

TWO LEGION POSTS FIGHT CASH BONUS

David W. Jamieson and Benjamin Franklin Units Instruct Delegates to Cantonment

GEARTY POST PLANS DANCE

Two American Legion posts in Philadelphia will oppose the cash bonus to ex-service men at the second annual state cantonment at Allentown, June 18-19.

David W. Jamieson Post announced today it has instructed its delegates to oppose the bonus. The delegates are H. Eugene Helms and E. C. T. Bick, and Bertram K. Wolfe is alternate.

The other post on record against the cash bonus is Benjamin Franklin Post, of which Dr. A. C. Abbott is commander. This post will send five delegates to the convention, headed by Marvin J. Pickering, vice commander and head of the state committee on legislation.

This post instructed its delegates to fight against the indorsement of this feature of the bonus program by the state cantonment.

No opposition is voiced by these posts to the other features of the program for assisting ex-service men, such as the issuing of insurance policies on the basis of the length of service, the sale of farm land and the purchase of homes. Walter M. Gearty Post will have a dance next Monday evening for the ladies of the post at Eagles Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, at 8:30.

Post No. 70 has announced a dance for the near future, details of which will be perfected at a meeting in the library at Twentieth and Shunk streets tomorrow night.

Posts of the legion are requested to forward to the office of the Department of Pennsylvania any resolutions they desire introduced in the state cantonment, that they may be classified and put in proper shape by the resolutions committee.

EXERCISES AT WANAMAKER'S

Girls' Branch of J. W. C. I. Will Hold Closing Celebration Tonight

The closing exercises of the Cadet Girls' Branch of the John Wanamaker Commercial Institute will be held this evening in University Hall, the John Wanamaker Store.

The program will consist of selections by the J. W. C. I. Military Band, songs by the school, a discussion of the ways in which J. W. C. I. girls find self-development through their store and school life; the presentation of alumnae prizes and diplomas, an address by Miss Beulah A. Fenimore, principal of the Kensington Girls' High School, as well as exhibitions of military and musical units. Thirty-four students will be graduated.

BLOW FROM DOOR FATAL

George Johnson, thirty-five years old, a baggage checker employed on the West Jersey and Seashore Railroad, died this morning in Cooper Hospital, Camden, as the result of a fractured skull received Monday when struck by a door on a train. Mr. Johnson's home address is given as 118 Seaside avenue, Atlantic City, N. J., but he is known to be a native of Delaware.

"MAGAZINE GIRL" GRANTED DIVORCE

War Romance of Actress-Model, Whose Beauty Won Six Hearts at Once, Ends in Court

MARRIED TO ENSIGN HERE

The "girl on the magazine cover" whose likeness captured the hearts of six young British officers in a dugout on the Somme and who was married here in 1915 to an American naval officer, has obtained a divorce.

Mrs. Phyllis McReavy, as Phyllis Munday, was appearing at a local theatre in December, 1915, in a company headed by the late Gladys Deane. At a reception on the battleship Connecticut, then in drydock at the navy yard, she met Ensign Clarence J. McReavy, a naval aviator.

After a courtship of two weeks the aviator and the actress were married in this city on December 18. Recently Mrs. McReavy has been living at Lake Forest, a fashionable suburb of Chicago, where she brought suit for divorce against McReavy, now a lieutenant, stationed at the Great Lakes naval training station.

Prior to her marriage Mrs. McReavy posed for the cover of the London Sketch. A copy of the magazine found its way to a muddy dugout on the Somme when the German war machine was rolling westward through France.

Six British subalterns, captivated by the likeness of the pretty girl, wrote impassioned verses to the magazine in honor of the pretty young woman. They called her "La Belle Dolores-Vivandiere of the Trench."

FAMILY ROUTED BY FIRE

Fire discovered at 7:30 o'clock this morning caused $500 damage to the home of James Lewis at 4480 Greene street. The fire was discovered in a rear storage room on the second floor. Lewis and his family escaped before firemen reached the scene. The origin is unknown.

LESTER PIANOS

CIRCLE GLOBE

They have taken their place beside Philadelphia locomotives, Philadelphia steamships, Philadelphia hats, Philadelphia saws and scores of other products which are daily adding to the commercial prestige of this city in the four quarters of the earth.

In discussing the manifold industries of the "world's workshop," the Philadelphia Inquirer had this to say concerning Lester Pianos:

"This Philadelphia product is adding to the fame of our city. So excellent is the quality of Lester Pianos that they are in great demand in foreign countries. Large quantities are being exported to South America, the West Indies, Europe, Asia and South Africa."

Mails, Cables and Wireless

daily call for Lester Pianos from every continent because their artistic quality, their integrity, their marvelous durability are recognized everywhere by musicians and laymen alike. And in Philadelphia, their home, more Lesters have been sold than any other high-grade make.

Yet, with all its admitted superiority, it is as easy to own a Lester as one of the many inferior, assembled brands. Made complete and sold by us, there are no middle profits to pay. Let us explain how easily you can own a Lester at once.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

HERE in Philadelphia there are only a few days during the entire year when you cannot motor with pleasure, providing you can enclose or open your car to meet weather conditions.

Therefore, in considering what car will best meet your needs it is well to bear in mind the very wide utility of the Paige Coupe. It is a model that adapts itself with perfect ease, both summer and winter, to the demands of the business or professional man, to the social duties of the women, or to the touring requirements of a small party.

Coupled with its all-season comfort and easy riding qualities, is the mechanical dependability and ease of control, characteristic of all Paige cars.

At the present time we are able to make immediate delivery on these popular models. Maybe we won't be in such a fortunate position a little later on, but right now you can drive away with the car you choose.
