Gimbels Ten-Million-Dollar Adjustment Sale

Makes the Store and the Public Partners in Fighting the High Cost of Living

No price that is justified will stay down—hence, injury is done to no industry. We do not believe that the coming settling to lower prices will bring such values as Gimbels offer in this sale. But we do know that war prices are done. And the Store will as earnestly work for the utmost of good values under the peace-at-last conditions as it worked to serve you well during the war.

And this great sale is the earnest of our stand.

Take floor coverings. They have been probably dearest of merchandise. Look at Gimbel prices now. Not back to any 1907 level—the duty that faces business now is to readjust living conditions without any period of depression.

Everybody has money nowadays. It has had small purchasing power of late. Let the work be to continue the flow of money with a restored purchasing power. We believe the task is possible—so, in celebration of the start to easier living, this sale, with its—

Tremendous Bargains in Every Line

This one store owns considerably over Ten Million Dollars' worth of goods today. Gimbels in New York, as much more. Gimbels in Milwaukee, another four millions.

No danger of the stream running dry—and for a little while we undertake to keep it running freely with savings running to half. Part of those savings are seasonal happenings; the larger part are actual reductions in the cause we espouse.

Gimbels First to Show Box-Pleated and Knife-Pleated Surf-Satin (Cotton) Skirts

And the first hour they were down on the floor, they began to go like hot cakes! White, of course. An unusually high luster. And it's a toss-up which of the two very, very smart models is the smarter.

Either at $10.75
