

GOB VISITS HIS HOME
HERE AFTER 13 YEARS

Joseph Cranston Praises Navy
After Whirl Round Globe
With "Fighting Bob"

Joseph Edward Cranston, United States navy, is making his first visit to his home, 2647 South Bancroft street, after thirteen years at sea. During this time he has been around the world with Admiral "Fighting Bob" Evans and visited virtually every port the ships of the navy enter.

Cranston has worked hard in the service and has been rewarded by commendation and advancement. He enlisted as an apprentice seaman, but has discarded the blue jacket for the uniform of a chief petty officer.

The ship on which Cranston went around the globe was the U. S. S. Ohio. He put in two years on this trip and saw considerable of the world's scenery while at it. In 1914 he went to Vera Cruz on the U. S. S. Arkansas and after a year of activity there was transferred to the gunboat Paducah for two years' surveying service off Cuba. He was later naval postmaster in New York city.

He holds two naval medals, one for the Vera Cruz campaign and the good-conduct medal.

"I'll tell you what I've found out after thirteen years at sea," says Cranston, "and that's this—you can't beat the old U. S. N. for work, pay, food, pay and adventure. If you can, you've got to show me."

Cranston is now on recruiting duty at 1515 Arch street.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 8, 1920
To ease living conditions and yet maintain wages is the big task before American business. We have faith in its accomplishment.

Gimbels $10,000,000 Adjustment Sale
Is Based on Greatly Lowered Prices—Speed Up Production

"Supplant Idle Talk with Efficient Work—Make Every Minute Count for Something Substantial. Think! Can milk be cheaper if half the hands abandon the cows for conversation? Can bread cost less if half the planters and reapers of wheat and millers of flower leave field and granary for the allurements of verbal altercation? Can coal come down if half the miners drop their picks to take up dialects and desert the mine shafts to play with the shafts of wordy criticism?"

"America needs less idle talk and more active hands, and in this lies the only solution of our reconstruction problem. We speak glibly of Americanizing our foreign element. Good! Let us go to it! But let us first recover and renew our own Americanism, remembering that, fundamentally, to Americanize means to energize."

"Let us all get together in this kind of Americanization movement. Let us all get together to give America what it needs today, what it must have if it is to stand as the Great Republic—the full, unstinted, ungrudging, unreserved product of the brains and hands of every man and woman of sound mind and body."

"The Only Way Out Is Through Faith and Work"

The above is reprinted, word for word, from that important Philadelphia organ of labor, "The Progressive Labor World."

Getting out of war is trying the very fiber of the Nation. To reconstruct livable conditions without a chasm of hard times calls for the constructive wit of men in every walk of life.

Permanently fair prices cannot come through abuse of the other man. He would not be a factor toward still higher prices if you were not getting higher prices and pinching him. But this is a time for action; kind words better no parsnips. A time for those to buy who have been held back by high prices.

TO SAVE THE SCHOOLS PAY THE TEACHERS

The fact that teachers are usually out of employment for several months during the summer makes their so-called vacation a hardship. It is a vacation without pay.

The work of a teacher in the classroom is so highly specialized that it is difficult to secure desirable summer employment.

This Corporation has been furnishing summer employment for teachers for the last twelve years and has openings for several others this season.

We prefer the studious teacher, those with experience in several grades; those with some experience in the ungraded school; those with longer vacations or those who have not been out of Normal School more than three to five years.

We pay from $100.00 to $200.00 a month the first season, depending on training and experience.
