ONE star in the caste sometimes of makes a play sprightly, but a one-star team in athelities is not always a huge success. For this reason, at the start of the Suburban golf cup struggle, North Hills was picked in this column. The latter took the bet to enliven the competition, but not with much thought

North Hills was pieged in this column as a likely winner of the "little" league championship.

The Edge Hill club holds the title today for the first time, and it was due not so much to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that its tail-enders proved equally strong against the opposition they ensembled to the strong against the opposition they ensembled to the strong against the opposition they ensembled to the strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that it had strong lead-off golfers, as to the fact that its tail-enders proved equally strong against the opposition they ensembled the strong against the shots, but has ideal temperament for medal play, which is the main assignment of the provided the strong the strong against the opposition they ensemble the opposition the strong against the shots, but has ideal temperament for medal play, which is the main assignment of the provided the strong that the opposition they ensemble the strong the strong against the shots, but has ideal temperament for medal play, which is the main assignment of the provided the provided the strong that the opposition they ensemble the opposition that the shots, but has ideal tempe

The "moppers-up" delivered all the points for North Hills. Paul Tewkspoints for N qualifying medal, defeated J. W. Platt, 2 up. in the lead-off match at Arominink. Platt. North Hills, was followed by his teammates, Frank Leonard and Cecil Calvert, who were also both defeated. Then came Styles and King, who won the only points for the camp in the compete from this city. Hills at Aronimink.

North Hills at Aronimink.

At North Hills, W. J. Platt was dedetected by Walter Reynolds, Aronimink, in the lead-off match. Then came a straight run of victories for the four straight full of victories for the four straight follow-up men which dedetected the title.

It is interesting to learn that the occasion of his going to Pittsburgh is also to attend the wedding of his cousin, Miss Irene Peacock. Miss Peacock made her debut, you might say, to stardom in women's golf by going to the semifinals of the national at Shawnee stard the title.

Aronimink had an excellent iteam and made a fine showing this year. Two better lead-off men than Reynolds and Tewksbury would be hard to find in the Suburban. The other individual players made good records which carried the team to the finals and it was only superiority by North Hills at the bottom that decided the title.

Ratner-Four Eight-Rounders in All

All eight boxers scheduled to appear on the program of the open-air show at Shibe Park, postponed from last night owing to the heavy rain and which will be held tonight, are in Philadelphia. They have been in town for two days. and when it was announced officially at 4 P. M. yesterday by Promoter Battling Levinsky that the show had been put over until today, all of the mittmen went through light workouts at local gymnasiums.

Johnny Wilson, the new middleweight champion who is billed for the final eight-round number against Augie Ratner, of New York, limbered up at Philadelphia Jack O'Brien'ss. He did no sparring, indulging only in pulley exercises, rope-skipping and shadow-boxing. During the day Wilson was the guest of several Italian-American clubs in South Philadelphia, and it was learned that one of these organizations would present him with a belt when he steps into the ring tonight. This belt, in the eyes of those making Johnny the gift, will be emblematic of the world's middleweight championship.

For the information of a number of fans who made telephonic queries yesterday, it is stated that the middleweight championship can change hands in the bout tonight, despite the fact that no decision will be rendered at the finish of the contest. Both men are scheduled to come in at 160 pounds. This is the new poundage recognized by the Luternatical Specting Club of New York. Johnny Wilson, the new middleweight

The first eight-rounder on the program will introduce Georges Papin, lightweight champion of France. Joe Tiplitz will aid in the introduction, and at the same time "Tip" will endeavor to make l'apin's debut in Philly as unpleasant as possible. Joe isn't a clever boxer, by any means, but he can sock and he can wallop with either hand from any angle. Papin may expect no pink-tea affair.

Next into the ring will be Harry Kid
Brown, representing Philadelphia, and Johnny Murray, of New York. They are featherweights. The semifinal will bring together Eddie Fitzsimmons, the New York southpaw, who stopped Ralpin Brady in eleven rounds on Monday night at Jersey City, and Frankie Cal-lahan, a Brooklyn lightweight. The first bout will go on at 8:30 ;
