Miss Emma Love returned Monday from a week-end spent in Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Love and their children will leave today for Ocean City, where they have a cottage for the

The Junior Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal Church gave a lawn party at the church on Saturday afternoon.

THERE will be a debutante party to. I night at the Philadelphia Country Club, when Mr. and Mrs. Francis du Pont will entertain at a dance in honor of their daughter, Elise du Pont. Elise is to make her more formal debut at a tea in November if the plans made tow hold, but this party tonight will be for the younger set, and some of the girls who are not coming out next year will be among the guests.

Elsie is extremely sweet looking, very slender and has extraordinarily pretty bright 'grown bair. She is decidedly attractive. Virginia Carter is to have a dinner given for her by her mother before the party. She will be a debutante next year, too. She is the daughter of the Rev. George Calvert Carter and Mrs. Carter. Virginia and Mary, her younger sister, will go to Spring Lake later in the season to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Edwin Beuson.

THINK it's decidedly nice that MeKean Allen is engaged to a girl from Philadelphia, don't you? The Allens bave lived so long out West that you sort of expected them to marry western girls, but then McKean has been East for college, he is a Princeton student, vou know, and he met Emma Schwartz here quite a while ago, and those who know them both were not surprised to hear of the engagement. Of course, he has gone out quite a lot and has spent his holidays with his various relations and friends in Philadelphia too, so he's hardly a westerner.

His mother you know, was Miss Maria McKean, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKean, who lived for many years in the house now occupied by the Stotesburys. She is a sister of Mrs. Norton Downs and of Mr.
Thomas McKean and Mr. Henry Pratt McKean, of this city.

Emma Schwartz is the daughter of Mr, and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, of Germantown. She is a niezo of Mrs.
Joseph Tiers, of Chestnut Hill, and of

SHE was a small, frail woman and had a number of bundles on her arm. She was standing in a crowded car, and was utterly unable to reach a strap. Well, the car lurched suddenly and she leaned unavoidably toward a tall woman standing next to her, one of her bundles touching the tall woman's arm. "Well" said that lady. "I have enough to do to keep myself up without your leaning on me." And she took her elbow and lammed it into her frail neighbor's side with such force that the little woman cried out. And some women wonder why they are not always treated with politeness. NANCY WYNNE.
