EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MUNDAI, JUNE 21, 1920

ad a disquieting thought. ad a disquieting thought. c, smilling demurely over her white , was a small, prettily made little a, with silky hair trimly braided. tather pale, small face with lng and regular features. She was unidered exactly pretty, perhaps hight when she had been kissed, and had kissed in return. Nobody dreamed it, she told herself with innocent exultation, looking at Alix, sunk into her chair ungracefully, and at Anne, peacefully sewing. They thought of her as a child—she, who was engaged to be married! "So-we walk home with young men?" mused the doctor, smiling, "Look here, girls, this little Migs Muffet will be cut-ting you both out with that young man. 1111 siris, this little Mizs Muffet will be cut-fing you both out with that young man. If you're not careful?" Alix, deep in her story, did not hear him, but Anne smiled faintly, and faintly frowned as she shook her head. Site considered Cherry sufficiently precorious without Uncle Lee's ill-considered toler-ance. Anne had often told him that Cherry was the "pink-and-white type" that would attract "boys" soon enough without any encouragement from him But he persisted in regarding her as nothing more than a captivating baby! He would have had them always chil-dren, this tender, simple, innocent Doc-tor Sirickland. He was in many ways a child himself. He had never made money in his profession ; he and his wife die to him it was yesterday that die an a squarely built baby, dig for Artickland. He was in many ways a child himself. He had never made for Strickland. He was in many ways a child himself. He had never made money in his profession; he and his wife as a child himself. He had never made money in his profession; he and his wife as usual devotion, perhaps because the had the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes, and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes, and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes, and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes. Anne and the two tiny girls had had a hard enough struggle sometimes, and the two trans father and point the strickland Patent Fire Extinguisher. The house under the redwoods, with this girls and an air rife the the dist in his arms she was for happy this her taber, and of guns, and the two did wany winters, when the rese dripped und had to take the 3 o'clock the sole ducked into his own. Lovd had to take the 3 o'clock the was into her soft little of April, and hung Japar burs, with her soft little boker and her soft little in hey shadew of Mt. Tamaling to fare, and go any was from the shadow of Mt. Tamaling was from the shadow of Mt. Tamaling to fare, the sole of the true would be an eighboring hore that it would be a neighboring hore that the source would be an elghboring hore the reducke the for the would be an elghboring hore the sole of t with me!" She did not add that had left them at his own turning.
and left them at his own turning.
bught ha wasn't going to be at of the silence. She had been in the silence. She had been in the silence. She had been in the silence is the had to go to the silence is the silence

Ing and regular features. She was maidered exactly pretty; perhaps ontrast with Cherry's unusual was rather hard on both the girls, but she was so perfectly is in her little groove, so busy, ited, and necessary in the doctor's hold, that it was rather a habit all their friends to praise Anne, had "admirers," too, Cherry re-bad mainters," too, Cherry re-bad mainters," too, cherry re-bad was not all a her tonight, but r she nor Alix had ever been en-ensaged engaged i three girls were in his sight, is girl he had always feit an rotworing fondness. It seemed arday that Cherry, a rosy-durdy little girl in a checked opron, had been trotting off to him it was yesterday that een a squarely built baby, dig-e garden paths, and sniffing at plicks. He had followed her childhood with more then a sturity

We remarked to the young lady across the way that the Democratic race also seems to be a free-for-all this year and she said it might look that way by comparison but she supposed some of 'em had spent some money.

2

