If you read the number of weddings if you read the number of weddings in the papers every day and realize how many there are that do not reach the news, you will wender if there are any single souls left in the world or if there will be after June of 1920.

THERE will be two fashionable wed-Lilings today, the Ritchie-Newbold alliance in Chestnut Wheeler-Brice one this afternoon in Dorothy Newbold will make a lovely Dorothy Newbold will make a lovely bride. She's just in the early twenties, and has such pretty hair and such wonderful soft color. And certainly Molly Thayer and Eleanor Newbold are as pretty as they can be; and they will be among the bridesmaids. That wedding will be very quiet because of the reason. will be very quiet because of the recent death of Mrs. Percy Keating. Doro-thy's aunt. Only the families will atthy's aunt. Only the lamines will altered and the reception will also be strictly a family affair. It can't be so tiny at that, for you know the Dixon relatives, and Mrs. Newbold, Donuthy's other, was Miss Harriet Dixon.

WALTER WHEELER and Mabel W Brice will be married at the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany at 4 o'clock. And I'll wager that Mabel will make a stunning little bride. She is so petite and has such a good figure. I have always heard such very nice things about her that I feel quite as if I would like to tell Walter Wheeler

Bert was the famous Princeton player? Arthur, the other brother, who died a few years ago and who was a very large man like Walter, was another great Princeton man. Bert Wheeler married Princeton man. Bert Wheeler married Katherine Madeleine Smith, of this city, but they have lived in New York, where Bert was in business. Katherine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed-mund Dutilh Smith. When she came When she came sat here some years ago she was a great belle, and considered a decided beauty.

HEARD yesterday that Mrs. Alfred I Norris and Dorothy, who were in China and the Far East all of last essen, are wending their way home ward and will probably go to Narra-gansett Pier for a while, if they reach our part of the country within a cou-ple of months. They have been having a wonderful time out there. Both Mrs. Norris and Dorothy are very cosmopolitan and have lived in Paris quite s lot. In fact, when they lived here they carried out the salon idea, and I have heard they kept it up in New York, and it was very popular. Many of the wittiest and cleverest of New Yorkers would meet there in the afternoons, and the Norrises have been quite missed while away. back with open arms.
