Nancy Wynne Talks of Several Entertainments for Mrs. Roland Morris—Annual Meeting of Garden Clubs in New England

IT IS so nice to see Mrs. Roy Morris again. She was here last summer, but we did not expect to have her back for some time more, at least, again, when Mr. Morris, who, as you know, is ambassador to Japan, returned to his country. Mrs. Morris came, too, last week. It was here in time for the school commencement. He goes to one of the schools in New England.

Quite a number of parties have been given at the Morris home. The last was given by Mrs. Joseph Wear, who was Miss Adelaide West. Her mother was Mrs. George West. Her mother was Mrs. George West. Her mother was Mrs. George West.

They have a wonderful time on these parties. This year one of the Mrs. places they are going to have is in the city of New York. They are going to have a party in the city of New York.

DOROTHY WELLS is on her way to the Dolans. She is a sister of Dolley Wells, who is engaged to Sarah Dolan. Mr. and Mrs. Dolan will give a buffet luncheon on Sunday in her honor out at the Dolans.

Did you feel yesterday as if some one had put a huge bandage around your head as they pulled it tight as tight could be. Perhaps it was the weather; it seemed sort of heavy to me. And everything was an effort. Finally I decided to "beat it" out in the open air, far from the maddening crowd. I even did not walk up Chestnut street to see what I might see. I went out into the country and I got off the train and walked down a long road into the Wissahickon.

I sat for a little while in a lovely cool spot and then I arose and walked along the little path on the high side of the creek, intending to find a little summerhouse that I knew of there, where I might rest and think of my being. You know that lovely indolent feeling, but as I approached said rustic something told me to go cautiously. I don't know who; but I fortunately did, for the poor dear lamb did not see me at all. But, oh, boy! I saw them, and they were the very two I was speaking of about a week ago in said column when I said I was sure they were engaged. Now I know it, because she is not the type of girl who would permit an er—well—er—manifestation of affection on the part of a man unless she was engaged to him. And the manifestations were not wanting.

Signs I "beat it," but this time I did not go so far. I was smiling, for, you know, "all the world loves a lover."
