For the proper celebration of Independence Day, you will need many things-a new frock a new tennis racquet, and mayhap an ice cream freezer. You will find in the Chestnut Street Shops the ry newest and hest of these, and, in fact, of all those material things which contribute to the enjoyment of a holiday.

Deborah Sogan

WE'VE come to regard the electric fan as a necessity since we've become acquaint ed with its energy-producing qualities: Certainly, it helps you to forget the hot weather on sultry summer days and it is so much easier to work in your kitchen if you have a Westinghouse Electric Fan on your windowsill or table, and dinner, of warm summer evening, tastes much Letter if it is eaten to the accompaniment of a cool, refreshing breeze from a Westinghouse Whirl-wind Fan. Restful, health-building sleep likewise requires a cool room, and it is possible to make your bedroom comfortably cool if you have an electric fan. You will find Westinghouse Electric Fans in various sizes at the store of J. Franklin Miller, 1612 Chestnut Street.

ANY men who heretofore have belonged to the "wilted-collar brigade" have decided to adopt the Polo Shirt which Jacob Sons, 1424-26 Chestnut Reed's Street, are showing this season. It is of plain, closely woven Oxford cloth, or of mercerized Oxford cloth in a slightly heavier weave. The collar, which is of a most becoming shape, has fairly long points, which button to the shirt. It is much more comfortable than a stiff collar on a warm summer day. A convenient pocket on the left side of the shirt has a buttoned flap. The round cuff, with buttons sewed on, enables a man to roll up his sleeves without any thought of lost cuff links-a feature much appreciated during a enuous moment in golf or tennis. It is the ideal shirt for sports wear.

ALIFORNIA Plums - large, red and deliciously sweet, are now at the store of Henry R. Hallowell & Son, Broad Street below Chestnut. Apricots and the most uscious Cantaloupes of from California, the large black California Cherries; Peaches from Georgia, which are growing finer with each shipment, and clusters rapes from Belgium, are some of guarantee safe delivery. lowell's facilities for shipping to summer resorts, where such fruits as Hallowell's are not obtainable. I comes to mind immediately as the logical place to buy them.

D ELIGHTFULLY cool looking are those Georgette frocks in pastel shades, which are among the new things I saw at the Blum Store, 1310 Chestnut Street. One was heavily bended with white beads, with, here and there, touches of pale green. Another, beaded alco in white, had the trimming so cleverplaced that it accentuated the lines of the figure. Each datail of the gown, in fact, contributes to a slenderizing effect. These dresses are just the thing for the informal affairs of summer. The crepe Georgette dresses in the dark er colors are most reasonably priced t Blum's, and they have a most leasing individuelity about them. at A dark brown dress, with tunic weighted with bends of crystal and iet, was extremely modish.

O NE of the absolute essentials tion is the proper sort of traveling bag. There was a time when we thought that the experi enced traveler disdained any but the shabbiest of traveling bags - the degree of shabbinets being in direct "atio to his multifacious "andering" But nowadays we consider it quite as important to carry a good-looking suitcase as to wear a well-tailored suit. Eyen if one is sponding only one night out-of-town, an over night bag, such as the one of black enamel leather with French ivory fittings which I saw at the store of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company ts a most convenient thing to own and, for a longer trip, the fitted suitenses are the most useful things imaginable.

PREPARATIONS for a "real out-and-cut good time" on the Fourth should include a visit to the store of A G. Svalding & Bros., at 1210 Costnut Street. where you will find the very bes ach shipment, and great of those huge Hothouse ested in the set of Lawn Bowls the fruits now at Hallowell's.
