

The Marriage Trifler

Hazel Deyo Batchelor
Barbara Knight, the most popular girl in the younger set, married Keith...

KATHERINE NEWBERRY had been in Keith's office for two years. She liked Keith, but there was nothing foolish about her...

Although Katherine herself was blind to it, there was one man of the crowd, Robert Craig, whose feelings toward her were anything but platonic...

It was one afternoon after he had finished his dictation. Katherine was closing her book and was about to leave when he started her by asking her a question on marriage...

Katherine dropped back in her chair, and for the first time in her life she might have looked upon one of the Thursday night crowd, with simple friendliness...
