

LAWYERS CANCEL WILLIAMSON PLEA

Application for Freedom of Philadelphia Banker Not Presented to Board

OTHER PARDONS ARE ASKED

The application of Jesse Williamson, 24, of this city, for a pardon was withdrawn today before the Board of Pardons by his attorneys.

Williamson was sentenced on June 20, 1917, to pay a fine of $1000 and to serve not less than eight years nor more than twenty-four years in the Eastern Penitentiary. He was an official of a Philadelphia banking institution and was short more than $500,000. His conviction was on the charge of fraudulently making a written instrument.

Bonds Still Missing

Kiley and Merriam were sentenced March 28, 1919, to the Eastern Penitentiary for two years to thirty months for the larceny of $85,000 worth of Liberty Bonds from the Land Title Co. The bonds have never been recovered.

John Millet, who has served five years of an eight-year sentence for entering wool jobbers' houses on Federal and Wharton streets, was furnished an unexpected alibi by William Foley in the Eastern Penitentiary yesterday.

No Sympathy for Robbers

The board had little sympathy for pleas for pardons of young men convicted of hold-ups and robberies during the latter part of 1918 and early in 1919 in Philadelphia. A number of cases were presented and District Attorney Fox said that it was the beginning of a move to release many of such prisoners who had terrorized Philadelphia and who received heavy sentences that broke up the robberies. In the case of Lawrence Kelly and Frank Moran, Attorney General Schaffer expressed the opinion that neither had served long enough terms. Letters asking a pardon for Charles W. Glaser, sentenced in July, 1919, to twenty-two months on two indictments of perjury, were presented to the board.

Glaser was implicated in cases growing out of the bonding business in which children were defrauded out of their estates through Frank B. Ellis, the former Philadelphia attorney, who was appointed their guardian.

Si seguala che i ribelli albanesi superano in barbarie i peggiori barbari ed il comandante di essi ha fatto conoscere al comandante italiano che qualora non evacuera da Valona, farà massacrare i nostri prigionieri. La notizia ha prodotto profonda impressione. Sembra che nel recente attacco da parte degli insorti contro Valona, gli italiani abbiano avuto soltanto una ventina di morti.

"PADDY THE BEAR" KILLED

Eighth Victim of a Band of Chicago Gunmen

Chicago, June 17.—(By A. P.)—Chicago's gang war was renewed this morning with the shooting of "Paddy the Bear" Ryan by five gunmen who fired in an automobile. Ryan died on the operating table. "Paddy the Bear" owned a saloon in which a policeman was recently killed by a gunman, and was also one of those held in connection with the recent murder of Edward Coleman, labor leader.

Police believe the shooting a direct outgrowth of the Coleman murder, which has never been cleared up. Ryan was a brother-in-law of one of the men Coleman named in an ante-mortem statement. Ryan is the eighth victim of the gang war which broke out with the killing of Maurice ("Moss") Enright, "king of the gunmen," on February 3.
