

SOCIALISTS OF LEFT TRIUMPH IN BERLIN

Dominant Right Wing, However, Leads in National Reichstag Elections

VON BERNSTORFF DEFEATED

By the Associated Press
Berlin, June 7.—Majority Socialists have been elected to thirty-four seats in the first Reichstag election, according to latest reports from the canvass of the vote cast yesterday.

The Independent Socialists, who ran first in Berlin, will hold twenty-four seats, the German People's party, twenty-five; Democrats, sixteen; German Nationalists, fifteen; Centrists, fourteen; and Communists, two.

The vote, according to figures tabulated up to 4 o'clock this morning, follows: Majority Socialists, 2,071,000; Independent Socialists, 1,450,000; German People's party, 1,415,000; Democrats, 906,000; German Nationalists, 915,000; Centrists, 881,000; Communists, 138,000.

It is indicated that Matthias Erzberger, former vice chancellor and minister of finance, has been elected from Wurttemberg. The selection of Dr. Karl Helfferich at Hamburg is assured.

Count von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States, running as a German Nationalist, has been defeated.

The returns indicate unexpected strength by the Independent Socialists and surprising weakness on the part of the Communists. Only in Hanover did the Majority Socialists poll the number of votes the importance of that organization seemed to foreshadow. In Hamburg, Leipzig, Bremen, Munich and Erfurt the present dominant political organization ran far behind.

Eleven thousand Communist ballots were cast in Munich, which was the only large place reported up until midnight as having shown any real power by the followers of Lenin and Trotsky. No Communist votes were shown in the canvass of the votes in Hamburg and Leipzig.

Reifer, Prof. Wilhelm Kahl, Dr. Gustav Stresemann, Herr You Kerdoff, German Nationalists: Herr Walte, Herr Laverrenz.
Independent Socialists: Karl Zubell, Herr Bretschied.

The present National Assembly, superseded by the new Reichstag, contains 165 Social Democrats, or Majority Socialists; ninety members of the Center, or Clerical party; seventy-five German Democrats, forty-two German Nationalists, twenty-two representatives of the German People's party, twenty-two Independent Socialists and seven representatives of minor parties, a total of 423.
