"A passion for legislation is not a sign of democratic progress," he said, "and in the mass of measures introduced in the Legislatures of our free com-monwealths there is too little evidence of perspective, and an abundance of elaborate and dreary futilities. Occasionally, a constructive measure of great benefit is skillfully planned, but we are constantly impressed with but we are constantly impressed with the lost motion and the vast waste in the endeavor of democracy to function wisely."

The regrettable thing, Mr. Hughes

continued, is "that the tendency to enact uncertain laws seems to be increasing, and, what is still worse, that the people tolerate it and that there are but faint demands for improvement.

Progress Creates Complexities

Cambridge, Mass., June 21.—Charles E. Hughes, speaking at the centenary of Harvard Law School here today, de-clared that "in the art of governing our-selves we not only fall short of what we should expect in a free people of great intelligence, but we frequently present a sorry spectacle." His sub-ject was "Some Observations on Legal Education and Democratic Progress."

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1920

Will YOU Profit by the Experience of The Borden Company?

The Borden Company, founded in 1857, a prominent factor in the progressive milk supply of the nation, is using 31 Dictaphones in the various departments of its General Office. To this progressive company The Dictaphone long ago proved its case on a basis of time-saving alone.

Your office requirements may be similar to those of The Borden Company, or your correspondence problem may involve not only time, but increased efficiency and a large volume of work.

We are ready to install The Dictaphone and let it demonstrate in your office, on your work, that its use will speed up your work, save time, and handle your correspondence accurately and efficiently.

Ask for a working demonstration of The Dictaphone.

THE DICTAPAONE "The Shortest Route to the Mail-Chute"

> The Sharples Separator Co., Chicago, Ill., says: "We most heartily endorse The Dictaphone as being the one piece of office equipment that stands pre-eminently first. It saves time of both typist and the dictator. and permits the executive and the clerk to dictate their letters as rapidly or as slowly as they wish."

> St. Louis & San Francisco Railroad, St. Louis, Mo., says: "We have only praise for the 250 Dictaphones which are used in our various departments. They save time and money. We consider The Dictaphone a useful and profitable office convenience."

The Vogue Company, New York, N. Y., Mr. H. Bauer, Purchasing Agent, says: "The Dictaphones in four of our important departments speed up the work and save the time of our executives."

Western Union Telegraph Company, J. H. Willever, Vice-President in charge of Commercial Dept., says: "The Dictaphone is in extensive use in our various departments and is giving good satisfaction. After The Dictaphone was tried out experimentally in the first instance, a short experience showed it to be a time-andmoney saver. Our use of The Dictaphone has grown steadily."
