FALSE NOTE FOUND IN LODGE'S SPEECH

Ex-President Taft Deplores Senator's Dodging of Peace Treaty Issue

DEFINITE POLICY VITAL

In a signed editorial in today's issue of the Public Ledger former President Taft reviews Senator Ledge's keynote speech at the Chicago convention at some length. For the most part he finds it a masterly address, couched in terms that easily make it superior, in arrangement and lucidity, to any of Pres-

'What all are justly concerned with s the position that Mr. Lodge takes as to the future policy of the Republican party in respect to the League, and upon this we are given no light. He decribes the reservations on the Monroe Doctrine, on Article X, on Shantung and on English representation. He says: 'Some of us were deeply conat all and that absolute safety could be obtained in no other way. Others of us, more numerous, believed that the eservations I have described would proteet the United States against the perils of the covenant if we joined the League.

"'If we joined the league.' Does the senator mean that they did not wish the league when they voted for it? He cannot mean this, and yet the careful phrasing leaves an impression of a desire to withdraw from this vote for ratification. He does not mention that the number of Republicans who favored the latter course was thirty-five, while the number who opposed the league altogether was fourteen, and that a ma-jority of the Senate within seven of two-thirds sustained the league with reservations. He appeals many times for approval of what the Republicans have done in the Senate, but he does not say whether the action of the thirty-five or the action of the fourteen should be approved. Such approval is impor-tant only as it determines the future policy of the party. He does not advise the convention to determine this solely important question, and he evidently de-preentes a decision on that point. He seeks to hold within the party mer whose holting from the party he fears if
