY SUITS at One

Uniform Price, $40

Regular $50, $55, $60, $65 and $70 Qualities, and the Goods themselves will make that statement Good!

Sale began Tuesday. June 1st, and been going stronger ever since! Always the way in a Perry Intensified Value Sale. News travels, and the crowd flocks in. If you want to benefit, now is the time to come around. It's the biggest thing yet pulled in the money-saving line.

Fine silk mixed worsteds, finished and unfinished worsteds, serges, Summer weaves and fabrics in a choice and diversity of patterns we haven't seen elsewhere this season-$50, $60, $70 Qualities, at the

One Uniform Price, $40

Perry & Co. Sixteenth & Chestnut Sts.

The Most Serviceable The Most Beautiful Truck in America Car in America PAIGE

Do you want immediate delivery on an automobile? Right now---we can supply you, but maybe in a few weeks from now we cannot make such

prompt delivery. GUY A. WILLEY President

BIGELOW-WILLEY MOTOR CO

Paige Distributors 394 NORTH BROAD STREET, PHILADELPHIA

11th and Chestnut

The Merry Battle of the Philanthropists

¶ For about a month the newspapers have been crowded with big type announcements of Clothing Sales-each dealer trying to outdo the others in stating that he was selling his goods at a tremendous sacrifico.

We have been in the clothing business for many years, but have never been able to discover a method by which we could continue in business without making a profit, and we are yet to be convinced that it can be

We are in thorough sympathy with the popular trend toward lower prices, but our method has been to in the beginning of the season mark a lower profit on our goods than we were justified in taking, and therefore our customers have enjoyed the benefit of fair prices all the

¶ 'The result is that despite the noise of the "Reductions" and all the rest of the commotion, we have enjoyed the Largest Spring Business in Our Entire History.

¶ Really good clothing is not plentiful by any means—and the time has not arrived when it can be bought for a song. If you are interested in buying clothes, we would urge upon you the wisdom of seeing our assortments, and comparing them with the offerings of any other store whether "reduced" or otherwise.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street